"TIM" FOUND WITH STOLEN BONDS TRIES TO DENY HIS GUILT

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 14.—Held under $100,000 bonds, with evidence naming him as the "brains" of the $350,000 Chicago mail robbery, Timothy D. (Big Tim) Murphy, ex-convict, and alleged slugger, tonight seemed to face the greatest of trouble which he has yet encountered in his clashes with the law.

His confessions, made in the face of death threats, characterize "Tim" as the man who stayed in the background while his pals attended to the dangerous details of the hold-up.

A fourth confession, which "Big Tim" had been compelled by circumstances to make himself, did not add to the happiness of the union leader and politician.

IN BIG TIM'S OFFICE.

It was in "Big Tim's" office where he presided over the destinies of his street cleaners' union that the robbery was planned, the confessions say. It was "Big Tim," they declare, who corrupted Ralph Teter, underpaid mail clerk. It was "Big Tim" who promised police protection. It was "Big Tim" who set the price which each one of the participants was to receive. And it was "Big Tim," according to the statement, who promulgated the dictum that the first man to "squawk" should pay the penalty with his life.

"Big Tim" himself discussed the charges in characteristic fashion following his arraignment before United States Commissioner James R. Glass.

HE HID THE BONDS.

"I admitted hiding the bonds," he said, "because it was the only way of saving my father-in-law, who is an old man, from going to jail. But I haven't confessed to taking any part in the robbery, and I don't intend to. As far as that goes, you can say for me that Tim Murphy never confessed. There's a couple of Canuses going around here singing their heads off, but they'll have to learn their piece better. This Teter is simply down and out and Bradford is nothing but an ex-convict. They pulled this job and passed the stuff to me. I admit I was a boob to take care of it for them, but that's all they can hang on me."

Events moved rapidly today in the unraveling of the mail robbery, following the discovery last night of $112,500 worth of the loot in the home of William Diggs, at 857 West Fiftieth street. By noon Edward Gelrun, "Big Tim's" chauffeur, added his confession to those already made by Peter and George Bradford, alias Hecker, a former prison pal of Murphy's.

FIND STOLEN CURRENCY.

A little later, men from the detective bureau swooped down on the grocery of Paul Bolandi, a close personal friend of "Big Tim," at 1525 Wallace street, arrested Bolanti and found $1000 of the stolen currency in a strongbox under a counter. Within another hour Vincenzo Cosmano, Murphy's right-hand man, had been arraigned before United States Commissioner James R. Glass on a charge of robbing the mails, and held in bonds of $75,000.

Murphy's attorney protested vigorously against the $100,000 bond but the fact that he is already under charges in connection with the robbery of the Pullman Trust and Savings Bank caused the commissioner to stand pat. One of his bondsmen in the Pullman robbery today appeared before Judge Landis and asked that he be relieved of the $30,000 worth of responsibility he had assumed.

"If more mothers would administer that kind of treatment the town would be much safer for themselves and their children," she said.

DEMANDS EX-KAISER BE PUT ON TRIAL

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, June 14.—Senator Duplantier put before the French Senate today an interpellation on "what measures the French government intends to take concerning execution of the Treaty of Versailles relative to bringing William Hohenzollern, ex-Kaiser of Germany, to trial for his crimes against humanity."

The Senator asked that a date for discussion of his interpellation be fixed immediately.

Amid a tremendous tumult, Alexandre Berard, who was presiding owing to the illness of Leon Bourgeois, the Senate's president, ruled that a date for the interpellation could not be decided until Premier Briand, who did not attend, was present.

Senator Duplantier's demand for the interpellation caused a sensation. The Senate was in an uproar, many Senators indorsing the demand and others opposing it on the ground that more serious business was on hand.

Many Senators asked that the date for the interpellation be set for June 17. Berard, however, was obdurate. He finally managed to make himself heard and postponed the date of discussion indefinitely.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 14.—The oldest joke in the world—next to the mother-in-law wheeze, has been exploded with a loud report. From time immemorial the tradition has prevailed that hens had a particular aversion to water, and cartoonists since the year one have pictured a distraught hen on the banks of a stream in which her family of ducklings were disporting themselves.

Ed St. Clair, game warden, upsets the old tradition. On one of the farms under State supervision he uses hens to hatch the eggs of wild fowl, and the 300 hens under his charge have learned to follow their adopted children into the water. Each hen on the farm raises five families of ducks or pheasants each year, St. Clair says that these hens go into water readily, leading their charges.

His theory is that their aversion to water has been overcome by their constant association with water fowl. When anything threatens the ducklings, the whole family hastens to the nearest water and plunges in, the hen leading the procession.

LONG SKIRTS ARE DECREED AT CHANTILLY

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PARIS, June 14.—The fact that French dressmakers have decreed long skirts became known at Chantilly race track yesterday, when Rue De La Paix establishments sent mannequins wearing dresses ankle length, although a week previously robes reached midway between the knee and ankle. American women present declared the long skirts are a marked triumph for the American style makers.

Although the mannequins wore light, bright colored gowns, the chic French women maintained their black, monkey fur or fringe-trimmed dresses, the only bit of color being violet hats.

Observers remarked that not a single straw hat was worn by the smart women, although in February, when steeple chasing was reopened, nearly every one wore straw.

The leading haberdashers also complain that men are not wearing straw hats this year, many of the best dressed men sticking to their Alpine hats.

Unionite Who Always Stood for Lenine Can't Get Even a Look-in.

With Senator France He Expected Glad Hand; May Now Declare War.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

BERLIN, June 14.—William Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, who has returned to Berlin after a futile three weeks' effort to obtain admission to Russia is clearly nonplussed by the attitude of the Moscow government toward him and now threatens to abandon his campaign in favor of re-establishing relations between Russia and the United States.

Discussing what he terms the "inexcusable failure" of Lenine's government to admit him to Russia, Johnston said today:

MAY LAY OFF BUSINESS.

"Our organization of 300,000 workers has stood foremost in America in the fight on behalf of soviet Russia. We were pioneers in the movement for a renewal of trade relations. There is now nothing that we can do except lay off the whole business."

Johnston is convinced that the soviet government does not want him in Russia. He believes that about the time he, Senator France and others who have sought admission to Russia get started for home again the Moscow government will send hurried permission for him to enter Russia and express regret over the unfortunate delay in handling his application.

Johnston said he had failed to get any answer to his telegram to the Bolshevik envoy in Riga making a final request for admission. Neither has he received a reply from Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, former Red envoy in the United States, who is now in Moscow and to whom Johnston also telegraphed. Johnston's credentials were taken to Moscow from Riga by Budnowski, former attache of the soviet bureau in New York, who promised to deliver them to Foreign Minister Tchitcherin in person, and to speak to him in Johnston's behalf, but even this was unavailing.

FRANCE STILL WAITS.

Reports that Johnston, Senator France and other Americans were being kept out of Russia because the Moscow government feared the nature of reports they might take home of the grave economic conditions they would find there strengthened by Johnston, who said he had understood such to be the case.

Senator France is still here awaiting a permit and believes that it will eventually arrive. He prefers to remain in Berlin, however, rather than in Riga if he is going to have to wait any considerable length of time.

Shipping Board Tries to Get Indorsement of Strike Settlement.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 14.—An agreement having been reached with marine engineers for ending the strike in that trade, Shipping Board officials tonight were endeavoring to secure the indorsement of private shipowners to the settlement.

No formal announcement was made today of the signing of the agreement approved last night by the Shipping Board, Labor Department and representatives of the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association. Members of the new Shipping Board met today but official approval of the agreement was expected to be withheld until the arrival of Commissioners O'Conner and Lissner, the remaining two members of the new board, who are scheduled to be sworn in tomorrow.

Radio operators, seamen, firemen, oilers, cooks and stewards will confer with representatives of the Shipping Board and the Department of Labor tomorrow, it was announced, in an effort to have all crafts involved enter into similar agreements.

WIRES PROTEST.

NEW YORK, June 14. — H. H. Raymond, president of the American Steamship Owners' Association, late today telegraphed Chairman Lasker of the Shipping Board asking him not to sign a strike settlement agreement with union engineers.

Mr. Raymond asked permission to record with the board reasons why the owners believed such action would be a grave error of judgment.

Earlier in the day New York locals of the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association had agreed to ratify the proposed agreement under protest, but called for resignation of National President Brown.

DELAY IS ASKED.

Mr. Raymond's telegram said:

"We request that no action be taken toward signing an agreement with the engineers' union until opportunity is given American ship owners to record with the new board reasons why they believe such a signal agreement would be a grave error of judgment by the board and the government.

"A long record of defiant lawlessness and attempted destruction of human life and of government property by strikers should make it impossible for your board to take any such action as is said to be contemplated. Under a signed agreement, the loyal men who stood by their ships and their flag in this emergency would be sacrificed in violation of the solemn promise of the board.

"We speak from long acquaintance and intimate understanding of the striking unions as now constituted and led. We ask for a fair chance to present our case before the new board."

SHIPPING BOARD EXPERT REPORTS FIELDS ARE BEING DRAINED, FLOW DECREASES

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Secretary Hughes informed Chairman Porter of the House Foreign Affairs Committee today that the government had undertaken no official investigation of the condition of Mexican oil fields, and that it was not advisable to make public such information as it now possessed, "which might imply an official guarantee."

Responding to a request by resolution for a report dealing especially with declining production and its causes, Mr. Hughes transmitted a letter from Secretary Fall declaring that the Interior Department information was not of the authoritative nature requisite to the formulation "of a report to Congress and to the public on a question so critical as that of the prospective output of oil in Mexico."

Although the State Department was unable to inform the House regarding the number of wells which had gone dry, Rear-Admiral Benson, as chairman of the Shipping Board, forwarded a report by J. A. Phelan, a board expert, declaring that in the forty-square-mile producing area, 63 of the 104 wells had ceased to produce and that salt water was filling those now in operation. Mr. Phelan stated that "not a new oil structure" had been discovered in Mexico since 1916, "and the proven territory is, in fact, going into salt water."

"It is generally reported that some of the important fields that swelled Mexico's output in 1920," Secretary Fall wrote, "are being rapidly drained of their oil, although reports differ regarding the extent of the depletion. Mexico contains oil reservoirs that have been conservatively estimated by this department at 4,500,000,000 barrels, but the present issue relates to Mexico's ability to maintain her production from this reserve at the rate established in 1920 in response to market demand. Public concern naturally springs from the lack of unquestionable information regarding the results from drilling done and in progress, and the development of new fields of the types that yield the present production."

COMPLAINS OF BRITISH.

Mr. Phelan reported that "the most serious factor in the Mexican situation is that British owned companies, the largest producers and sellers, control some of the best developed territory," and that they were "corresponding to the Mexican political demands to the detriment of Americans."

"That the proven oil fields of Mexico within a reasonable period are certain to go into salt water is a demonstrated fact," he added, "and this may come sooner than expected."

Referring to the decline in price of Mexican crude petroleum at United Kingdom ports, Mr. Phelan said oil was being offered in the fields at 35 cents a barrel, and that this was due to the activity of competing companies to drain the proven fields.

HUGHES'S VIEW.

Secretary Hughes, in referring to the various estimates of recoverable oil in the Tampico-Tuxpam fields, "the accuracy of which the department could not guarantee," said:

"It appears with respect to the subjects mentioned this department does not possess information which it would seem advisable to transmit or make public which might imply an official guarantee.

"You will realize, I am sure, that it has not been possible for the diplomatic and consular officers in Mexico to undertake the kind of investigation which is an essential preliminary to an accurate and well balanced estimate of the situation. The reports which have not been published by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, and which contain information not already circulated in the press, are few in number and are of such nature that it would not seem compatible with the public interest to give them general dissemination."

AREA IS DISCUSSED.

Posse Loses All Trace of Mail Bandit Gardner.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CASTLE ROCK (Wash.) June 14. All trace of Roy Gardner, escaped mail train robber, apparently had vanished tonight after posses sent from here late today had been unable to verify the report that Gardner called this afternoon at a farm house five miles north of Kelso. The search in this vicinity, however, was continued and all roads were watched in the belief that the outlaw was still hiding in the woods near here and might attempt to escape during the night.

Authorities were convinced that Gardner was the man who was seen at a restaurant here this morning, but since his hasty exit from the place, leaving his breakfast untouched, nothing definite has been learned of his whereabouts.

REWARD OFFERED BY TIFFANY FOR PEARLS.

WIFE'S NECKLACE WORTH $40,000 MISSING OVER A WEEK.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, June 14.—A reward of $2500 has been offered by Charles L. Tiffany, member of the firm of Tiffany and Company, jewelers, for the recovery of a pearl necklace belonging to his wife and said to be worth $40,000.

The necklace has been missing since June 7, it was learned today. Mrs. Tiffany wore it that morning when she left the Tiffany summer home at Oyster Bay to motor to New York. She was in New York all day and on her return to Oyster Bay at dinner time she missed the necklace. She does not know whether the clasp became unfastened and the pearls slipped from her neck, or whether they were stolen from her.

The necklace is described as being of the finest quality and a superb collection of pearls. There were ninety-seven in the entire string, perfectly matched and graduated, attached by a diamond clasp.

American Chemical Society Presents Her With Gibbs Medal at Reception.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 14.—"It is not the travel or the people she meets that makes mother so tired and ill," said Miss Eva Curie, youngest daughter of the famous co-discoverer of radium. "It's the everlasting round of silly questions—well not silly, but so monotonous—always "How do you like America?"

It appears that reporters in every city visited by the famous scientist have propounded all sorts of questions, ranging from queries as to what she eats for breakfast to her opinion of short skirts and jazz music. Mme. Curie cares for none of these trivialities. She is more interested in the fact that the drainage canal which Chicago cut to dispose of its sewage has lowered the level of the Great Lake four feet, and matters of that nature.

Today the university of Chicago bestowed an honorary degree upon Mme. Curie and tonight, at another large reception, the American Chemical Society awarded her the William Gibbs medal. Mme. Curie and her daughters will depart for Buffalo tomorrow evening.

Gompers Put Blame for War on Shoulders of German Organized Labor.

AUDITORIUM, DENVER, June 14.—Blame for the recent war was placed squarely on the shoulders of organized labor in Germany by President Samuel Gompers in an address to the American Federation of Labor convention here today.

"I hold and I accept full responsibility for what I am about to say," said President Gompers, "that the organized labor movement of Germany failed dismally at the critical hour.

"If it had taken the situation in hand it might have meant the destruction of a few thousands, but it would have stopped the war. The failure of men to act at a time of crisis is faithlessness to a common cause."

ATTITUDE OF FEDERATION.

In his address, which was a response to those of fraternal delegates from Great Britain and Canada, President Gompers dwelt upon the attitude of the federation and himself, both during the war and since, during the period of reconstruction.

W. P. Bush, fraternal delegate representing the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress, told the assembled delegates that despite difficulties organized labor in Canada was at least holding its own. He reviewed the incipiency of the "one big union" movement and predicted "its early death."

A resolution was adopted by the convention urging Congress to pass immediately the Johnson bill providing for a Federal investigation into the conditions in the Mingo county strike zone in West Virginia.

HANDS OFF IRELAND.

Warning against any agitation that might disrupt the American labor movement, James H. Thomas, British labor leader, told the American Federation of Labor convention today that it could not solve the Irish problem.

"For one hundred years we in England have been confronted with the problem of Ireland, and if we at home cannot solve that problem, let me ask how do you, 3000 miles

KABER READY TO TALK

Slayer of Slain Ohio Publisher Says She Realizes There is no Hope for Her.

CLEVELAND, June 14.—Mrs. Erminia Colavito, indicted with Mrs. Hermine Kaber and two other women on a charge of having murdered Frank P. Kaber, today was identified as the woman who had sold poison to that which she is alleged to have sold Mrs. Kaber and which she is alleged to have been placed in Kaber's food. Mrs. Kaber today is ready to tell all."

Mrs. Brickel identified Mrs. Colavito as the woman who had sold her the "medicine" which she said was intended for her brother John, a patient in the insane ward of the county hospital. Mrs. Brickel told her that when Julian consulted her about the case she said him according to officials. Julian's friend was arrested charged with directing Colavito to procure poison.

CONFESSES POISON.

Mrs. Brickel upon making a statement to police reported that Mrs. Kaber had confessed poisoning her husband to a confidante and that Mrs. Kaber had told her mother, Mrs. Brickel reported, offered $1000 to have Kaber killed so he could be freed from her domination. Mrs. Kaber denied the charges and declared that Mrs. Brickel had induced her daughter to sign a statement implicating Mrs. Kaber in the murder plot.

Mrs. Brickel told her not only of the plan to kill Kaber and his execution, but named Mrs. Kaber, Mrs. Colavito, two men and Marian McArdle as the principals. Mrs. Brickel and Miss McArdle, mother and daughter, respectively, of Mrs. Kaber, are also under first degree murder indictments.

SET FIRE TO HOME.

The woman said Mrs. Brickel told her that Mrs. Kaber set fire to the Kaber home while her husband was ill and that furniture supposed to have been destroyed, on which Mrs. Kaber is said to have collected fire insurance, was at the time stored in Mrs. Brickel's attic.

Mrs. Kaber, when questioned today, told Prosecutor E. C. Stanton that she realized that there no longer was any one hope for her and expressed concern only for her daughter, who, she insisted, was innocent.

SAYS STILLMAN ABNORMAL.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

POUGHKEEPSIE (N. Y.) June 14.—"I look on him as I would on a sick man in a hospital." "He is abnormal." "I feel that he is worse than a Bolshevist in what he is doing."

The three sentences are from a discussion of James A. Stillman by Mrs. James A. Stillman in the course of a talk today with newspaper men—an impromptu sort of interview conducted partly on the porches of John E. Mack's home here—where the former "Fifi" Potter is awaiting tomorrow's resumption of the divorce hearings—and concluded in a big wheat field.

With a curiously impersonal tone, Mrs. Stillman analyzed the character and intent of the former president of the National City Bank.

"What," it was suggested, "do you think of Mr. Stillman?"

LIKE SICK MAN.

"I look on Mr. Stillman as I would look on a sick man in a hospital," she said after a second of though. "He has many admirable qualities but he is abnormal like so many Wall-street men, for remember, Mr. Stillman is not the only one of his kind—not by a long shot.

"The fault seems to lie with the lives they lead down there. The constant struggle for power, power, more power, and still more power—that is the life of some of the men in the street. The eternal mania is for making money. It is this power craze in such men that turns them away from their equals in their moments of rest from business, in their moments of relaxation.

TURN TO INFERIORS.

"They turn," she continued, introspectively, "to their inferiors because they want nothing to do with persons who consider themselves their equals in anything. So it was that Mr. Stillman turned to that poor Mrs. Leeds and filled his yacht

GARDNER NOT YET CAPTURED.

Federal Officers Believe They Will Succeed.

New Clews to Escaped Bandit Are Followed.

Posses Near Kelso on Trail Through Brush.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—A telegram indicating that Roy Gardner, escaped mail bandit, was close to capture was received today from U. S. Marshal Holohan at Castle Rock, Wash., by his office here.

"We have a good clew on Gardner," the telegram read.

Postoffice authorities here also were notified that Gardner's capture might be expected today.

GET TELEPHONE CALL.

A man called up the Oakland Central Police Station today and said: "I am Roy Gardner, come and get me." Postoffice Inspector Morse was notified. He said that while the man followed Gardner's tactics, he was inclined to discredit any possibility that the bandit was the caller.

CASTLE ROCK (Wash.) June 14. After a day of futile chasing of clews to the whereabouts of Roy Gardner, escaped train robber, posses tonight were engaged in combing the thick brush five miles north of Kelso, where last reports indicated that Gardner might be hiding.

Five automobiles loaded with possemen were sent from here late this afternoon when a farmer living five miles north of Kelso telephoned that a man answering Gardner's description had called at the farmhouse shortly after 3 o'clock and bought bacon and other food supplies. The farmer telephoned in the new clew immediately after the stranger had left the place. The new search was in charge of United States marshals who were assisted by about fifty armed men.

A report that Gardner had been seen at Prescott on the Oregon side of the Columbia River was received here earlier in the day, but after investigation this was discredited.

SEEKS EATING PLACE.

The suspect first appeared here this morning. He met Henry Wend on the outskirts of the town and asked where he could get something to eat. Wend directed the man to the Royal Restaurant. At 5:40 o'clock the man entered the restaurant and ordered "a bowl of mush and ham and." Mrs. H. Williamson, wife of the proprietor, took the order.

While the breakfast was being prepared Mr. Wend, who had become suspicious of the stranger, walked past the restaurant to see if the man had entered. Seeing him, Mr. Wend stepped close to the window to obtain a clearer view. The stranger waited until Wend had left the window, then went to the door, and looking first one way, then another, bolted through, ran south and dodged behind "The Rock," from which the town takes its name.

Sheriff Hoggatt was notified and posse of twenty-five men immediately surrounded the district. A force of special agents of the railway companies was rushed here from Kelso and immediately took part in the search.

"There is no doubt in my mind that the stranger in my place of business this morning was Gardner," said H. Williamson, who conducts the restaurant.

ANSWERS DESCRIPTION.

"He answers the description of the bandit as well as could be expected after several days of roughing it. The fellow had a growth of beard about three or four days old, wore a blue serge coat, slouch dark hat and corded shirt. His collar was missing."

The country in which the suspect hid is rough and covered with brush. It borders on the district in which Harry Tracey fled to elude posses following his escape several years ago from the Oregon State penitentiary at Salem, during which he killed several persons. There is a feeling among members of the posse that Gardner is a dangerous man and is likely to give battle. It is possible that no pursuers will take any chances with him, but will shoot at the slightest indication that he is unwilling to surrender.

A man, reported to resemble Gardner, was reported this afternoon to have stopped at a farmhouse five miles north of Kelso and to have purchased some bacon and other food supplies. After he left the family called Kelso and the news was sent here. A detachment of men was sent to trail the man. The farmhouse is in the direction in which the suspect fled from here this morning.

One report earlier today was that a man resembling Gardner had been seen at Prescott, on the Oregon side of the Columbia River, but after investigation this was discredited.

Cantilever Shoe For Men and Women

Another Reduction in Price

SHOES ARE EITHER A HELP OR A HINDRANCE

A woman cannot work efficiently or walk gracefully, or enjoy shopping, or be amused at the theater, if her feet hurt.

The Cantilever Shoe is comfortable because it is correctly shaped to the lines of the natural foot. The arch, being flexible, conforms to the curves of the underfoot while walking. The foot muscles exercise. The blood circulates freely.

We cordially invite you to come in and try on a pair of Cantilever Shoes and let us explain fully its pleasing features.

SAYS HIGH-HEEL LAWS SHOULD BE RESISTED.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—State and other legislation against high heels and novelty footwear should be resisted in the interests of the factory workers and the public at large, A. Katscinski, president of the California Retail Shoe Dealers' Association, said today in his annual address to the association convention. He characterized the high-heel laws as freak legislation."

No hope can be held out for lower shoe prices during the remainder of 1921, he said, as overhead and labor costs show no signs of declining.

TWICE THIRTEEN WINS.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]

MARSEILLES, May 27. — The "Thirteen Club" of this city decided to put its lucky number to the test on Friday, May 13. They went to Monte Carlo, staked 1300 francs each on No. 13 straight and stood breathless while the little marble spun around. No. 26 won.

CANNOT SOLVE IRISH PROBLEM.

STAND FOR HOME RULE.

"British labor," he continued, "has always stood and stands now for liberty. We stand for home rule for Ireland.

"Let me warn you against any agitation that might disrupt your movement here in America by creating differences among yourselves. Do not mistake me. British labor stands for Irish freedom. The only limitation we insist upon is that Ireland shall not be allowed to become a menace.

"For 100 years the people of Ireland have been deceived. For 100 years they have been fed upon promises—broken promises—by British statesmen. Now the Irish people are looking to you. I warn you against trying to create in their minds the feeling that you can solve their difficulties. You can't solve by passing resolutions this problem that has existed for the past 100 years."

GOMPERS STANDS BY.

Thomas's remarks immediately brought a response from Irish sympathizers among the delegates who demanded the right to question him. After the British leader had answered several questions regarding the acts of the military in Ireland, President Samuel Gompers stopped further debate.

In answering Timothy Healy of New York, one of the leaders of the Irish sympathizers, Thomas said that "militarism may go on to doom's day, but it will not solve the Irish problem."

Speaking of the international problems of the nations of the world, Mr. Thomas said:

"There is no difference today in any part of the world with regard to the problems with which we are confronted and compelled to face. The only difference is a difference of degree, and we today in America, in Great Britain, France and all the Central Powers, are suffering the inevitable price of having lived a riotous life for six years."

NO OVERPRODUCTION.

The world is not suffering from overproduction, the British labor leader asserted, replying to reported arguments of leaders that economists that the workers shall do as little work as possible if they want to increase their chances for employment.

Success of the British coal miners' strike was predicted by Thomas, who declared that the miners had gone on strike "without a brass copper in their fund."

"They are still standing unbroken," he added, "no man going back and God knows I hope it will soon be settled and settled honorably, but whenever it is settled you may take it from me that it will be a settlement recognized, signed and accepted by the recognized miners' trades union."

America, France, Italy and every power that was a party to the peace treaty must bear a share of the responsibility of the miners' coal strike crisis, he asserted, urging that the people of these countries bear "your share of the responsibility."

"I know today it is an easy phrase to repudiate governments," he added. "At our conventions in London I frequently heard condemnation of governments. Resolutions abusing them. You will have the same here. But as a matter of common fact those resolutions are condemnations of yourself. It is perfect hypocrisy to talk about democracy and the virtues of democracy and democratic government and then proceed to denounce the government in power. The government is only a reflection of your own intelligence, and if you elected its officials you must bear your share of the responsibility."

The peace treaty, which he said was designed to "make Germany pay," gave France 2,000,000 tons of German coal per month, and as a result "We woke up one morning in England and discovered the mines that were taken over during the war, and controlled by the government, were losing £4,500,000 per month."

GOVERNMENT IN PANIC.

"The government, in a panic, said, 'This is no good to us; we don't mind running mines when we are making a profit, but it is shocking bad business when we are making a loss and they promptly gave notice to decontrol the mines.'"

This action of the government, asserted the speaker, resulted in the eventual closing down of the mines as the owners were unable to pay a living wage to the workers.

The labor leader said that his criticism of the treaty in regard to the disposition of the Ruhr coal deposits must not be construed as a "justification of Germany's action in the war."

"But in these matters" he continued, referring again to the framing of the peace treaty, "no greater mistake is made than people allowing their hearts and not their heads to direct their judgment. Nature never intended that your heart or your stomach should direct your intelligence.

"With the war fever, with the spirit of hatred, they sat down to make this peace treaty."

"The treaty that resulted," Thomas said, "paralyzed the whole of the coal industry in our country and the net result of it was it was not Germany paying, it was the French and the British miner who paid, which shoved the connection, as I say, between the treaty and this strike."

"You cannot go on building armies and navies without leading either to bankruptcy or explosion," he declared.

The speaker denied press reports which he said, were due to the imagination of your American press" that he had come here to "preach Bolshevism, to square a private deal with Lloyd George with regard to the coal situation and among other sins, I was here in order to render the position of your President more difficult because of some imaginary opposition I was supposed to have against him."

TRAIN HITS AUTO; WOMAN IS KILLED.

MERCED, June 14.—Mrs. Clara Johnston of Atwater was instantly killed this morning when northbound Santa Fe train No. 41 struck the automobile in which she was riding at Cuba Station about six miles north of here. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bennett Johnston, who was with her, is in the hospital here in a serious condition.

NO STUDY MADE OF MEXICAN OIL.

American government, discussed the limited producing area and added:

"Stripped of all speculation, Mexico, and the United States to a large extent, as well, is depending on an oil field less than forty square miles, half of which is developed; a field from which more than 400,000,000 barrels had been taken up to June 1. As to the amount still left, technologists and geologists disagree, and judging from previous estimates, prognostications are useless."

In a table on the Panuco-Topila, the Chinampa-Amatlan, Zacamixtle, Cerra-Azul and Alamo-Molino fields, the Phelan report declared that of a potential production of 2,675,000 barrels, the output up to November 1, had decreased 600,000 barrels, and that on June 1 the decrease was 2,300,000 barrels.

STATEMENT IS DENIED.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Statements that oil production in the Mexican fields had decreased were denied tonight by H. G. Wylie, general manager of the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport company and the Mexican Petroleum Company. Mr. Wylie's statement was made on suggestions of officials of the companies after attempts to reach E. L. Doheny were met with the statement that he had gone to bed.

"The statement that there has been a falling off of production is not true," Mr. Wylie said. "It is a falling off in shipments, owing largely to strikes. Fifty per cent of the tank steamers are not operating owing to the strike."

He added that he would issue a statement tomorrow.

FASTEN CRIME ON "BIG TIM."

robbery were under arrest and two more were being sought.

CASE IS COMPLETE.

"Our case is complete," was the announcement of Asst. U. S. Atty.-Gen. John E. Northup. "We need no further confessions from Murphy or anyone else to send everyone connected with the Dearborn-street mail robbery to the Federal penitentiary."

The Dearborn-street robbery was spectacular. The five men who took part in it arrived at the loading platform in an automobile several minutes before the mail truck collecting the registered mail shipment. The men alighted from the car, which they parked at the curb across the street from the platform, and stood on the sidewalk watching some boys in a ball game.

PART IS SAVED.

When the truck arrived they promptly surrounded it and had unloaded a number of registered pouches before the employees on the platform were aware that a robbery was in progress. Clerk D. J. Colbert, inside the truck, saved part of the shipment by hurriedly shifting first-class mail sacks to cover one of the registered sacks. The robbers did not wait to make a close investigation. They sped south in Federal street and escaped.

It was widely reported after the robbery that "Big Tim" had been seen in the vicinity of the station at that time.

IRISH WAR VICTIM MAY BE AMERICAN.

MAN KILLED BY CROWN FORCES PENSIONER IN UNITED STATES ARMY.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

DUBLIN, June 14.—Thomas Rush, who was shot to death Sunday evening at Lisacul, near Castle Reagh, by crown forces, was a pensioner of the American Army, it was officially stated today. He returned to Ireland fourteen months ago and probably was an American citizen, it was added.

At Lisacul the crown forces surprised about fifty civilians who are believed to have been drilling. The civilians scattered, but were pursued by the troops, who repeatedly summoned them to halt. The civilians refused to stop, and the crown forces after chasing them two miles opened fire.

Rush was among those killed.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—A passport was issued a Thomas Rush of Philadelphia last year, records show. The application stated that the man, who is 27 years of age, was born in Ireland and wished to visit his brother in Ireland.

DUBLIN, June 14.—A former soldier was killed last night near Kildare, and another near Ratoath, county Meath.

A military patrol in Ballinspittle, county Cork, met a funeral procession with young men marching in military formation. The soldiers dispersed the cortege and two men fired as they ran off. The troops returned the fire and arrested thirty-three of the marchers.

The coast guard station in Teelin, county Donegal, was attacked by armed men and a coast guard killed.

MARTIAL LAW RULING MODIFIED BY COURT.

CHARLESTON, (W. Va.) June 14. Gov. Morgan's proclamation of martial law for Mingo county was modified today by the Supreme Court of Appeals so far as it gives jurisdiction to civil courts. The Supreme Court, in ordering the release of three prisoners arrested under the martial law proclamation, declared that in its opinion "martial law is an incident to military occupation and cannot be enforced except by military forces."

CALLS STILLMAN WORSE THAN RED

with women. Was it eight or ten of them?

"He would have nothing to do with his own family. Such women as those I have spoken of are mere phonographs for the expression of certain emotions of such men.

"Just consider—Mr. Stillman's eldest son refused to shake hands with his father after hearing of his way of living. Think of that. Doesn't it show that there was an abnormal condition of mind in Mr. Stillman for surely this was not a normal family condition.

"Then Mr. Stillman tried to destroy his own home, to abolish it and fling the wreckage all over the world. I mean just that for it went all over the world. Why, I had a letter from Japan on this matter.

MAY HELP WORLD.

"I think," she went on, "that what I am passing through is of value to the world's women and to society, in its broadest sense, for if this thing that Mr. Stillman is attempting can be done, it will give endless encouragement to the socialists and anarchists of the world.

"Already they, these radicals, are pointing to us as people of high position and asking what is to become of them if we are allowed to have our wills in the world regardless of the laws of morality which we are supposed to uphold.

"So I feel that Mr. Stillman is worse than a Bolshevist in what he is doing and it convinces me that he is an abnormal person. I feel keenly what all this means. I can appreciate the feelings of those socialistic people who would stone us for permitting these things to be. It is not of my doing."

SOAP BOX RANT IN THE SENATE.

guished Senator from Washington, Mr. Poindexter, in charge of the naval bill, came away from the White House with gloom on his face," because President Harding could not sustain the Borah resolution for naval disarmament.

"And then, like thunder out of a clear sky, the crowd over there," he added, pointing to the Republicans, "changed right around."

"You promised to establish peace right off the reel," he said, "yet your simple resolution is not passed yet. The Senate resolution framed by Senator Knox and supported by Senator Lodge is demolished in the House. They have offered you an insult, and it is said the House resolution, not the Senate, has President Harding's favor."

"Yes," chuckled John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, "they have mixed the babies up."

AGRICULTURAL TARIFF.

The emergency agricultural tariff offered to "raise the cost of everything on the workingman's table," Senator Harrison said, had done "no good to the farmers, though you would not let us take the tariff off the things the farmer has to buy."

"You pass a resolution by Senator Lenroot (Republican, Wisconsin) to investigate agricultural conditions looking for something to relieve the farmers," he continued, "admitting the tariff cannot bring the good. An agriculture bloc of Senators and Representatives keep meeting trying to do something for the farmers, because they know they are in distress."

Senator Gerry (Democrat, Rhode Island) interrupted to read a statement by Senator Smoot (Republican, Utah) that taxes might have to be increased.

"Where are your campaign pledges to reduce taxation and expenses of government?" Senator Harrison resumed. "You are passing the biggest deficiency appropriation bills that have come through here, with one exception."

Senator McKellar (Democrat, Tennessee) suplemented this with the assertion that "bills for more clerk hire for more jobs are being put through."

DEMOCRATIC HALO.

Democrats got revenue bills into the Senate "inside of thirty days," Senator Harrison continued, "but Republican committees have been working months at the revenue and tariff measures promised and they havn't gotten out yet."

Senator King (Democrat, Utah) said something about tariff lobbies and Senator Harrison said:

"They are swarming here. President Harding invites the lobbyists to come for conference and they are coming. But I don't blame them as much as I do the Republican leadership which invites them.

"President Harding offered the place of chairman of the Shipping Board to the head of the Standard Oil Company, and to the head of the United States Steel Corporation. He waited months, and then he turned to a Chicago advertising man who framed that wonderful campaign slogan, 'We are done with wiggle and wobble.' Wanted to compensate him, I presume, and he made Mr. Lasker chairman.

"And how about Dr. Sawyer, his personal physician? What would the country do without Gen. Sawyer? He is to build a new department here, of public welfare."

LOS ANGELES MAN TO GUIDE OPTOMETRISTS.

ELECTED PRESIDENT OF STATE ASSOCIATION AT BAY CITY MEETING.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—Dr. Glenn Winslow of Los Angeles was elected president of the California State Association of Optometrists at the fifteenth annual convention in session here today. Dr. Burt O. Kinney and Dr. C. H. Frizelle, both of Los Angeles, were elected secretary and treasurer, respectively.

The following vice-presidents, all residents of Southern California, were named: Dr. Clarke Monroe, first vice-president; Dr. Russell Simpson, second; Dr. F. W. Crane, third, and Dr. C. H. Heard, fourth vice-president.

The convention went on record in favor of a plan proposed by Dr. E. H. Morrissey of Los Angeles, to tax all association members to raise funds to be used for educational and legislative purposes throughout the State.

Dr. R. C. Augustine of New York, president of the American Optometris Association, was the principal speaker at a convention luncheon. He urged greater care for the eyes of children.

RICH BEAUTY JILTS FIANCE AND ELOPES?

Beatrice Rossbach, Heiress of "Silent" Smith, Breaks Engagement to Wed Ensign.

The marriage of Miss Beatrice Rossbach to Girard N. Farlin, which was to have taken place today at 7095 Hollywood Boulevard, the home of the bride, who is a niece of James Henry ("Silent") Smith, New York finance king who left an estate valued in the millions, has passed into the land of things that "might have been."

This was only a part of the climax that resulted in the breaking off of an engagement, acceptance of another proposal and an elopement, all within less than twenty-four hours, according to reports in Hollywood society circles of friends of Miss Rossbach. At the Rossbach home last night no denial was made of the report that the young heiress had left her home to wed Ensign Charles R. Pratt, U. S. Navy.

A woman who spoke as one in authority in the Rossbach family answered the telephone at the home last night. When apprised of the reports concerning Miss Rossbach's supposed elopement, she refused to comment other than to say "Let matters stand that way, then."

At the home of Mr. Farlin, 4511 Tourmaline street, however, a different attitude was encountered. Mrs. Farlin admitted that her son and Miss Rossbach had planned to be married today, in fact had procured the license and an uncle of the intended bride from Washington was in the city to perform the ceremony. Monday night the couple had a serious disagreement. The rupture grew to such proportions that the engagement was declared broken. The wedding plans were cancelled.

Although Mrs. Farlin was reluctant to comment on the nature of the quarrel, it was learned that the dispute centered about the man with whom Miss Rossbach yesterday was reported to have eloped. At the Farlin home nothing was known concerning the rumored elopement, but the contemplated marriage between the girl and Mr. Farlin had been definitely called off, it was said.

Disagreement between Mr. and Mrs. Rossbach regarding the schooling of their daughter played a large part in the divorce action two years ago when the husband won a decree after a previous suit by his wife had been denied. Victor A. Rossbach, crack trap shooter, the father of the girl, testified then that domestic troubles began after his wife, Ruby A. Rossbach, inherited a part of "Silent" Smith's fortune.

Japs Are Ready to Give America Cables Control.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

LONDON, June 14. — Reuter's learns that, while fully maintaining her rights as mandatory over certain Pacific Islands, Japan is ready to agree to the United States exercising complete control over the American cables traversing the island of Yap to Menadao and to Guam, and hopes this plan will be acceptable to Washington.

Japan, according to Reuters, considers that, as her mandate is one of the provisions of the Versailles treaty, no special island or mandate can be selected as an exception without altering the treaty itself, and therefore internationalization is the question.

FIRE PROTECTION ASSOCIATION MEETS.

CAMPAIGN ON SUBJECT OF SMOKING SUGGESTED BY DELEGATE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—Delegates from all parts of the United States were present at the opening sessions of the twenty-fifth annual convention of the National Fire Protection Association here today. Reports of committees were read and other business transacted today. Tomorrow a demonstration will be given by the San Francisco department in the use of high-pressure water apparatus.

In his report on public information, F. H. Wentworth of Boston, association secretary-treasurer, suggested a campaign on the subject of smoking as a means of preventing a large percentage of fires.

"The hazard of smoking becomes more startling with every publication of statistics of causes of fires," Mr. Wentworth said. "The tobacco manufactories and extend great aid by printing fire warnings upon their packages and match concerns can aid in the same manner."

T. Alfred Fleming of New York, chairman of the "Fire Prevention Day" committee, urged an educational campaign to educate civic organizations of the need of necessary equipment for fighting fires.

JUDGE DECLINES TO ENJOIN RECOGNITION.

HOLDS SOVEREIGN COMMANDER OF WOODMEN MINUS POWER IN DELEGATE ROW.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

OMAHA, June 14.—District Judge W. A. Redick, in effect, has declined to enjoin recognition of supporters of W. A. Fraser, sovereign commander of the Woodmen of the World, who were elected as delegates to the organization's sovereign camp meeting in New York in July, holding he was without power to determine whether Nebraska insurgent or regular delegates elected April 20 should sit at the New York meeting. The injunction was sought by insurgents. It is the province of the organization itself to determine which group shall act, the court held.

NEW HEAD OF LEGION TO CONTINUE PROGRAM

MAJ. JOHN G. EMERY OF GRAND RAPIDS NAMED SUCCESSOR TO COL. GALBRAITH.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

INDIANAPOLIS, June 14.—John G. Emery, elected national commander of the American Legion today, in a statement tonight advocated a continuance by the Legion of its program of instilling in the hearts of former service men and women a sense of "individual obligation to community, State and nation."

With the sense of responsibility before them, he said, the nightmare of destructive radicalism and disintegrating factional strife, which has assailed so many nations since the war, has been spared our country.

He said the Legion would continue its fight in behalf of disabled veterans until every man is generously provided for.

The new commander paid a tribute to the late Col. Galbraith, his predecessor, in the statement, which said:

"If I were asked to state in a few words that I believe to be the greatest service the American Legion has rendered our country, I would say that it has been the carrying out by the Legion of the mandate of its constitution, which has instilled in the hearts of former service men and women a sense of individual obligation to community, State and nation.

"With the national relaxation from our war efforts there came a real danger from an excess of interest in private and personal affairs and a corresponding diminution of interest in public affairs by the average citizen. The first aim of the American Legion was to meet this danger by rekindling and continuing the citizen's interest in his community, his State and his country.

"It is the determination of the American Legion to go forward with its fight, emphasizing a more vivid conception by each citizen of his personal obligation of service to his country.

"With the legislation basically necessary for the relief of the physically disabled passed by Congress the American Legion will address its full energies to the task of helping those financially disabled by reason of the military or naval service. DRY EXPERIMENT ENDED; BRITISH COLUMBIA WET.

Province Which Voted Emphatically to Repeal Prohibition Law Under New Regime Today.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) June 14.—With the coming into force of the British Columbia Liquor Act tomorrow, the province emerges from a three-and-a-half-year "dry" period. The present act is the result of the referendum taken on October 20, last, throughout the province, when the people emphatically voted for the sale of liquor in sealed packages by the government. The majority in favor of repealing the Prohibition Act was about 40,000.

The Prohibition Act, which closed the bars and all public drinking places throughout the province, came into force on the first day of October, 1917, during the war, when the people, by a small majority, voted to prohibit the sale of liquor except by government dispensaries. In order to purchase liquor under the Prohibition Act, it was necessary to first obtain a prescription from a medical doctor, for which a fee of $2 was charged. The maximum quantity purchaseable from a government dispensary was two gallons of liquor.

RUSH AND AMENDMENT.

So great was the rush on the dispensaries and so many prescriptions were being issued, that the government at the session of the Legislature in 1920 amended the Prohibition Act, prohibiting the sale by government dispensaries of more than eight ounces on a doctor's prescription.

In 1919 a move was made to have the Prohibition Act repealed and this effort continued until the government agreed to submit the question of future liquor legislation to the people. A Moderation League was organized to work for the repeal of the act, the object of the organization being to obtain the sale of liquor under government control. It was asserted that bootlegging was rampant throughout the province and that a measure which would permit of the sale of liquor under proper control would be preferable to the Prohibition Act. The prohibitionists fought for the retention of the Prohibition Act, but the moderationists won.

At the last session of the Legislature, which closed but a few weeks ago, the new liquor act was passed, following weeks of discussion. It will be administered by a board of three appointed by the government.

GOVERNMENT STORES.

Under the British Columbia Liquor Act, government stores are established throughout the province for the sale of liquor. These stores are administered by the Liquor Control Board and each vendor is an employee of the board. Sales must only be made to those persons holding a government permit for the purchase of liquor, and this permit alone with a written order for liquor must be presented at the time of purchase. Delivery of liquor can only be made in sealed packages, and consumption of liquor on store premises is not allowed. Liquor stores will not remain open for more than eight hours a day.

Persons applying for liquor permits must be of the full age of 21 years and have resided in the province for at least one month. The fee for a permit limited to a single purchase of liquor is 50 cents. This entitles the purchaser to buy a maximum quantity of two quarts of liquor other than malt liquor or twelve quarts of malt liquor. No person is allowed to obtain more than ten single purchase permits in any one year. A permit must not be transferred. The Liquor Control Board has power to cancel permits, as has also a justice, of those convicted of a violation of the Liquor Act.

NO DRUNKENNESS.

Drunkenness under the act will not be permitted, and no person shall permit drunkenness to take place in any house or on any premises of which he is the owner, or tenant or occupant. Liquor must not be given to any person under the influence of liquor, nor must an intoxicated person be allowed to consume liquor on any premises. No person shall keep or consume liquor in any part of an inn other than a private guest room, and no person who is not a bona-fide guest of the inn shall be permitted to keep or consume liquor in an inn.

Every unauthorized person selling liquor shall be liable for a first offense to imprisonment with hard labor for not less than six months and not more than twelve months, and for a second or subsequent offense imprisonment with hard labor for not less than one year nor more than twenty-one months. If the offender is a corporation a $1000 fine is imposed for the first offense and from $2000 to $6000 for the second and subsequent offenses. Penalties for other infractions of the act are also provided.

The Liquor Board, at its first session, decided to speed everything possible in connection with opening operation by the board. In the province of Ontario, however, directly the opposite prevailed at an election held on April 17. Practically the same conditions prevailed. Ontario went dry in war times but after demobilization, adopted an importation law under which it was legal to import liquor by the case for home consumption. The people asked for a test of wet and dry sentiment and on the vote the province went emphatically "dry."

ARMY ENGINEERS ARE ORDERED TO PUEBLO.

SALVATION ARMY HAS SERVED MORE THAN 16,000 MEALS TO HOMELESS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN ANTONIO, June 14.—The Eighth Battalion of Engineers "mounted" stationed at El Paso has been ordered to Pueblo, Colo., by rail to assist in sanitary work in the town by Maj.-Gen. Joseph T. Dickman, commanding general of the Eighth Corps area. The engineers will combat the spread of disease in the recently flooded districts.

LAKE CITY (Colo.) June 14.—This little mining town virtually is isolated from the outside world today as the result of the flooding of the Lake Fork branch of the Gunnison River and Henson Creek. Fears are felt for the safety of the big dam of the Hinsdale Mining and Development Company. Heavy property damage is reported.

W. H. Whinnery, Mayor, has appealed to Gov. Shoup for aid. There has been no loss of life.

OMAHA (Neb.) June 14.—Approximately 2000 persons living south of North Platte were marooned from that town after piers of a bridge over the South Platte River had been washed away by flood waters. Plans to send necessities to them by ferry are being made.

SALVATION ARMY BUSY.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PUEBLO (Colo.) June 14.—The Salvation Army relief work connection with the Pueblo disaster continues. The organization has assumed the entire burden of feeding the large refugee camp on the north side of the city, where in one week 16,000 meals have been given to homeless and needy persons.

The local corps and industrial home of the organization, being in the devastated district, were entirely destroyed by flood and the army, in common with every other Pueblo interest affected, lost all that it had, including some of its workers. No officers perished, however.

In spite of these losses, the local organization remaining was at work doing relief work when outside army relief parties arrived on the ground. The downtown relief headquarters in the Elks' Club is doing splendid work locating missing friends.

NEARLY $5000 SENT.

Nearly $5000 has been sent from Southern California to aid the flood sufferers of the Pueblo district, according to an announcement made late yesterday by Brig. C. R. Boyd, divisional commander of the Salvation Army, whose relief fund and that of The Times were combined and administered through Salvation Army workers in Colorado.

California cities which raised funds at the solicitation of the Salvation Army and the amounts were: Long Beach, $542; San Diego, $100; Fresno, $250; Santa Ana, $300; Pasadena, $216; Bakersfield, $150. Some of these returns are only partial.

In Los Angeles, $2000 was sent by the Salvation Army as an emergency measure, on the first appeal for aid, and helped buy the first carload of food which was sent to the flood victims.

LEMONS DONATED.

The board of directors of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange yesterday authorized the donation of a full car of lemons to the city of Pueblo, Colo., recently devastated by the worst flood in twenty years.

The railroad lines will transport this free of charge. This was one of a number being shipped East, and was diverted to Pueblo by telegraph and should be in the hands of the Red Cross and other relief agencies by noon today.

According to physicians, lemons have repeatedly demonstrated their value as preventives of scurvy and other epidemics caused by impure water.

WILLIS TO OPPOSE HARDING'S NOMINEE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 14.—A serious breach has come between President Harding and Senator Frank B. Willis of Ohio, the man who nominated him for the presidency in the Chicago convention a year ago and who succeeded him in the United States Senate.

Senator Willis has declared war on Mr. Harding's nominee for internal revenue collector in Ohio, Charles H. Nauts of Toledo, whose name was sent to the Senate yesterday.

"I am not for him and I shall oppose his confirmation," said Senator Willis when informed of Nauts' appointment.

Nauts was indorsed by Walter F. Brown of Toledo. Senator Willis recommended Sherman Lott, who was his campaign manager in Lucas county, embracing Toledo, in the fight between Brown and Willis for the Republican nomination to succeed Harding in the Senate.

SACRAMENTO DIOCESE HONORS BISHOP GRACE

MANY CATHOLIC CHURCH DIGNITARIES TO ATTEND TWO-DAY SERVICES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, June 14.—Distinguished prelates and laymen and 150 priests are expected to attend the jubilee service in honor of the elecation to the episcopate of Bishop Thomas Grace of the Sacramento diocese of the Catholic church, which will be observed in this city tomorrow and Thursday. Coincidentally with the celebration of his twenty-five years service as bishop, Bishop Grace will observe the occasion marking fifty-four years as a priest.

Bishop Grace's diocese includes all of Northern California and nearly all of Nevada. Among those who will have part in the observance are Archbishop Edward J. Hanna, San Francisco; Archbishop Christie, Portland; Bishop McGrath, Baker City, Or.; Bishop J. S. Glass, Salt Lake City; Bishop John J. Cantwell, Los Angeles, and Rev. P. J. Keane, auxiliary bishop of Sacramento.

Will Prosecute Truckers.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

PORTLAND (Or.) June 14.—Motor truckers who violate the law by overloading cargo and exceed the lawful limit of speed on the highways will be prosecuted without mercy, it was determined at a session of the State Highway Commission. Another class also to be punished are persons who encroach upon the right of way of highways by storing cordwood and other obstructions endangering travel.

BREAKING OF DRY LAWS IS BOLSHEVISM.

New Prohibition Commissioner Declares He Will Enforce Statute Rigidly.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Folks—particularly those of you who have not sworn off completely and those who hope to get a beer prescription for that chronic ailment—meet your new Prohibition Commissioner, Mr. Roy A. Haynes, a rotund, pleasant, genial, yea, jolly, little man, but earnest and conscientious withal.

Mr. Haynes got on the job Saturday and after surveying the situation pleasantly, but formally, averred today that he intends to enforce the prohibition law to the full extent of his power and called on all citizens—drinkers as well as prerprohibition teetotalers—to help him make the country as dry as the law contemplates.

As to that little matter of medicinal prescriptions of beer, he had found on his desk some proposed regulations for the disposition of beer for such purpose, purely tentative regulations which he would study and after maturing his conclusions thereon, would put in final form.

But, if in the meantime the Commissioner added, it should appear that Congress intends to pass within a reasonably short time the Volstead supplementary prohibition bill, forbidding the principle of beer for medicinal purposes, the beer regulations will be withheld. It would be folly, likewise a cruel and unusual punishment, to start a lot of brewing and prescribing only to deprive the invalids of their medicine in the end.

Efficiency is to be the watchword of his administration, said Mr. Haynes, who thereupon proceeded to speak a little piece intended for the soulful meditation of home brewers, patrons of bootleggers and others. Do they intend to be law breakers or law abiding citizens? Mr. Haynes rises to inquire.

"In unmistakable language America has spoken for prohibition. Federal constitutional provision has been made for it. Laws have been enacted for its enforcement. The law should be enforced. The man or woman or agency which condones its violation; or becomes a party to its violations; or encourages a sentiment of laxity in regard to its enforcement, is helping to create, consciously or unconsciously, a very serious condition.

"At the very outset of my administration of this office, I want to preach the gospel of the need of law enforcement. If there was ever a time in the history of America when all good citizens should unite on a program for law enforcement, in the home, in the school in the church and in the press, it is today. To 'wink at' the breaking of one law and preach the observance of another is unpatriotic and un-American. On that basis, I believe former so-called liberals will as vigorously aid in the enforcement of the dry laws as those who have always been dry. Any other policy toward law in general means chaos; means Bolshevism."

POISONING IS FATAL TO TRACY CHILDREN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

STOCKTON, June 14.—Two children are dead and four other members of the W. E. Armstrong family of Tracy are in a hospital in Livermore suffering from mysterious poisoning. Milton Armstrong, aged 6, and Laddie Armstrong, aged 3, died suddenly yesterday after complaining of feeling ill. The bodies of the children were taken to Stockton, where contents of their stomachs will be analyzed. Armstrong, his wife and two other older children were hurried to Livermore to a sanatorium.

A representative of the State Board of Health is in Tracy conducting an investigation to determine whether it was contaminated food or water on the farm premises that caused the tragedy.

MRS. POWERS LOSES HER DIVORCE ACTION.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The suit for limited divorce brought by Mrs. Anna M. D. Powers against Caleb Powers, former representative in Congress from Kentucky, was dismissed today by Justice Stafford in the District of Columbia Supreme Court. Contentions of powers that his wife was not a resident of Washington and, therefore, could not sue for divorce in its courts were sustained.

Mrs. Powers charged cruelty and inadequate support. Her counsel noted an appeal.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 14.—Jack Edwards, 73-year old hermit, was found murdered in his lonely cottage two miles west of Naperville last night.

He had ben dead for several days shot through the head with a rifle bullet.

The money belt and the wallet he was known to have carried were missing.

FLEET COMMANDER TO HUNT DERELICT.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The Navy Department has instructed the commander-in-chief of the Pacific Fleet to search for a derelict reported in latitude 26:10 north and longitude 133:46 west, off the southern coast of California, by the steamship Floridian.

It is believed the wreck may be that of the Navy tug Conestoga, missing with all on board since early in May.

JAP FIGHTING SHIPS NOW AT KAMCHATKA.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

REVAL (Esthonia) June 14.—Moscow advices today say a Japanese cruiser and torpedo boat have arrived off Kamchatka for the stated purpose of guarding Japanese fishermen.

The forces of the Far Eastern republic of Siberia are reported to be preparing a line of defense in the Lake Baikal and Irkutsk district.

THIEF LOOTS HOME OF VINCENT ASTOR.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, June 14.—Looting of the home of Vincent Astor at 840 Fifth avenue of jewelry and other valuables estimated at from $10,000 to $20,000 became known yesterday when it was learned that the police have made a fruitless search for the robber for nearly ten days.

The robbery was committed June 4 and discovered within a few hours. The thief entered the house through the servants' door, spent the afternoon in the upper floors of the house and left by the main entrance, unobserved. The loot included chiefly small articles of jewelry, including bracelets and rings belonging to Mrs. Astor and some jewelry owned by R. Peters, said to be a cousin of Mrs. Astor.

PRINCE FIGHTING RED RULE IN CAUCASUS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 14.—Prince Chamyl, head of the Daghistan insurgent mountaineers of the Northern Cacasus, has taken up arms against the Bolsheviki in the Northern Caucasus and declares he will not surrender until liberty has been re-established in the Caucasus. He has defeated Soviet detachments in several fights recently.

BELGIANS BUY RADIUM.

POLES STILL BOMBARDING SILESIAN CITY

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

OPPELN, June 14.—Although hoping the report that more British troops are en route to Upper Silesia is true the highest authorities here stated that if it is so, they do not know anything about it.

Reports that British troops are coming from Cologne are not believed as the British cannot spare more troops from there. Private London advices indicate another division is bound for Upper Silesia from England or the Orient.

Although the Polish insurgents are continuing to withdraw from the regions provided for they are continuing to bombard the city of Ratibor. Two Italian soldiers were killed there yesterday by the Poles. Gen. Hoefer, in command of the German defense forces, recently threatened to attack this sector if the Poles continued firing on the city, but he has been withheld from so doing by the Allies. The insurgents in the Railbor area are refusing to obey Korfanty.

Anyone here knows that reports that the Germans are attacking the Poles with cavalry and armored trains are absolutely silly although such information was given out officially by the insurgent headquarters. The Germans have none of this equipment except ten pieces of artillery captured from the Poles in the Annaberg region.

Gen. Hoefer's forces do not possess a single airplane despite Polish reports that they are being bombed from the air. The Allies interpret these stories as being inspired to increase adherents to the Polish cause in pretending that the Poles are fighting in self-defense against a rapacious foe, which is thoroughly prepared for a campaign of aggression.

KILRAIN LAUDS TODAY BOXERS.

QUINCY (Mass.) June 14. Jake Kilrain, one of the last of the prize-ring gladiators of bare-fist days, thinks that the best of the present-day boxers are as good as the best of the old school. Discussing the battle between Dempsey and Carpentier, he said he is far from regarding it as child's play in comparison with the bruising of his own time.

"Dempsey is a rugged customer," he said. "Carpentier has a head on his shoulders that will help his hands a lot. Things have changed, however. In my days we were keeping away from the police. I notice that today the police keep the crowds away from Carpentier."

HAS LEGS CRUSHED IN POLO ACCDENT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, June 14.—Louis F. Swift, Jr., son of the Chicago packer, is in a Buenos Aires hospital with both legs crushed as the result of injuries in a polo game, according to a letter received here today. He is endeavoring to hasten recovery to return here, where it is expected he will have to have both legs re-broken and re-set, according to his letter.

AMERICAN POLOISTS TRIM BRITISH TEAM.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

ROEHAMPTON (Eng.) June 14. An American polo team composed of C. C. Rumsey, Earl Hopping, Robert E. Strawbridge and Thomas C. Hitchcock, Jr., yesterday defeated the Foxhunters' team composed of Maj. Heseltine, Maj. Miller-Mundy, Maj. Magor and Mr. Wanamaker. The score was 10 goals to 8.

DUFFY EASILY WHIPS MILLER.

Harry Pelsinger Given Decision Over Young Papke.

Local Boy is Wild at Times in Bout at Doyle's.

BY ED O'MALLEY.

Joe Miller carried a fund of losing aggressiveness into the ring last night against Jimmy Duffy at Jack Doyle's boxing emporium and therefore flivvered. Duffy's elusiveness and quickness were too much for Joe who ran to the place throughout the four rounds. Jimmy's victory was clean cut throughout and at no time was he even in danger of having his hair mussed.

Miller crowded the clever Duffy as soon as the gong sounded in the first session, but his rush landed him into a snappy left that drew the claret slightly from the left corner of his lip. Jimmy stung his man often with a choppy left, and now and then shot his right across. Miller had all the worst of the clinches during which times he was the recipient of a number of right uppercuts.

GROWS WILD.

Miller grew wild in the second round and some of his attempts to land a haymaker were ludicrous. Joe depended entirely on his left, but when he did land the blows, they usually made a half circle about Jimmy's neck. The third and fourth rounds were repetitions of the first two, and at times were very tame, eliciting a volley of boos from the disgruntled fans.

Miller tried every thing he knew to land effectively, but Jimmy was like an Irishman's flea, and toward the end really made his setup opponent look like a sucker. It will require a lad of a larger caliber of boxing ability than Joe Miller to bring trouble to Jimmy Duffy in a four-round set to.

TOO CLEVER.

Young Papke's ten-second spasms were very conspicuous for their absence in his tilt with Harry Pelsinger. Harry was too clever for the local boy, and earned a well-deserved decision over him. The first round might have been called upsticks, but the second and third were easily Pelsinger's. In the last session Papke came through with an eleventh-hour rally and had his man backing up toward the end, but Pelsinger's big advantage in the second and third rounds was palpable and the decision of Referee Lee just.

Papke was awfully wild at times, almost toppling over to the floor when he missed his man. Harry used a stinging left to the face effectively, with a right cross at times. Many of Papke's vicious swings landed on the shoulder and most of the blows that he succeeded in landing were with the open glove.

ALHAMBRA GRABS IN ELEVENTH.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PUENTE, June 14.—Alhambra defeated Covina, 5 to 1, here today thereby copping the Central League pennant. Covina defeated Alhambra last Tuesday, tieing for first place, and this game on a neutral field decided the championship.

Alhambra brought in the first run in the second inning. This score stood until the last of the eighth, when Alhambra walked in a man, tieing the score. In the first of the eleventh, Alhambra pulled four men home, making the score 5 to 1. Covina failed to even things up in the last half.

The battery for Covina was Caffey and Dudderar; Alhambra, Rogers and Penny. Practically the whole of Covina and a good share of Alhambra were present, swelling the attendance close to the 3000 mark. Caffey struck out fourteen men, Rogers, ten; Covina, five hits; Alhambra, six.

SIX NEW MEMBERS ARE ADDED TO A.A.U.

Six new members were added to the Southern Pacific branch of the A. A. U. at the weekly meeting Monday night. They are: Oxnard Union High School, Colton Chamber of Commerce, Upper San Gabriel Valley Post, No. 207, American Legion; Franklin High School, Jefferson High School and Coronado City Athletic Association. Since Bob Weaver became national president of the A.A.U. last November the southern branch has increased its membership from seventeen to fifty-two members.

POLO PONIES ARE PRAISED.

American Thoroughbreds in International Contest Are Best Ever.

BY FLOYD GIBBONS.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, June 14.—"They're gentle as babies and have intelligence that would surprise you." Johnny Lambert is talking—Johnny who has had a hand on a currycomb for twenty-five years and who now is keeper and trainer extraordinary to the string of twenty-five blooded polo ponies with which the American polo team will endeavor to lift the international championship cup at Hurlingham, starting Saturday.

"Now, you take that Don Domo over there," he said, pointing to a long-tailed white gelding which was receiving a brisk rub down in front of the American stable. "Domo's aged now, as the saying goes—he's been following the ball for eight seasons, and knows a thing or two. He is California bred and belongs to the Carlton Burke stables. Young Mr. Hitchcock rides him.

BEST EVER.

"That Chestnut mare with her head out of the door and her ears pointed towards us is a real American thoroughbred. She belongs to Mr. Stoddard who is playing No. 1 in the match. He calls her the best polo pony he ever rode. She's been playing three years.

"Auntie Agg, that docked chestnut in the stall, also is Mr. Stoddard's. She is English bred and has been poloing six years. She must be 14 or 15 years old.

"Now look at the legs on this one. Does he look like a youngster?" Johnny was rubbing the shiny coat of a beautiful brown gelding in the corner stall.

OLD TONY.

"That's old Tony," he said. "He's English bred and must be 16 or 17 years old. He played in the international games in 1911, 1913 and 1914, and I don't think there is a younger pony in the string that will outride him this year. Mr. Milburn owns him and will ride him Saturday.

"There is ragtime Queen over there, looking as glum as an oyster," said Johnny pointing. "She knows her legs are bad and if we don't get her in better condition she might not be able to play. She's English bred and belongs to H. P. Whitney.

"Young Mr. Hitchcock is going to be well mounted. He's going to play Royal Diamond and Kitty. Capt. Lockett of the English team played Diamond in the international games of 1912 and again in 1914 when she went to the H. P. Whitney stables. Lockett also rode Kitty in the 1914 matches. She now belongs to Ambrose Clark of New York.

SPEARWORT WINS ASCOT.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

ASCOT HEATH (Eng.) June 14.—The Ascot stakes of 2000 sovereigns over a course of two miles, run here today, was won by Sir H. Cunliffe-Owen's Spearwort. J. Shepperd's King's Idler was second and W. M. G. Singer's Chat Tor was third. Thirteen horses ran.

The Prince of Wales stake at approximately one mile and five furlongs was won by Sol Joel's Polymester. Joseph Watson's Gauntlev was second and Sir A. Bailey's Bucks was third. Polymester was quoted at 3 to 1 against in the betting. Gauntlev at 8 to 11 and Bucks at 100 to 8.

PICK REFEREE TOMORROW.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, June 14.—The referee for the Dempsey-Carpentier bout will be selected Thursday at a meeting in Jersey City of the members of the New Jersey State Boxing Commission, Promoter Rickard and the managers of the two boxers.

The probable choice has not been intimated officially. Six prominent sport authorities, including former heavyweight champions and newspaper writers, were named as candidates in the original Dempsey-Carpentier contract. The New Jersey State Boxing Commission, however, has the final say.

CAN'T STOP THAT BOY, RUTH!

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, June 14.—New honors were added to Babe Ruth's credit today by batting Dauss of Detroit for two home runs.

Besides making four home runs in two successive contests, beating his own mark of three in two games, the New York slugger hit seven home runs in five consecutive games, a new major league record. In his past five official times at bat, Ruth has gratified the expectations of the spectators with four home runs. He is now sixteen days ahead of his 1920 record. Last year his twenty-third and twenty-fourth home runs came June 30.

Ruth's second homer today surpassed his record long-distance hit of yesterday. The ball again dropped into the center-field bleachers, landing a few rows farther back than yesterday's smash. The distance was estimated at about 475 feet.

MISS STERLING IN GREAT FORM.

Wins Match Easily in French Golf Tourney.

Three Americans in Running for Open Title.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

FONTAINEBLEAU, June 14.—American golfers won three of the five matches in which they engaged in the first day's play of the women's French open golf championship tournament today, as it now devclops that there was an error in listing Miss Rosamond Sherwood as British. Today she personally asked the secretary of the Fontainebleau Club to change her entry to the United States, as she entered the tournament from the St. Georges Club of Long Island, and not the St. George's Hill Club of England, as had been announced.

Miss Alexa Stirling of Atlanta, the American woman's golf champion, defeated Mlle. Chasseloup-Laubat of France by 7 up and 6 to play in the first round today.

The French player won only the eleventh hole. Miss Stirling played the best golf she has thus far shown during her stay in Europe.

Miss Alice Hanchette of California was defeated by Miss Cecil Leitch, the British champion, by 5 up and 4 to play, in the first match of the tournament. Miss Hanchette won the first hole, but was outclassed thereafter, being weak on her iron shots and also in her drives.

Mrs. E. Hill of England defeated Mrs. Isabelle Kemp, an American resident of Paris, by 5 up and 3 to play, and Miss Rosamond Sherwood of America defeated Mrs. A. B. Graves, also an American resident of Paris, by 5 up and 4 to play. Mrs. F. E. Dubois of Baltusrol, N. J., won from Miss E. E. Helme of England, by 2 up and 1 to play.

DOZEN CREWS PRACTICE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

POUGHKEEPSIE N. Y.) June 14.—Twelve crews the largest number that has been on the river since training for the coming regatta started, were out for practice yesterday. Only the Cornell squad was absent.

MARTIN VS. ROPER.

TERRA ALTA (W. Va.) June 14.—Bob Martin, heavyweight champion of the A. E. F., has been matched to meet Capt. Bob Roper of Chicago at Grand Rapids, Mich., next Friday, it was announced today by Martin's manager.

EIGHT SWIMMING EVENTS.

A program of eight events has been lined up by Prof. T. H. Kendall for the big swimming carnival to be held Friday night by the Venice Swimming Association at the Venice plunge. The Canal City's team is working out each evening under the coaching of Frank F. Rivas.

DES CAMPS SAYS "IT'S TOUGH JOB."

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, June 14. — "It is madness to say Carpentier will win in one or two rounds," Francois Des Camps, manager of the French champion, writes to the newspaper L'Auto. The letter is quoted in support of the newspaper's analysis of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight, tending to show that the Frenchman will not have an easy time.

Des Camps's letter says: "Georges is well and full of confidence, although we know he has a tough job. It is madness to say Carpentier will win in one or two rounds."

WOW! SOUNDS TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, June 14.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, will lose his crown to Georges Carpentier when they meet July 2, according to a message from the "astral, or spiritual" world, received by a local newspaper.

Not only is he going to lose; he is not even going to survive the second round, according to this information.

The writer says on May 21 a message was received that Jack will be beaten in the second round. Dempsey will receive a blow on top of his head or forehead which will knock him out and put him on the southeast corner of the platform, according to the message.

STANFORD'S RAPID NET MEN WIN AGAIN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW HAVEN (Ct.) June 14.—Leland Stanford University's two-man tennis team defeated Yale today, three matches to none. The speedy work of the Pacific Coast stars easily overcame the Yale opposition. Summaries:

Singles—J. M. Davis, Stanford, defeated Lucien Williams, Yale, 1-6, 6-2, 6-6.

Phil Neer, Stanford, defeated G. M. Wheeler, Yale, 6-1, 5-6, 6-3.

"Prexy" Powers Says His Men Aren't Old Gentlemen.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

Salt Lake sprang a shocking surprise by defeating the Tigers 6 to 1 in the opening game of the series. This was tough on many of the wicked gamblers, who were betting 10 to 6 on the Tigers, and who lost their money by the sweat of their brow. When you see a gambler with moisture oozing from his brow on a cold day it means that he has been separated from his money. Stakeholders do not sweat, except when running.

Hollis Thurston, a Los Angeles boy, came back to sting the community which once fed him. The Tigers couldn't touch him effectively after the first inning, despite William Edgar Essick's tactics in using a pinch-hitter, two second baesmen and three pitchers. Thurston, like John D. Rockefeller, had nothing to start with, but got a lot of stuff as he went along.

LOST IN THIRD.

Tony Faeth had something to start with, but lost it in riotous pitching in the third, when he yielded to Bob McGraw. Bob was benched for a pinch-hitter in the eighth, and Wee Willie Mitchell finished the unequal combat.

Owing to the weather, there were hardly enough present to make fish shooting profitable. Unless the attendance picks up they will dispose of the present park and put the crowds in a sardine can. But it is felt that a dash of sunshine will cause the receipts to grow.

POWERS PEEVED.

President Powers of the Angels was present, and bitterly resented allusions to his ball team as "nice old gentleman." Johnny denies there is an athlete on his club above middle age.

Mal Eason, the great infielding umpire, disgusted with his failure to stop a grounder Sunday, put on the ear muffs and worked behind the plate, where he could catch foul tips on his wishbone.

GAY SINGLES.

Faeth weakened in the third, and quit before he had finished his course. Frank Gay, light-hearted, but by no means giddy, started the round with a festive single. As Thurston started for the plate,

Thrills Promised When Infant Polish Chess Marvel Meets Local Grown-Ups.

CHESS WONDER READY FOR ALL.

Young Wizard Has Beaten Best Players in America.

Will Take on Twenty Experts Saturday Night.

Southern California has an astonishing number of chess players. Since the announcement in The Times a few days ago that Sammy Rzeschewiski, the Polish marvel, will tackle as many as twenty experts at the Los Angeles Athletic Club next Saturday, at least fifty who would enter the fray have been heard from. All the aspirants are known to be exceptionally good at the game, so it was a matter of "first come first served" with the L. A. A. C. chess committee.

So far, as made up, the list of crackerjacks to be pitted against the 9-year-old boy consists of H. A. Clarke, San Dimas; K. T. Van Baman, Long Beach; C. J. Bergman, Frederick Pilong, Pasadena; Stach Mlotkowski, Frank A. Garbutt, L. W. Watson, H. T. Rudisill, H. Berehow, C. W. Thomas, Jacinto Pimentel, George H. Grinnell, I. D. Humphrey, C. Sherwood, W. M. Duncan, J. E. Woodbury, Edwin Everett, E. W. Grabill and C. F. Hunt.

These players represent the best in the Chess Club, the Y. M. C. A., the Athletic Club and the various communities from which they come. Mr. Mlotkowski is regarded the strongest on the Pacific Coast and qualified for a high place last year in the national tournament. It would be difficult to find a score of "chessnuts" superior to these. There isn't one in the bunch who doesn't hope to beat the little wonder, whose skill has amazed the world.

Sammy, who has been fooling the crack players of the United States for a year, singly and in flocks, will arrive in the city this morning from the North, where his triumph has been as complete as elsewhere in the country. Saturday night in the L. A. A. C. gymnasium he will simultaneously play at least twenty men, each at his own table.

TRIMMED ALL.

Since he came to America a year ago the little boy from Warsaw has trimmed all the really big players with the exception of Frank J. Marshall, the United States champion, whom he has not met. Marshall's failure to respond to overtures for a match is interpreted by some as fear to tangle with the prodigy. The chess world hopes they may get together.

Saturday night's sensational contest will be open to the public, and the Athletic Club has made provision to seat all who may go. In the East hundreds stood for hours to watch the youngster vanquish adult players in mass games. It will be well to take opera glasses to obtain a good view of the individual moves on all the tables.

JUNIOR AUXIARY.

One hundred and fifty girls, members of the Junior Auxiliary of the Ebell Club, will meet for the last luncheon of the club year today in the clubhouse at 12:30 p.m. A talk on "College Days" by Miss Margaret Long, president of the student body of Mills College; a solo by Miss Helen Hammond; recitation, Miss Helen Van Vorst, and the closing address by the president of the club, Mrs. Charles H. Toll, will comprise the program. Mrs. Ralph Hoard will act as toastmistress.

DEMPSEY TO DON GLOVES IN EARNEST.

Beginning Tomorrow the Champion Will Make Life Miserable for Partners.

BY RAY PEARSON.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) June 14. One more day of the training schedule of Champion Jack Dempsey was knocked off in idleness, for Jack, full of pep and more contented than I ever have seen him before in advance of an important battle, just played around today. Play with Jack consists chiefly of driving the big motor car, and the only thing that really approached work was a seven-mile gallop for the "dogs" under a glaring sun shortly after he hopped out of the hay at 6:30 o'clock this morning.

Having mentioned that Dempsey is contented and not at all anxious about the business of the afternoon of July 4, a few words showing the channel in which the mind of the fistic champion is running perhaps would be interesting. After the aforementioned road work, Dempsey called for the car and with Teddy Hayes, Jack Kearns and a couple of others in his camp, motored around Atlantic City.

GETS INVITATION.

While on this little tour we met up with the champion, who halted the car and smilingly invited us out to the camp for dinner. Sure we accepted the invitation in jig time, and mention it here because when we return to Manhasset we may be hungry some day and maybe—well, we'll carry the lunch to be sure.

This guy Dempsey sure does sit down to a feed and enjoys it. There was a huge steak almost two inches thick and pork chops, too, and all the trimmings, with plenty of vegetables. After surrounding ourselves with that feed we tried to talk other business, said business being the scrap of July 2 at Jersey City.

BAD FOR PARTNERS.

All this information about the fight we got from Dempsey himself, who told us that on Thursday afternoon the real work is going to start in the outdoor arena. On go the gloves on the fists of the champion that day and from that time on until the clash with Carpentier he's going to make life miserable for his sparring partners.

Starting Thursday leaves Dempsey just fourteen days for real drilling and he figures that more than plenty in his present fine fettle. When the champion was pressed for more information concerning the walloping game he sidetracked the subject to inform us that he was going on another motor ride.

CARPENTIER INDULGES IN EARLY SPIN.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MANHASSET (L. I.) June 14.—This was another hectic day at Georges Carpentier's boxing quarters. The bars were up once more following the free field performance of yesterday. The reinforced constabulary with their new shiny tin plates and swinging war clubs large enough to clean up the entire village were out there patrolling the section for miles to see that the curious folks who attempted to get a peek at the French champion were kept well within their bounds.

However, the secret channels are still in operation and we can announce without fear of contradiction that Georges had an early morning spin before the honest folks at this quaint old place had slipped from the hay. The jaunt on the road is always followed by a layoff of many hours in which Carpentier peruses the morning papers to see how the critics are treating him.

JACK TO KICK.

The announcement that there was likely to be some squabble over the selection of a referee for the jam on July 2 did not cause any excitement at the camp here. Advance information said that Jack Kearns was going to step in with a kick on the New Jersey selection and that he was going to insist on Bob Edgren. The Carpentier camp knows that according to the original contract the principals have six men to select from, but they also know that the contract provided that the bout would be held under the laws of the State in which the contest was to be held and that the law of the State supersedes any contract entered into by the leading actors in this big international wrangle.

TO HOLD MEETING.

Tex Rickard, the big boss of the show, received a telegram today from Thomas A. Cassidy, secretary of the New Jersey Athletic Commission, wherein Tex was informed that a special meeting of the commission would be held on Thursday at Chairman Doherty's office in Jersey City, for the purpose of selecting a referee for the coming contest and to arrange all other matters pertaining to the bout.

BOWLING TONIGHT.

The Anaheim and Gene Murphy left-handers will bowl a home-and-home challenge match at Anaheim tonight. The return match will be held a week from today in Los Angeles.

Climbing Sacs Smear Oakland in First Game.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—Koehler's muff of a high foul in the second inning was the signal for a procession of runs that gave Sacramento today's game over Oakland, 7 to 1, putting the Senators within half a game of the Seals in the league race. Two men were out, two on base and Cook had three and two against him when he knocked the foul. Koehler dropped the ball and the Senators then scored five runs. Fittery got perfect support with four fast double plays. Sheehan got two home runs and Compton one. The score:

FEAR MISSING MAN HAS SLAIN HIMSELF.

FRIENDS THINK J. E. LILL DROWNED AFTER LEAVING GARB ON PIER.

Suicide was the solution offered yesterday by local attorneys of the mystery surrounding the disappearance last Saturday night of J. E. Lill, formerly a prosperous Long Beach business man, whose coat and hat were found on the end of the Pine-avenue pier shortly after he was reported missing.

The suicide theory was advanced by friends of the missing man, who stated that he had once before threatened to end his life because of ill health, domestic troubles and litigation over his property.

Mr. Lill was at one time one of the best known business men in Long Beach. In May, 1917, his business failed. This loss was followed by domestic difficulties, according to his friends, and litigation over his property which finally passed into the custody of his wife, who has since filed suit for divorce. It was also learned that Mr. Lill a few months ago was for several days confined to the California Hospital following an altercation with a man regarding family affairs.

When Mr. Lill left his coat and hat on the pier he did not do it as a bluff, his friends declare. They stated he was a nervous wreck, and in their belief, had ended his life by drowning.

BITES THE MITT WHICH FED HIM.

"Cravath isn't superstitious," remarked Jeems Morley. "At least he doesn't seem to believe in signs."

HIT ON HEAD.

Young Mr. Thurston remarked that he was willing to try anything once, after which he went to the plate and got hit on the head. Brainy baseball. Recovering from the shock to his cerebellum, he took first. Siglin bunted. Faeth started to force Gay at third, allowed his poorer judgment to prevail and then heaved too late to get Paddy at first. Bases all occupied.

Sands flied to Edington. Stumpy's throw to the plate was true, but just high enough to hold Hannah in an upright position. Truck was unable to squat and cover the plate as completely as usual, and Gay slid safely in among Truck's running gear. Wilhoit and Brown busted singles over second, which scored two more, and Bob McGraw relieved Faeth on the pitching beat. With Bob gold-bricking the opposition, Jourdan and Cravath grounded without any more runs pouring in.

ADD TAPE.

Salt Lake added a bit of binding tape to its lead in the sixth, when John Brown walked and scored from first on Jourdan's two-bagger. Cravath sacrificed, but Lynn and Gay were unable to give Jourdan a life from third.

Salt Lake put a padlock on the game in the eighth, when Brown and Jourdan singled. The latter took second on a wild pitch, which Hannah blocked.

CRAVATH THERE.

With the Vernon infield massed close in like halibut around a piece of bait which merits inspection, Cravath clouted through Alcock, scoring both runners. Lynn fanned.

Hap O'Connor of the Pacific Fleet was present, but declined to be drawn into the Sims controversy. Mr. O'Connor is setting an example for other men in public life by refusing to open his mouth except when he eats.

Ed Moriarity has discovered that the Tigers are a ball team without a home, now that games are no longer played at Vernon. He suggests that in case Mr. Wrigley buys the team it be named after Catalina. That would suit the fish. The score:

Expert Assailed in Will Battle Over Signature.

An attempt to impeach the testimony of Milton Carlson, handwriting expert, in the Jacquelin will contest was made yesterday by Attorneys Bicksler, Smith and Park. The contest, on trial in Judge McCormick's court for a week, came to a close yesterday, and the argument by counsel will extend over until this afternoon. After the jury retires the trial of Deputy Sheriffs Lips and Anderson, charged with accepting a bribe, will be called.

Mr. Carlson, who declared the signature of Mrs. Jean Way Jacquelin to her last purported will was a forgery, denied making a certain statement to Attorney W. C. Smith. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Smith was called to the stand by his law partner, Attorney Park, counsel for Dr. S. S. Jacquelin. The latter is seeking the probate of his widow's purported will, naming him one of the principal heirs of her $50,000 estate.

He testified that Mr. Carlson had been suggested as an expert in the will contest and that he had asked Mr. Carlson if would be possible to engage him.

"Mr. Carlson said: 'I can't be employed by you because I have been engaged on the other side.' I replied: 'All we want is for you to tell the truth.' Mr. Carlson rejoined: 'Well, gentlemen, I must tell you if I can make a point for my client I am going to do it.'"

The will contest has been a trial of experts. The jurors when they retire will take magnifying glasses and examine the purported forged signatures and the signatures pronounced genuine.

NEW THEATER BEGUN.

Ground Broken for Film House to be Built at Gardner Junction.

Immediately following the closing of the deal for a new motion picture theater at Gardner Junction in Hollywood for Gore Brothers, Ramish and Sol Lesser, ground was broken yesterday by the Milwaukee Building Company. The contract calls for completion of the structure by November 1. The new theater will be under the supervision of Messrs. Swope, Young and Grant of the Hollywood Theaters, Inc.

Spanish style of architecture, in its latest phase will be used throughout. Special attention will be paid to color detail in the interior of the theater. The building will be of two stories with storerooms on both sides of the main entrance, and offices on the second floor. The estimated cost will be about $200,000.

Ought to be a Hot Evening in Mercury Gym.

MERCURY BOUTS APPEAR TORRID.

Long List of Hot Preliminaries on the Card.

All is in readiness for the staging of the monthly boxing show in the gymnasium of the Los Angeles Athletic Club tomorrow evening. Eight bouts will comprise the card and some of the best amateurs in the south will participate.

The principals of the main event will be Ad Geyer, Southern California welterweight champion, and Sailor Jacobson of the U.S.S. Mississippi. Geyer is not taking any chances with the sailor and consequently is working out every day. Jacobson on the other hand is being sent against Geyer for one purpose, and that is to gain a victory over the club boy. This is true, due to the fact that Geyer has met and defeated nearly every sailor that has been sent against him. In Jacobson he will meet a "tartar" and a clashing battle should accrue.

Considerable interest is being taken in the appearance here of Sailor Hendrix. He was a member of the American Olympic boxing team and this will mark his debut before a Los Angeles fight audience. George Smith, a newcomer to the club, and who did plenty of ring work in France while with the Army, will be Hendrix's opponent. Both boys are in the welterweight division and are hard hitters. If Smith can get by Hendrix he will be ready to take on Geyer and Jenkinson.

When Sid Chernis and Sailor Connolly crawl through the hemp the spectators will be furnished with a few rounds of "knock-'em-deads," for Chernis is after Connolly due to the fact that the latter drubbed him in the recent amateur boxing tourney. Both men are heavyweights and know little more about the game than to slug.

EAST TAKES BIG MEET SERIOUSLY.

The quarter mile at Pasadena should be a terrific race. With Oxy Hendrixson of California, Spec Schiller of U.S.C. and Colon Kilby of Redlands all capable of 49s. or better there would seem to be enough class in the event.

But New York is sending Bill Stevenson of Princeton, who won his heat in the intercollegiates in 48 4-5s., and Harold Ray of Rutgers. Stevenson was pocketed in the finals, according to Ferris, and finished third, while the Rutgers man developed into fourth place with the well-known Hendrixson of the Bear institution winning in 49s. flat.

Lincoln Adams, a University of Princeton freshman, who has made the rail birds sit up and take notice this spring, will also run the quarter for the N.Y.A.C. as well as the 220-yard low hurdles.

THE BIG BOYS.

Pat McDonald and Pat Ryan, the lumpy athletes who have been shoving the weights out for the New York club for many years past, will be right on the job. McDonald won the fifty-six-pound weight at Antwerp with Ryan second and the latter captured the hammer throw.

Dick Landon of Yale, winner of the high jump at the Olympic Games last summer, will leap for New York; Jack Sellers, national 600-yard champion and 880-yard Metropolitan district champion, will step in his favorite distances; Joe Pearman will put on the walking circus and Allen Helfrich, All-American interscholastic champ last year, will dash the 880.

The Morningside Athletic Club will send Willie Plant, one of the greatest walkers in the country, and Frank Conway, a prep, who has done 10s. flat and 21 4-5s. at Mercersburg this year.

The Loughlin Lyceum will dispatch Pat Ryan of weight fame to the front. Pat is a section foreman and big enough to push over the County Jail. He is the world's record slinger with the 16-pound hammer, having pushed it out 189 feet 6½ inches.

Other and smaller clubs around the New York district will send representatives. Pastime has Samuel Lehrer training for the hop, step and jump, and K. Geist of the Y.M.H.A. is working for the same event.

MIKE TRAINING.

Mike Devanney, who traveled across the pond last year, is running the mile better than ever before, it is indicated in Ferris's letter. Has been doing it consistently in 4m. 25s. and should do 4m. 20s. He will need all this and more in all probability if he hopes to keep near Connolly of Georgetown, who won at Cambridge in 4m. 17 1-5s., closely followed by Larry Brown, the Seattle boy, who is captain-elect of next year's University of Pennsylvania team. Connolly will run for the Boston A. C., while it is probable that Brown will be dolled out in Multnomah colors.

A side light on the capabilities of Pennsylvania's quarter milers, at least two of whom will run for the Meadowbrook Club of Philadelphia, is given by Ferris.

When the Pennsylvania quartet made a new quarter mile relay record of 3m. 16 2-5s. a couple of weeks ago, Maxam ran his lap in 48s. flat; Brown, the miler, did 48 4-5s., and Eby, 49s. Apparently the Coast boys will have to hustle to show their noses in front at Pasadena.

BLIND CHILDREN GET DIPLOMAS.

The first graduation exercises of blind children in the Los Angeles schools was held at 2 p.m. yesterwhere a class of three totally blind student received their diplomas. The board last night approved the plan of Supt. Dorsey to establish playgrounds during the summer vacation period at thirty of the city schools.

WALTHAM SPEEDOMETERS AND AUTOMOBILE CLOCKS

Two Undisputed Reasons

HERE are two unanswerable reasons why your car should be equipped with the Waltham Speedometer and Clock. First: That the name of Waltham is an assurance of quality and precision. Second: That recognizing these facts, the builders of the world's leading cars specify and equip their product with Waltham precision instruments. The Waltham is the only Air-Friction Speedometer in the world. It indicates accurately and instantaneously the speed of your car. It is not affected by climatic conditions. It is used on such cars as Cunningham, Lafayette, Leach-Biltwell, Lincoln, Packard, Pierce-Arrow, Renault, Rolls-Royce, Stevens-Duryea, Wills-Sainte Claire and others.

National—The Logical Choice of the Motor Wise

The same qualities that made National Road and Speedway Champion, come to you refined, but undiminished in your National today.

The knowledge that the spirit of a host of victors waits but your bidding on road or boulevard naturally gives you pride in National ownership.

But National ownership gives you more than mechanical excellence. There is additional satisfaction in smart body design, the beauties and refinements of high class coach building on the regular stock models.

Then, too, there is satisfaction in securing this luxury without extravagance. This automobile is remarkably economical in fuel, oil and tire consumption. Regardless of what you are willing to pay, you cannot secure more motor car value.

RADIOS.

A CLASSIC REVIVAL.

KEENAN TO FOLLOW "RIP" WITH OTHER FAMED PLAYS.

By Edwin Schallert.

That the presentation of "Rip Van Winkle," with Frank Keenan in the title role next week at the Mason, is to be but the prologue to further productions of classic plays, is indicated in an announcement of his plans made by Thomas Wilkes in connection with his new enterprise. This represents probably one of the most unusual phases of the changes in theatrical policies, brought about through the inability of touring companies to cope with transportation problems.

It is very probable that Mr. Keenan will be the star in the classic dramas, and possibly also in one or two of the more serious modern plays. Keenan is regarded by Mr. Wilkes as exactly the type of actor to engage in a repertoire of the artistic drama.

The production of "Rip Van Winkle," which will open Monday night, is to follow the Joe Jefferson version, even to the stage directions noted upon the original manuscript. Through Thomas Jefferson, son of Joseph Jefferson, now in Los Angeles, Messrs. Keenan and Wilkes were able to obtain the original manuscript. On this, in the famous actor's own handwriting, are a succession of notes, explaining the stage action and the interpretation.

In one place Jefferson wrote—"In acting keep your heart warm and your head cool."

He also eliminated from his version many of the original lines which tended toward indelicacy and coarseness.

"The power of dramatic action overwhelms the comparative potency of dialogue," he also set down.

The original wardrobe used by Jefferson—the heap of pitiful and unsightly rags in which Rip returned from his long and famous sleep included—have been secured, it is said. Before Thomas Jefferson would consent to their use, Mr. Wilkes had to have them insured. Lloyd was the only company that would take the risk and the heap of old rags now carries $10,000 insurance, it is stated.

Many props used by Jefferson, including the gun and hunting bag which Rip carries, have been given to the company by Thomas Jefferson, who aided Mr. Keenan by supervising every scene.

The cast includes besides Mr. Keenan, William Courtleigh, Julia Blanc, Ruth Hammond, Frederick Manly, John D'Ormond, Stanton Williams, Arthurs Villars and Gertrude Messenger.

The play has been in rehearsal for many weks, and is now playing in San Diego in anticipation of the opening here.

Both Mr. Wilkes and Mr. Keenan declare that the difficulty in getting New York productions to the Coast is becoming more and more apparent and that the necessity for providing a western center, not for try-outs, but for repertoire productions and for current New York successes which eastern managers refuse to send West because of the expense, is constantly more evident.

Queen of the Rodeo.

She's been acclaimed queen of the Reno Round-up, a picturesque Western event to be staged in the city of divorces for four days, beginning July 2.

Miss Dana is to wear a cowgirl outfit during the affair, and a particularly fetching one has been provided by her tailor. The costume includes chaps, trousers, and boots—not to speak of a real six-shooter supplied from the Metro arsenal. The star has been holding impromptu rehearsals after picture-making time, so that she can carry out her part in the show.

A program of entertainment has been arranged for Miss Dana during her stay in Nevada, and already she has received a sheaf of invitations from cowboys, business men, bankers, and, at least, one member of Reno's exclusive divorce colony, to be partner at dances.

Miss Dana is finishing work on the picture "There Are No Villains," which Bayard Veiller is directing, and is not to begin work on a new production until her return.

Official Stardom.

Ben Turpin will be officially introduced as a star of the two-reelers next month. His photoplay "Love's Outcast" is booked for a general presentation throughout the country. The official designation is merely a matter of form in Ben's case, because he really has been a star for some time in attraction power.

Long Make-up Shift.

Lon Chaney answers the alarm at 5 a.m. these days. The reason being that it takes him longer than usual to make up for the part of the Chinaman in Marshall Neilan's picture, "Bits of Life." It requires about two and a half hours for Chaney to transform himself into the character, so knowing his past achievements in such pictures as "The Penalty," you can guess that he's going to startle anew.

Pro Tem Female Impersonator.

Hughie Mack is a leading lady these days. At least, he is so cast in Victor Potel's latest Ellis Parker Butler "Philo Gubb" comedy. It seems that a heavyweight heroine of negligible sex attractions was required for the picture, and Mack was just the person to portray the part. To make affairs worse he has to put on a black make-up, and in one of the scenes he is hoisted out of a room with a steam-driven crane.

Vic Potel is finishing the third of the series of comedies which he is making under the Cullison management.

Sang in "Soul Kiss."

Diana Bonnar, who is singing at the New Pantages Theater this week, hasn't appeared in this city since she was with "The Soul Kiss," a musical show of some seasons ago. It was as a result of her appearance in this production that Alexander Pantages first booked her in vaudeville. Later she studied voice in America and abroad and appeared in grand opera.

Phoebe Hunt Shadowed.

Phoebe Hunt made her first public appearance on the screen last week at a preview of "The Grim Comedian," the Frank Lloyd production, at the Neptune Theater, in Venice. Miss Hunt was leading woman for a short time with the stock company at the Majestic. She is said to register good emotional power in the picture feature.

The cast of "The Grim Comedian" includes John Harron, brother of the late Robert Harron; Jack Holt, Gloria Hope, Bert Woodruff, Laura Lavarnie, Mae Hopkins, Joseph Dowling, Claude Payton and Eric Snowden.

In "Fauntleroy."

Christie Vacations.

Al Christie has hied himself to New York for a thirty-day vacation. This is the first rest the comedy director has taken in about four years.

DAVIDSON TO APPEAR.

A personal appearance will be made by John Davidson, who plays opposite Carmel Myers in "Cheated Love," this evening at 7:30 and 9:30 o'clock at the Superba Theater. Davidson has only recently made his entry into pictures from the speaking drama. He will be remembered for his engagement with the Majestic Theater stock company as guest star some months ago in Shaw's "Man and Superman" and Ibsen's "Ghosts."

LOCATION FOR CHARITY.

Mary Pickford is planning to leave for San Francisco within a week to film scenes for "Little Lord Fauntleroy." She will be accompanied by Bennie Zeidman, her directors, Jack Pickford and Alfred Green, and Charles Rosker, camera man. Miss Pickford secured a beautiful English estate type of residence at Burlingame, through the location bureau of the Assistance League, which turns its profits from such arrangements over to charity.

"KANGAROOS" REHEARSING.

Rehearsals are being held at all hours for "The Kangaroos," Victor Mapes's new play, which is to be given its premiere at the Little Theater Monday evening. Mr. Mapes, the author who is collaborating with Frank Egan on the direction is perhaps best known as the coauthor of "The Boomerang" and "The Hottentot." Heading the cast are Olga Grey Zacsek, Russell Simpson, Neely Edwards, Lincoln Steadman, Kathleen Kirkham, Edith Fawcett Elliott and others. Oliver Morosco will probably give "The Kangaroos" a New York presentation after its run at the Egan theater.

REID IN "PART."

How many film fans are there who can remember Wallie Reid taking a part as a blacksmith? This glimpse into the past is afforded in Griffith's "The Clansman," which is having a revival at the Garrick. At the time Griffith made his picture Reid had never had the pleasure of seeing his name in the white lights.

FUTURIST DANCE.

As the dedicatory feature of the program which will mark the formal opening of the Turkish village tomorrow evening, Freddric KoVert, the dancer, will present a trio of his students, Andre Bayley, Doris Cleveland and Bessie Crouch, in a futurist number.

ITALIAN PROGRAM.

An All-Italian Concert has been arranged by Mischa Guterson for the Grauman orchestral program next Sunday. The selections include "Cavalleria Rusticana," excerpts (Mascagni;) chorus from "Lombardi," (Verdi;) "Mandolinata," (Paladilhe!) "Pucciana," (Puccini;) and Italian popular songs. Signor Ettore Campana, baritone, will sing an aria from "Ernani" by Verdi. Miss Mary Leah Parker will play the piano accompaniment.

OCEAN BREEZES CALL.

Having completed "The Great Impersonation," the second Lasky-Melford production featuring him, James Kirkwood has taken to the seaside for a few weeks' vacation. Jim figures he owes himself a rest and can point to six current releases to prove his assertion. Besides "Man, Woman and Marriage," now at the Kinema, he has the leading male roles in "The Heart of a Fool;" "Love;" "The Forbidden Thing;" "A Wise Fool" and "Bob Hampton of Placer." The last two have been shown in New York and are scheduled for early release here.

FOR BENEFIT PERFORMANCE.

Mrs. William E. Mabee, president of the Wa-Wan Club and Mrs. Hancock Banning, president of the Assistance League, are in charge of the benefit performance for the Disabled Veterans of the World War today at the Ambassador Theater. Mrs. Arthur Wright is chairman of the committee and Mrs. Samuel Storrow will act as cashier at the box office. Through the courtesy of Sol Lesser, the film, "The City of Silent Men," starring Thomas Meighan, will be shown. Miss Annice Howell, singer, and Miss Elinor Renick Warren, pianiste, and composer, both members of the Wa Wan Club, will give the musical program.

FLASHES.

CHAPLIN DOUBLES.

FAMOUS COMEDIAN HAS TWO ROLES IN "IDLE CLASS."

By Grace Kingsley.

For the first time in his artistic career, Charlie Chaplin is to appear in a doule role. The picture is the one he is working on now; he plays, respectively, a smart society man around town and his familiar character of the derby, big-shoes, bum-clothes make-up.

The comedy was to have been called "Vanity Fair," but after divers communications with First National respecting the title, the name has been changed to "The Idle Class." So that from the name, you can see that the world's most famous comedian is to portray representatives of both idle classes.

And just because "The Idle Class" has to be finished at the end of the present month, and because Chaplin was ill with a bad cold for two weeks and unable to work, the comedian needs must forego taking a trip East to see the big Carpentier-Dempsey fight, July 2.

At present he is spending his days in cutting and titling the two-reeler.

JACK HOLT WILL BE NEW PARAMOUNT STAR

Give a good boy like Jack Holt time enough and he's sure to become a star. That's actually what has happened to the Paramount actor, according to announcement from Jesse L. Lasky, vice-president of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation.

According to Mr. Lasky, Jack Holt will star in a series of outdoor productions, as he typifies clean-cut young American manhood, and it is the wish of the organization to give him the settings which become him best.

Holt is a Southerner, Winchester, Va., being his birthplace. He spent four seasons in stock on the stage and in his screen career has appeared for many of the largest concerns, including Famous Players-Lasky, First National, Select, Ince and Universal.

Prior to theatrical and film work, he spent much time on the range. At one period he also drove a dog team carrying the mails in Alaska.

Dustin Farnum With Fox.

There's nothing like loyalty, and Dustin Farnum and the Fox Film Corporation are proving it by getting together again in the relation of star and producing company. Mr. Farnum was featured by Fox four years ago in a number of pictures, principal of which was "The Scarlet Pimpernel." It was just a fortnight ago that the actor decided again to cast his lot with the same company.

Robertson-Cole to Resume.

Robertson-Cole are to resume production at their Hollywood studios July 1, according to announcement just made. Six companies will be at work, including Louis Gasnier, Pauline Frederick, Sessue Hayakawa and Christie Cabanne, as well as two new directors not yet announced.

Promise Good Talk.

Get your dictaphones ready to can some bright spieling. Looks as if there were going to be some lively doings at the luncheon by the Commercial Board in Paulais' banquet hall today. The guests of honor are to be Will Rogers, Goldwyn star, and B. B. Hampton, producer.

Visiting Lasky Official.

Victor H. Clarke, former general manager at the Long Island studios of Famous Players-Lasky, and now special representative of the production department, has arrived on the Coast for an extended visit. He spent Monday inspecting the Lasky studio with General Manager Charles Eyton. Mr. Clarke expects to be here several months and will spend much time in conference with Mr. Eyton and other executives.

Mary Thurman With Russell.

For Mary Thurman life is just one change of studio after another. She flits about with her make-up box like a charming will o' the wisp. She is appearing in the shadows in support of William Russell at the Symphony this week, but in the flesh and blood is just completing a picture with Roscoe Arbuckle. Now she is to play opposite William Russell again at the Fox studio before returning to Paramount.

Still in Lead.

Virginia Valli, who has been leading woman for Bert Lytell in "The Man Who" and "A Trip Through Paradise," is to have the principal role in the star's new picture, "Junk."

Pasadena Community.

"Potash and Perlmutter" is providing much joy for theatergoers at the Pasadena Community Playhouse this week. The play is the final offering at the theater for the season, and is proving one of the most popular.

Of especial interest is the fact that Mrs. Guy Bates Post, wife of the noted stage star, is playing one of the principal roles.

Among others in the cast are F. G. Novis, S. S. Hinds, Mrs. A. H. Palmer and George Reis. Gilmor Brown is directing.

Montague Glass, the author of the play, is a patron of the theater.

Holmes Has Kimono.

Stuart Holmes is now the more or less proud possessor of a Batik kimono. He let John Davidson persuade him into buying a chance at the Actor's Fund festival, and it turned out he was the winner. So if clothes make the man, the screen runs a risk of losing one of its huskiest villains.

"Dance Me Around."

Are you a fiend for learning new dance steps? Well, if you are you'll have considerable fun watching a lot of other anxious learners frolic in "Dance Me Around," the musical revue this week at the Burbank. What plot there is to the show seems to be mainly concerned with the wild efforts of a group of matrons and girls to catch on to a novelty step. There's also a husband who's jealous of the dancing teacher, which helps to make things glide along breezily.

Although the bill is quite a dancy affair, there's plenty of enlivening comedy by Manny King, Rooky Lewis et al., whoever he is. Irene Brooks, Violet Mansfield, Billy Q Riddle and Nan Keyes also entertain with their voices.

Gypsy Strains Please.

Gypsy music's dizzy charm captivated a large audience at the concert given by Grauman's orchestra last Sunday morning. The program offered an array of light and attractive selections for the orchestra, effectively rendered under Mischa Guterson's direction.

Soloists for the concert were Ernesto Rubio, the Spanish tenor, and Albert Tessier, the pianist. Mr. Tessier played a composition of his own as an encore to his rendition of Liszt's Rhapsody, No. 4. Mr. Rubio sang "Sierras de Arazon" by Alvarez and the "Harlequin's Serenade" by Leoncavallo. Walter Alexander accompanied him on the piano.

Byron Gay to Play.

Byron Gay, pop song writer, whose numbers include "The Vamp," "Sand Dunes," "Oh," "Western Land" and "To Love in Vain," personally will play these and others of his hits at Grauman's Theater next week in conjunction with Thomas Meighan's "White and Unmarried." Gay will be assisted by Fred McPherson, baritone, and prominent member of the Los Angeles Uplifters' Club in addition to several other singers. This probably will be Mr. McPherson's last public appearance locally, as he is about to leave on an eastern concert tour. Although Gay has been tendered several contracts to appear in vaudeville, he has declined these, so this will be the first time it is said that he will grace the stage in this manner. He is a resident of Los Angeles and many of his famous songs have been composed mous songs have been composed

He's a Public Ki-Yi.

The only municipally-owned dog in the world is not for sale at any price. Mr. and Mrs. Carter De Haven, co-starring in "My Lady Friends," a new farce comedy now being completed for First National release, found this out recently when the company went on location at Catalina Island.

Mrs. De Haven became quite attached to a beautiful collie dog which insisted on following her about. An attempt on the part of Director Lloyd Ingraham to purchase the animal brought about an investigation which revealed the fact that the dog is owned by the summer resort, which feeds it and pays its license by popular subscription. The animal apparently was left on the island a few years ago by its owner, who never returned for it, but its remarkable intelligence and affection for the residents in general made such an impression that it was saved from the pound by popular subscription for its license and annual upkeep. No one was found with authority to sell the dog.

...IRRIGATION BOND ...ISSUE RAGES.

irrigation projects that might have approval of an Arizona official board. Before the time this bill became effective, June 9, there were filed with the Arizona Secretary of State petitions for a suspension of the submission until the time of the general election in 1922. These petitions bear over twice the number of names required for an ordinary referendum. Now the question arises, one that may have to be carried to the courts, whether a "referendum in Arizona may be had upon a referendum measure. Lawyers disagree upon the subject.

OUTSIDE SUPPORT.

The act is being strongly supported from what are called outside irrigation enterprises, those which hope to float bonds through which irrigation works may be financed. Especially notable in this last is the Paradise-Verde enterprise north and northeast of Phoenix, where it is hoped to irrigate the plains by storage of flood waters of the Verde River and through diversion in a manner that would create, incidentally, a vast supply of hydro-electric power. This proposition is an ambitious one, with possibility of expenditure of even $15,000,000. Interest also is shown in favor of the bill among settlers in the Casa Grande, Santa Cruz, San Pedro, Sulphur Springs, San Simon and Upper Gila Valleys. There has been formed a community of interest to secure the early referendum and popular passage of the bill, to fight an opposition which appears a bit nebulous and yet which thus far has made a considerable show of strength. The petitions against the measure bear 4254 signatures from Maricopa County alone. It was only necessary in the case of an ordinary referendum to offer 3423 names, or 5 per cent of the total vote cast for Governor at the last general election.

SUBSTANTIAL BENEFITS.

Substantial benefit will be derived from the order of Secretary of the Interior Fall, deferring the fourth and fifth payments due the government on the Salt River irrigation project. These payments aggregate $610,000 and will be collected in an extension of the period in which full and final payment is to be made.

The matter was put before President Harding and Secretary Fall by a committee from the Salt River Valley Water Users' Association, and by Gov. Campbell, Senators Cameron and Ashurst and Representative Hayden. A plea for delay, owing to post war conditions, found sympathetic response from the President and the Secretary and there was quick reference to an act lately passed by Congress, permitting such suspension of payment.

The local irrigation system, with its canals and its power works, is operating efficiently.

The Roosevelt reservoir, after about two years of draught, still is one-half full and at no time has there been a shortage of water for irrigation. With an ample supply of electric power, generated at the Roosevelt dam and in drops from the canals, about two score of the association's wells are being pumped in the parts of the valley where the water level is high. These levels have been lowered very materially demonstrating that no fear need be felt of waterlogged lands in the future. Crops are in fine condition, including about 60,000 acres of Egyptian cotton. Within the next month is to be marketing of the cantaloupe crop, expected to realize about $1,000,000.

TURN SEARCHLIGHT ON WAR CONTRACTS.

DAUGHERTY STARTS INVESTIGATION OF DEALINGS WITH GOVERNMENT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Investigation by the Department of Justice of all major war-time contracts with the government has been begun, Atty.-Gen. Daugherty announced today.

To handle the work, which has the approval of President Harding, Mr. Daugherty said a special bureau is being organized.

The purpose of the investigation, he explained is to sift war-time dealings of business concerns and individuals with the government in order that those guilty of dishonesty may be punished and those whose dealings have been fair may be cleared from what he declared were suspicions prevalent that all of the government's war contracts are open to question.

Declaring that the investigation was not directed primarily at "the little fellows," he said, "we will throw back any minnows we catch and let them start over again."

At the conclusion of the work, Mr. Daugherty said, he would report to the President.

Mr. Daugherty expressed confidence that the great majority of the business men who had dealings with the government were beyond reproach, but that there had undoubtedly been many instances where business had been done on an unfair basis.

The government, he said, could not justify sending men and boys to prison for antagonizing the raising of an army during the war, if men who made unconscionable profits out of the nation went unscathed.

ADOPTION OF UNIFORM CLASSIFICATION URGED

COTTON MEN DECLARE UNIVERSAL STANDARDS SIMPLIFY METHODS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LIVERPOOL, June 14.—Adoption of uniform classification of cotton for the world was urged today before the world's cotton conference by W. R. Meadows, a member of the delegation representing the United States, who has charge of the cotton division of the American Agricultural Department.

"Universal standards would not only simplify methods of handling cotton, but would tend to higher standards of ethics in the cotton business," said Mr. Meadows.

J. H. Ziegler of Liverpool said that a uniform set of standards for the world was desirable, but that there were difficulties attending the adoption of such standards which perhaps have not presented themselves. The merit of the Liverpool standards was that they were time-honored, he declared, and he did not believe they had ever been altered. He said he would be loath to see any change made in the Liverpool standards.

It was decided to refer the matter of standards to a committee.

Giorgis Mylius of the Italian Cotton Association complained that American bankers demanded too heavy security. He thought the signatures of the Italian spinner and Italian banker should be enough, but in some cases, he asserted, American bankers demanded a profit on exchange also. R. S. Hecht of the Hibernia Bank and Trust Company of New Orleans said that what worried the average American banker was the political risk, and the American banker required as much protection as he could get.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS' MEMBERSHIP CLIMBS.

MADE GREATEST GAIN IN LAST YEAR SINCE ORDER FOUNDED IN 1887.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—The Native Daughters of the Golden West made their greatest gain in membership in the last year since the order was founded in 1887, bringing the total above 12,000, Mrs. Bertha A. Briggs of Hollister, the Grand President, reported today at the opening session of the thirty-fifth grand parlor.

The year's gain was 1650, she said, and two new parlors were organized, Plumas Pioneer at Quincy and Camp Far West at Wheatland.

Completion of a $5000 scholarship fund to send a native daughter, or daughter of a native daughter to Mills College on the interest from the money was announced.

Past Grand presidents, who formed an association last September to assist the grand presidents, were guests tonight at a banquet at which Mrs. Genevieve Baker of San Francisco was hostess.

Tonight the 300 delegates were guests of the San Francisco parlors at a ball, and tomorrow afternoon the local parlors will take their visitors on an automobile tour of the city.

AMERICAN CITIZENS DETAINED IN GREECE.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PARIS, June 14.—A score of naturalized Greek Americans have been held up by King Constantine's authorities at Patras, refused permission to return to the United States, and may be forced to enter the Greek army for operations against the Kemalists in Asia Minor.

The men have sent the following cablegram of protest to the State Department at Washington:

"We protest against the action of the Greek authorities in submitting naturalized American citizens to gross indignities and mistreatment.

"They are disregarding our American passports and naturalization certificates and are forbidding our return to America, threatening to jail some of us and force others into the Greek army although we served in the American army.

"We appeal to America for protection and lawful aid."

It is reported that a number of American citizens already have been drafted into the Greek army and sent to Asia Minor for the imminent offensive. Several veterans of the American expeditionary forces are included.

ROUGH ROAD FOR TARIFF MEASURE

International Bankers Don't Want Wall Built.

Fear Loss of Loans Made to European Countries.

Far West, South Only Parts Favoring Protection.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Back of the delay in the formulating of the tariff bill for the control of imports into the United States is a great new factor, and that is the American international banker. This statement is made up on the authority of Congressman John Q. Tillson of Connecticut, who has issued a formal statement to this effect.

According to the argument submitted by Tillson these bankers have advanced money to many large manufacturing concerns in the various countries of Europe as part of the program of readjustment and the success of their loans and the ability of the borrowers to pay back the loans is dependent entirely on a receptive market in the United States, the only nation able to buy.

RESTRICTED MARKETS.

Any protective tariff on these products means that the market is restricted and will to that extent delay the repayment of the amounts borrowed from American bankers, and in some cases where the tariff became almost prohibitory might jeopardize the loans themselves.

Not only has the whole New England manufacturing district, and that means all of New England, turned its face against a protective tariff, but it has been joined by the Middle West, which has gone in for manufacturing on an undreamed-of scale, due to the expansion of the war factories. Congressmen representing these districts are under the greatest possible pressure to keep down any tariff wall in order to give all the manufacturer an outlet to the markets of the world without reprisals and now on top of this effective force against a protective tariff comes this new influence of the bankers, who want to protect their European loans in commodities which will compete with American products.

CREDITOR NATION.

For the first time in its history the United States is a creditor nation and this fact has completely changed the attitude of the most popular part of the country toward a protective tariff. Today the Far West and the agricultural and cotton States of the South are the only really protective sections of the country and these States all together have not enough votes to get a high protective tariff in the face of this opposition.

Most of the eastern and middle western Congressmen are now trying to cater to the consumer and they are looking to election day a year from next November for the encouragement and protection of American industry.

The wool, metal and lumber schedules are tying up the Ways and Means Committee, but there are many other points of difficulty and even when the tariff bill gets to the House there are bound to be some hot fights on the different schedules especially where the consumer-Congressmen will try to batter down the protection reported in the bill against the minority members from the Far West and South, who are seeking to protect the industries dependent upon the tariff for their existence.

GOOD food, polite service and reasonable prices are found at Gus Mann's Pot and Spigot Grill, 611 South Spring.

(Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.)

German Submersible Victim of Yankee Gunners.

The first shot at an enemy craft on the Great Lakes since the War of 1812 was fired when the U.S.S. Wilmette (formerly the Eastland) turned her 4-inch guns on the U-97, assigned to the United States by terms of the armistice and used during the Victory loan campaign. Thirteen shots were fired altogether, but one would have sufficed, for the first shot ,fired by the man who fired the first torpedo in the World War, was a direct hit. The photo shows sailors manning gun on the Wilmette; insert, first shot landing.

ONE DEAD, FIVE SHOT IN PISTOL BATTLE.

TWO OF WOUNDED EXPECTED TO DIE—KENTUCKY BROTHERS RESIST ARREST.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) June 14.—In a six handed pistol battle during a circus at White House, Kentuncky this afternoon, one man was killed, two were probably fatally wounded, a fourth was seriously shot while two spectators received bullets in their legs. The casualty list is:

Millard Meeks, 47 years old, merchant, instantly killed.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Cheek, 40, believed to be dying.

The circus performance was in progress when Deputy Sheriff Cheek and special Deputies Trice and Shade Cantrell, appointed to keep order circus day, attempted to arrest the Meeks brothers, who were said to have been drunk and raising a disturbance. The brothers resisted arrest. The shooting began. Who fired first is undetermined.

When the smoke cleared away the ground looked like a minature battle field. The only man involved who was not wounded was Deputy Sheriff Cantrell. The circus performance had ben brought to an abrupt and confused end.

INFLUX OF ALIENS TO BE CONTROLLED.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Steamship companies have agreed to limit immigrants they will bring into American ports each month to the average capacities of the ports as fixed by the immigration authorities, W. W. Husband, Commissioner-General of Immigration, announced today. Arrivals at Ellis Island will be so controlled, he said, as not to exceed 1500 a day.

The immigrants who arrived in excess of June quotas have been landed under nominal bond by authority of the Secretary of Labor under a provision of the old immigration law, which still is in effect, Mr. Husband said.

MAKE READY TO HANG WANDERER AND GEARY.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 14.—Carl Wanderer, whose attorneys have secured a stay of execution on the ancient law that permits a review of the case where a murderer becomes insane after conviction, is claiming that he hears "voices" in his cell during the night. He was to have been hanged Friday, and unless the Supreme Court issues a positive mandate forbidding the hanging, the jail officials will go ahead with the performance. The same rule applies to Gene Geary, notorious gunman and double murderer. The Supreme Court today extended Geary's stay of execution to July 17.

For six weeks attorneys for Wanderer told the pardon board the slayer of three persons has been hearing strange noises in his cell. Attention also is called to the alleged fact that he has lost weight and has an unhealthy appearance.

Meanwhile, preparations are going forward at the jail to hang both Geary and Wanderer, and the officials say they will execute them unless forbidden to do so by the Supreme Court.

WANT LOWER RATES TO INTERMEDIATE POINTS

REPRESENTATIVES OF EIGHTY-THREE ORGANIZATIONS MEET TO PROTEST.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SALTLAKECITY (Utah) June 14. Representatives of eighty-three organizations attending the meeting called by the Intermediate Rate Association today decided to formally protest against the proposal of the railroads to reduce rates to the Pacific Coast without making readjustments on transcontinental tariffs to intermediate points.

A letter of protest, to be sent to R. H. Countiss, agent at the transcontinental freight bureau, Chicago, who it is surmised will file the railroads' application, was read and approved.

The application, if granted, would authorized a departure from provisions of the InterState Commerce Act, the protestants said.

HOARDED GOLD SPENT.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONDON, May 28. — The widespread destitution caused by unemployment here is bringing out the gold hoarded by many persons in more prosperous times. There has been a most noticeable increase in the number of sovereigns and half-sovereigns in circulation in the last few weeks.

Previously it was only on rare occasions that a sovereign or half sovereign was tendered.

WATER RIGHTS VALUE PUT AT HIGH FIGURE.

DEFENSE TESTIMONY ENDED IN ACTION OF CITY AGAINST COMPANY.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—Valuations of $722,000 and $900,000 on the Southern Sierras Power Company water rights in the Owens River Gorge were made by witnesses for the corporation today in the Federal court trial of the condemnation suit brought by the city of Los Angeles. The municipality seeks the property on the ground that it is an essential part of its hydroelectric development projects.

The lower figure was given by G. G. Woodbridge of San Francisco, a consulting engineer, while the higher one was offered by F. Emerson Hoar, former chief electrical engineer for the Railroad Commission. Hoar said his valuation was based on the development cost of all the hydroelectric projects completed in California in the last few years.

Defense testimony was virtually completed today and the case probably will go to the jury tomorrow.

MINERS OF CALGARY DECIDE TO BE GOOD.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CALGARY (Alta.) June 14.—A resolution accepting conditions laid down by the international executive board of the United Mine Workers of America was adopted at the opening session of the convention of miners of District No. 18 today.

The charter of the district, comprising Alberta and Eastern British Columbia, was suspended two years ago when the one-big-union leaders got control. Full and complete autonomy is expected to be restored as a result of the action.

AMERICANS TO VIEW WATERWAY PROJECT.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The Canadian government will be host beginning June 20 to a party of American government officials, members of Congress, Governors of States, the Tidewater association and other organizations for a trip over the proposed route of the St. Lawrence waterway project.

Secretary of Commerce Hoover, Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, members of Congress from northern and middle western States, the governors of Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin and other States, members of the Chicago Association of Commerce and other middle west commercial and manufacturers association have been invited to make the trip which will begin at Buffalo.

JUDGE HAS CURE FOR ERRING HUSBANDS; SENTENCES THEM TO WEEK OF WIFE'S DUTIES.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Magistrate John Kochendorfer of this city has begun to put into effect his doctrine, recently expounded, that the right kind of punishment for erring husbands will end marital infelicity.

Holding that husbands are to blame for seven-eighths of all domestic rows, the magistrate announced that instead of sending them to jail he would sentence them to any one of ten tasks they might choose. Then, the next convicted husband who was arraigned before him for abusing his wife was ordered to do common housework for a week, or go to the workhouse. The choices Magistrate Kochendorfer allows his prisoners follow:

Prepare the family breakfast every morning.
Buy candy and fruit for the wife and children once a week.
Stay home one night a week.
Take the family out every Sunday—to church in the morning and for a walk in the afternoon.
Start a savings bank account.
Wait on himself instead of asking the wife to wait on him.
Wash the dishes every night.

Magistrate Kochendorfer says that few men recognise the daily monotony of a woman's life in keeping a household together on small pay. The men have some variety even if only in going from their homes to their offices, but the wives are sentenced to monotonous drudgery.

"Men who abuse their wives need waking up more than they need jail," the magistrate expounded. "The average man would be cured permanently if he could bet set to the tasks to which his wife is committed and thus learn how much less attractive is her day than his."

Senate Flatly Refuses House Peace Measure.

Porter Resolution is Sent to Conference.

Merry "Free for All" and Deadlock Certain.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The Senate today flatly refused to accept the House substitute for the Knox peace resolution and sent both measures to conference. Instructions were given to the Senate managers to insist upon the Senate draft of the peace resolution and to oppose substitution of the so-called Porter measure to the last ditch.

DEADLOCK CERTAIN.

All signs point to a prolonged deadlock over the measure. The administration, it is clearly indicated, will refuse to intervene in the controversy. President Harding, it is understood, is desirous that the two houses should work out a solution to their difficulties without executive interference. The administration, according to reports at the Capitol, is in no great hurry for final adoption of the resolution and in fact would not be greatly disappointed if it were held up in conference until the European situation clears up more satisfactorily.

HEAD ON CLASH.

Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, author of the Senate resolution, and his fellow-townsman, Representative Porter, author of the House resolution, will clash head-on when the conference begins. The Senate today appointed Senator Lodge, Senator Knox, Republicans, and Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, as its conferees. The House will appoint Representative Porter, Representative Rogers of Massachusetts, Republicans, and Representative Flood of Virginia, Democrat, as its managers.

The Senate by its action today clearly indicated that it will pin all its faith in the judgment of Senator Knox, its foremost international authority, who drafted the peace resolution after long and careful study of all the legal intricacies interwoven in the declaration of peace. Senators feel confident that Senator Knox, with his wide experience as Secretary of State and Attorney-General, was better equipped to draft a resolution of such far-reaching importance than Representative Porter.

CEASELESS LITIGATION?

The Senate conferees are expected to take the position that the constitutionality of the Porter resolution may be gravely questioned and that it may throw the way open for ceaseless litigation. Senators point out that the right of Congress to repeal one of its own acts, as the Knox resolution provides, is unquestioned, but that the power of Congress to assume the functions of a treaty making body and declare the war at an end may be open to attack in the courts. They are anxious to close up all loopholes by which the United States might be kept in a purely technical state of war with Germany.

It was asserted in administration quarters today that this government has made its position clear on the mandate issues in Secretary Hughes's notes to the four principal powers and that it will not heed the invitation of the League of Nations to send a representative to the conference on this subject. President Harding and Secretary Hughes believe the mandate questions should be settled by the Supreme Council, wherein the United States is already represented by Ambassador Harvey.

ASKS FOR FACTS ON CHINA'S OPEN DOOR.

REPRESENTATIVE BRITTEN WANTS TO KNOW IF POLICY IS VIOLATED.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Representative Britten of Illinois introduced a resolution in the House today calling upon the Secretary of State for all information and data available concerning the degree to which the open-door policy in China is being directly or indirectly jeopardized. It is set forth in the preamble that Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who proclaims himself the constitutional President of China, has charged that "by devious and insidious methods, foreign machinations are tending to destroy the very existence of China as a nation."

The preamble also contains the statement that "the United States government during the war loaned large sums of money to Great Britain and Russia, a great portion of which found its way into Japan for the purchase of war supplies, and of which amount some $300,000,000 subsequently was loaned by Japan to the Chinese government at Peking."

TWO KILLED BY TRAINS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

OAKLAND, June 14.—Two men were run down here today by trains. J. E. Baxley of Tulare county was killed near the Sixteenth-street station, while Michael Brennan of South San Francisco met his death in South Berkeley.

COURT-MARTIAL FOR HAITIAN AGITATORS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Missionaries and courts-martial have been ordered for the general welfare of the people of Haiti with the approval of the Secretary of the Navy, Edwin Denby.

In separate orders today Secretary Denby approves of plans by the Federal Council of Churches for evangelization of the Haitian natives by American missionaries and directed the substitution of American military court-martial proceedings for the Haitian courts in the trial of persons accused of instigating disorders, bloodshed or rebellion, or of libeling members of the Haitian government or the American military forces in the island republic.

Proclamations have been issued in Haiti by Col. John Russell, commanding the marines in Haiti, calling upon the people of the island to respect the government and not to give heed to agitators against it and serving notice that all incendiaries will be brought to trial by military court-martial. In announcing this today Secretary Denby said that for several months in view of approaching elections, the columns of the Haitian press have been filled with speeches of an incendiary character against the American occupation and against officers engaged in enforcing the law. Haitian courts, he said, will not convict any person for libel or inciting rebellion or disorder. This has emboldened agitators "until denunciation has mounted to frenzy."

"Realizing the serious menace to the peace of Haiti contained in the situation," said Secretary Denby, "President Dartiguenave conferred a number of times with the American authorities, urging that action be taken. In response to his requests, Col. Russell, commanding officer of the American forces ashore in Haiti, laid the situation before the Navy Department, and received authorization to bring authors of slanderous, untrue and incendiary speeches or articles before an American court. It is believed that the knowledge that trial before an unprejudiced and unintimidated court awaits offenders against the laws of libel and those who advocate disorder will prove ample restraint to meet the situation, and will prevent a repetition of scurrilous, slanderous and incendiary utterances which have threatened to promote disturbances."

The authorization for an American missionary invasion of Haiti was given in a letter from Secretary Denby to Dr. E. O. Watson of the Federal Council of Churches, in which Secretary Denby expressed surprise that missionaries had not been sent to the island before.

PROBLEMS OF CREDIT UNDER DISCUSSION.

CONVENTION ALSO TALKS OVER FOREIGN TRADE AND DOMESTIC CONDITIONS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—Problems of credit, of general conditions in domestic industry and of foreign trade were discussed at the opening session here today of the twenty-sixth annual convention of the National Association of Credit Men. Credit experts, "business doctors," as one speaker called them, were present from nearly every important city in the country.

Various views regarding the return of business conditions to normal were expressed by speakers. A. P. Maxwell of the National Bank of Commerce of New York, one speaker, said recent price changes indicated a speedy return of stable conditions. Another speaker, Wallace M. Alexander, president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, declared the nation is now entering into the period of reaction and disruption that inevitably follows any great war.

Credit men as they should be were described by E. F. Reiter of Chicago. According to Mr. Reiter, they should be humane, should get away from the uncompromising attitude; should use up-to-date methods in their offices, should forget form letters and should make the credit departments of firms in reality sales departments by encouraging buyers.

Tonight the annual president's ball was held. Tomorrow Henry M. Robinson, president of the First National Bank of Los Angeles, will be the principal speaker.

Invitations to visit Seattle, Fresno, Los Angeles and other western cities on their way home was extended to the eastern delegates.

PAN-PACIFIC PRESS CONFERENCE PLANNED.

COLUMBIA (M.) June 14.—Plans for the organization of a Pan-Pacific press conference which would meet yearly and have as its object the betterment of relations between countrits bordering on the Pacific Ocean were discussed here during Jurnalism Week at the University of Missouri, May 23 to 27, by Dean Walter Williams of the School of Journalism of the University of Missouri and representative American journalists.

The conference, it is planned, will be organized during the meeting of the World Press Congress at Honolulu next October. One day of the congress has been set aside for discussion of the organization of the conference. Better relations between the United States and Japan and between other Pacific countries may be brought about, it is hoped, by better co-operation between the newspapers and journals of these countries.

Definite plans for the Pan-Pacific Press Conference are not yet ready to be made public, but it was announced that it was planned to have the conference meet yearly should its organization be effected. At these conferences the situation in the different countries represented in the conferences would be discussed, as well as their relations with other countries of the world, and an effort made to adopt an editorial and news policy which would tend toward a better feeling between the peoples of these countries.

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then you'll take another dive in that 'Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, calluses and bunions.

Get a box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire. —[Advertisement.

VIEWS DIFFER OVER HOSPITAL.

Shriners at Des Moines Meet Have Two Reports.

Present and Past Potentate on Opposite Sides.

Business of City Forgotten in Merrymaking.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DES MOINES, Jun 14.—The Imperial Council, Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, representing 500,000 Shriners of North America, held its first session here today and disposed of routine reports of standing committees. Discussion of major questions was put over until tomorrow.

The hospital committee, headed by Sam P. Cockran of Hella Temple, Dallas, Tex., in its report recommended that the institution for the care of crippled children be a centralized one and located at St. Louis. A minority report, by John Morrison of Kismet Temple, Brooklyn, objected to the central hospital plan. The Morrison report urged that one-half of the fund available be distributed among hospitals already established throughout the country, and that the other half be held for disposition at the 1922 meeting.

The majority report stated that the Shrine had raised $914,598 to be used for the proposed hospital.

POTENTATES TAKE SIDES.

Imperial Potentate Ellis L. Garretson of Tacoma, Wash., is opposing the central hospital plan, while Past Imperial Potentate W. Freeland Kendrick of Philadelphia is supporting the majority report. Under a special order of business, the hospitalization program will come up for discussion at 2 p.m. tomorrow afternoon, it was announced.

The big event on today's program was the parade of all uniformed organizations. Ten thousand uniformed Shriners, representing more than fifty temples of North America, took part.

Shortly after 11 o'clock Des Moines offices found that stenographers and typists had been drafted into the Shrine carnival, and many places of business were closed by their proprietors who launched into the celebration for the balance of the day.

An hour's driving rain offered no obstacle to the merrymakers, who immediately donned bathing suits and old clothes and reappeared prepared for sunshine or storm.

Reinstatement of Girl Student Demand of Suit.

NORRISTOWN (Pa.) June 14.—The expulsion of a girl from Bryn Mawr College after it was alleged she had been suspected of thefts from other students, was revealed today with the filing of a suit in the Montgomery county court here.

The young woman is Miss Marjorie Barker of Michigan City, Ind. The action was taken by her mother in the form of an application for a writ of mandamus against the college and its president, Miss M. Carey Thomas, demanding the reinstatement of Miss Barker as a student with "all her rights and privileges." The alleged expulsion occurred at the Easter vacation.

Three Divisions for Ninth Army Corps Reserves.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—Col. Erneste V. Smith, United States Infantry, was relieved today of his detail with the general recruiting service here and appointed to a board of officers named to organize the three divisions of national reserves allocated to the Ninth Army Corps area.

The reserve is being organized to meet all military duties in excess of those undertaken by the Regular Army and the National Guard. It will be made up largely of men with previous military training and will have a specialized enlisted personnel, such as cooks, mechanics, bakers and other distinct vocations.

Many Counties File Anti-Dry Law Petitions.

SACRAMENTO, June 14.—Referendum petitions containing 7383 names to hold up the Wright Prohibition Enforcement Act passed by the last Legislature until the November, 1922, election, have been filed to date with Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan. The total number of signatures required is 34,434, and the final date for filing is July 27.

A petition from Sacramento county containing 2374 verified signatures was among those filed with Jordan today. Other counties that have filed petitions follow:

Tehama, 37; Alameda, 2567; Monterey, 142; Napa, 973; Mendocino, 329; Glenn, 108; San Benito, 111; Lassen, 77; San Luis Obispo, 501, and Santa Cruz, 174.

Citizen Workers Get Preference at Navy Yards.

VALLEJO, June 14.—An order that all aliens at the Mare Island Navy Yard be discharged before citizen workers are let out, when such moves become necessary, was received by the commandant at the yard today from Secretary Denby.

Before the declaration of war no aliens were employed at the yard, but thereafter a number of Chinese and other non-citizens were taken on. The Navy Department was asked by interested parties to let the aliens go and employ citizens' help. Today's order resulted.

ONE ROAD DEFERS ITS DIVIDEND; ONE PAYS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, June 14.—At a meeting this morning the directors of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha Railroad decided to defer action on dividends of both the preferred and common stock for the first half of the year until the regular meeting in September. This action was taken, it was stated officially, pending the adjustment of accounts with the government. Six months ago semiannual dividends of 3½ per cent on the preferred and 2½ per cent on the common were declared.

The Chicago and Northwestern directors met today and declared the regular semiannual dividend of 2½ per cent on the common stock and of 3½ per cent on the preferred, both payable July 15 to stock of record June 23. In June, last year, the rate on the preferred stock of this company was reduced from 8 per cent to 7 per cent and the common from 7 per cent to 5 per cent.

NOTED BANDIT CAUGHT.

[BY A. P. CORRESPONDENCE.]

PUEBLA (Mex.) May 31.—Tacho Placido, a bandit with more than 100 personal assassinations and many other crimes, has been captured in the mountains above Puebla and has been brought here for trial. Placido has never been a rebel against the Federal government, but is alleged to have pursued a general marauding career.

WASHINGTON NEWS IN BRIEF.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Roy A. Haynes, new Prohibition Commissioner, said regulations for the medical prescription of beer will be drafted, but withheld if Congress intends soon to pass the new Volstead bill prohibiting use of beer for medicinal purposes.

Refusal of the Senate today to accept the Porter peace resolution as a substitute for the Knox resolution sent both measures to conference with all signs pointing to a prolonged deadlock, which situation the administration is reported to regard with equanimity.

An agreement was reached in the Senate for a final vote on the meat-packer control bill on Thursday.

The coal industry has begun a drive against the Frelinghuysen coal stabilization bills and will seek to have them sent back to the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce by the Senate.

Atty.-Gen. Daugherty, with the approval of President Harding, has begun an inquiry into large war contracts for the purpose of clearing up numerous charges against contractors.

MILLIONS COUNTED BY SPEED EXPERTS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, June 14.—Four of the speediest and most expert money handlers in the United States have been put at work in the capacious vaults of the New York Assay Office to count all currency, gold bars and other assets now under seal, preparatory to the passing of control of the office from Verne M. Bovie, the retiring superintendent, to Isaac H. Smith, recently appointed his successor by President Harding.

More gold is stored in the vaults of the local Assay Office than in any other single place in the world and the amount at present is understood to exceed $1,250,000,000, most of which is in the form of bars, which are corded ceiling high in the various chambers of the new steel treasure magazine. The largest part of the gold represents metal brought in during the war from France and England.

Half of the gold was counted on its arrival here and bears the seals of the Bank of England, Bank of France, and the United States Treasury. This portion of the treasure store will be transferred without another count to the custody of the new superintendent, who will accept the count indicated on the seals.

F. H. Chaffin, chief clerk of the Philadelphia mint, L. T. Ziegler and S. A. Schwartz of Washington, and M. S. Webster of the California mint, are the experts making the count and so far they have handled approximately $1,000,000,000 in gold on which the count has been found to tally exactly with the records. Special representatives of Mr. Bovie and Mr. Smith are assisting in the count, which is expected to take at least a month. The currency will be counted first. The gold metal will be counted by what are called "melts" each "melt" involving about $125,000 of gold, which is weighed and checked as to a fineness.

AMERICAN YEOMEN RE-ELECT OFFICERS.

DENVER, June 14.—Re-election of all officers was the principal business of the opening session of the sixth quadrennial conclave of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen here today. Selection of the next convention city will be made probably Friday. St. Paul, Milwaukee and Kansas City want the convention.

The officers are: George N. Frink, grand foreman, Des Moines, Iowa; W. E. Davey, chief correspondent, Des Moines; Fred Gilbert, grand master of ceremonies, Ottumwa, Iowa; Ward F. Senn, grand master of accounts, Minneapolis. Directors: W. R. Shirley, Muskogee, Okla.; Mark McKee, Detroit; C. L. Vrooman, Kansas City; H. W. Pitkin, Sioux City, Iowa; S. E. Wilson, Hot Springs, S. D.

One of the most important matters to come before the conclave will be the choice of a site for the new $1,000,000 national home and hospital for members of the order.

WEALTHY CHICAGO REALTY MAN WEDS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 14.—Charles Warren Leland, wealthy Chicago real estate man, is married again. His bride is Mrs. Marjorie Whiting Young.

News of the wedding, which took place May 28, a year and four days after Mr Leland's divorce, reached Chicago yesterday in a telegram from Asheville, N. C., where the ceremony took place.

Mrs. Young is the divorced wife of Charles S. Young, now connected with an Omaha newspaper.

Mr. Leland was divorced by Mrs. May L. Leland, with whom she had lived for 14 years, on charges of desertion.

FALSE PRETENSES CHARGED TO PAIR.

STOCKTON, June 14.—Louis C. Simmel, president, and Lloyd Greppin, a member of the bankrupt San Joaquin Valley Packing Company of Lodi, have been indicted by the San Joaquin county grand jury on a charge of obtaining $6346.77 from the local branch of the Sacramento-San Joaquin Bank under false pretenses.

The bank accepted the paper and cashed it, but when it became due several months later it was informed from Los Angeles that Louis Simmel & Co. had never completed the transaction.

ALLEGED EMBEZZLER IS NOW AT HONOLULU.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

HONOLULU (T. H.) June 14.—Lester J. Bradshaw, alleged to have embezzled funds from a Richmond (Cal.) bank where he was employed, arrived here today from Sydney, Australia, aboard the steamer Ventura, in custody of Sheriff Veale of Contra Costa county.

Bradshaw said that his arrest was a "frame up," and that he did not get the money.

SECRETARY ADDRESSES THE GRADUATING CLASS AT RUTGERS.

NEW BRUNSWICK, June 14.—A fair chance for the administration in attempting to solve national problems, was asked by Secretary of War Weeks in an address today at the annual commencement dinner at Rutgers College. He received the honorary degree of doctor of laws.

"I want to plead with 'you,'" he said, "to give this administration a fair opportunity to work out a cure for the abnormal conditions which now exist. If the administration does not succeed, then you may criticise its members and if you please, drive them from public life, but first you must give them a fair chance.

"We cannot recover from a distemper, either as individuals or as a nation, in a short time. It takes time and patience to overcome this difficulty. We must get ourselves as individuals into a normal frame of mind.

"Don't be unduly critical. Be as helpful as you can, and I am confident that the return to normal will not be long delayed."

LONE BANDIT ROBS BANK IN ARIZONA.

BISBEE (Ariz.) June 14.—Riding into San Simon, a small town eighty miles northeast of here, on horseback, a lone bandit today held up A. E. Nelson, cashier of the San Simon Valley Bank, swept all the money in sight into his pockets, and then rode out of town.

Several citizens pursued and engaged the bandit about two miles east of the town. The bandit escaped into the brush. Two posses were reported to be in pursuit.

LEAD MINE FOUND IN HEART OF CITY.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

DUBUQUE (Ia.) June 14.—What is believed to be the most valuable strike in the history of the lead mining days of Dubuque was made by Val Kles in the old Wilde property in the heart of the city today, when he announced the opening of a vein forty feet in depth in a 160-foot shaft.

On surface indications the vein is valued at from $40,000 to $50,000. The Wilde mine operations are the first in this vinicitay for many years.

Los Angeles Banker Points Way to Prosperity; Business News.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

W. W. Woods, vice-president of the First National Bank, is attending the State convention of the Idaho Bankers' Association now in session at Boise, and yesterday was invited to speak on "The Promise of the Pacific."

The Los Angeles banker told his hosts that in this period of readjustment, falling prices and retrenchment he desired to bring them a word of encouragement, and to give them a formula given him years ago by one of the best bankers in America. "It is this," said Mr. Woods: "A successful banker will generally find it to his advantage to be a pessimist when the public is optimistic and an optimist when the business world is in the midst of difficulties."

DON'T "BEAR" AMERICA.

In explanation he stated that the careful banker is one who always takes into consideration the opposite swing of the business pendulum. In good times he is continuously guarding himself from the approach of bad and in hard times prepares himself to take advantage of the first change for the better.

"I am before you today," he continued, "not to dwell on present difficulties, but to point out some of the brighter things which the future holds, this because in the long run no institution or individual ever made any continuous success through playing the bear side of the market in so far as America itself is concerned.

"Since the war we in the United States face a new position in the recreated world, and, in spite of kaleidoscopic changes in our immediate problems, in spite of temporary difficulties, and irritations, the future holds for us possibilities never before known or dreamed of.

THE STAR OF EMPIRE.

"The time is coming, and is not far off, when the cattle of Idaho will move to stock yards at Pacific Coast ports in almost as great quantities as now move to Chicago and to Omaha.

"Today cattle and calves in thirty-six-foot-seven-inch cars move to Chicago from Boise by way of the Union Pacific and the Chicago Northwestern to Chicago at $317.20, while the rate to Los Angeles is $262.20. For sheep and goats in double-deck cars the rate to Chicago is $316.25, to Los Angeles $262.20. Hogs in single-deck cars move to Chicago stock yards for $295.80. They would move to Los Angeles for $212.90. Probably even better rates exist between Boise and Seattle because the short haul to the Pacific lies in that direction. The balance favors the Pacific and in the end your products will move that way.

"The Pacific Coast is alive to its opportunities and is preparing to spend millions upon millions in developing the forces necessary to turn the wheels of industry and to build up the markets for your products.

"We in Southern California are hoping in the future to be able to offer as good a market for Idaho products as can be offered by San Francisco, because Idaho goods must be routed into Ogden for distribution either to San Francisco or to Los Angeles and the distance from the Ogden gateway to these two points is practically the same.

"It is, however, not proper for us to expect the same rate that should be given to Portland and Seattle because the short haul lies that way.

CHEAP POWER.

"All that we can expect is that hydroelectric power developed in the California mountains and the petroluem brought from California fields will offer us a more inexpensive means for the turning of your raw materials into manufactured products, for we have found that cheap power, whether it be created from hydroelectric plants or from our oil supply, is the basis of industrial development, and it is because of this power and of this petroleum that there are more industries in California today than in other Western States.

"If you can help us with our development, if we can help you with yours—both will be advantageous, and we in this great western half of the continent will in time find ourselves in a commanding position as far as foreign trade, industrial development and internal commerce are concerned. More and more California expects to compete with the East for what you have to offer, and more and more our buyers will be here to carry on that competition.

"This way lies prosperity for both Idaho and California and even in the time of our present difficulties I think we can see a brilliant daylight ahead."

HOME FINANCING.

Bond & Goodwin & Tucker, Inc., the underwriters of the new $3,500,000 Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation, General and Refunding Mortgage 7 per cent bonds, state that the first day's offering of these bonds was most satisfactory. The bonds are finding a ready and active market with a large amount of bonds placed yesterday by local syndicate members. The proceeds of this issue are to provide for betterments and additions to the plant and equipment of this corporation, which, together with the additions provided for through the recent sale of $2,500,000 of series "A" bonds, will materially increase the corporation's earning power.

The Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation has been under the same management for thirty-one years and has paid dividends for twenty-seven consecutive years. The large and continuous increase of population in the territory served this corporation makes it necessary at this time to provide for a large program of additions and betterments. Its property is conservatively valued at over $32,000,000, including the additions to be provided for through the sale of this $3,500,000 general and refunding mortgage 7 per cent bonds, series "B." Secured by this property the corporation's funded debt, including this issue, amounts to only $14,565,500, or a ratio of debt to property value of approximately only 45 per cent.

The underwriters have organized a strong local selling syndicate which includes the following: Bond & Goodwin & Tucker, Inc., Blyth, Witter & Co., Drake, Riley & Thomas, Security Trust and Savings Bank, Stevens, Page & Sterling, E. H. Rollins & Sons, Frick, Martin & Co., National City Company, William R. Staats Company, Banks, Huntley & Co., Bank of Italy, California Company, California Bank, Guaranty Trust and Savings Bank, Blair & Co., Girvin & Miller, R. H. Moulton & Co., Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank, Ryone & Co., Hunter, Dulin & Co. and Frank & Lewis.

THE GIANT ENERGY.

The National City Company has just issued an exceedingly interesting addition to its library; a well-printed and illustrated booklet, "The Giant Energy, Electricity." The book covers in a nontechnical way one of the most important phases of the industrial development of the country and explains and applies the growth of the giant energy during the past fifteen years. The publication so thoroughly intrigues the interest of the lay reader that it is hard to relinquish until the last page is read. The book is literally an electrical production, all of the various stages, typesetting, illustrations, electrotypes, printing, folding, binding and cutting, being done on machines operated by the giant energy of which it treats.

NEW BOND DEPARTMENT.

To meet the investment needs of its customers the Citizens' Trust and Savings Bank has established in its new banking rooms at 736 South Hill street a bond department, which, the bank claims, is equipped to handle every phase of the bond business.

The department will offer to investors only such new issues as are approved by the finance committee as an investment for the bank itself. California municipal tax exempt bonds are to be made a specialty, together with corporation and foreign government bonds which have a listed eastern market.

United States government bonds will be bought and sold outright at current market prices. The bank will not act as a broker in any capacity, and no commission will be charged on any transaction.

The new department will operate in close co-operation with the bond department of the Citizens' National Bank, with which there is affiliation.

SEIBERLING FINANCING.

A report from Akron yesterday was to the effect that an arrangement has been entered into by F. A. Seiberling, former president of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, and various of his creditors, whereby a corporation to be known as the Prudential Securities and Realty Company will assume trusteeship over Mr. Seiberling's personal assets and liabilities and manage his property, at least temporarily.

BANK CLEARINGS.

Los Angeles bank clearings took a decided spurt yesterday when a total of $16,084,915 was registered. This is an increase of $2,197,620.52 over the corresponding date in 1920 when prices were almost at their peak, and the daily balances running much heavier in consequence.

BIG NEW ISSUE COMING.

An issue of $3,000,000 twenty-year first mortgage bonds is to be offered shortly to the investing public by a group of well-known investment banking houses, it is understood. The bonds will be issued at 5 per cent, but will yield slightly more than that owing to the fact that they will be sold below par.

DAY AND NIGHT BANKING.

There was no change in the status of the day and night banking war yesterday, and it looks as though the matter would go forward to its next logical stage.

Under the ruling of the Clearing-house Association all banks, beginning July 1 must close their doors at 3 p.m. every day except Saturday, when noon ends the business day.

There is no indication that the order will be obeyed for the Heilman interests are positive in their assertion that no change will be made in the policy of their banks, which is to operate at night.

Orra E. Monnette is on record as saying that if any other bank remains open the Citizens' Trust and Savings Bank will do likewise, and it is an open secret that if the Citizens' throws aways its key half a dozen other institutions will disregard the 3 o'clock rule and extend their service through the evening hours. Further action of the association will be awaited with interest.

SCHOOL BONDS.

The city of Nogales, Ariz., has authorized a $60,000 school bond issue. Only thirty votes were cast in the election, but they were all favorable.

LOEWS INCORPORATED.

The following statement was issued yesterday by Loews Incorporated, according to Dow Jones:

On account of stringency of money market, it has been difficult to obtain satisfactory mortgage on properties in course of construction and company has been obliged to arrange temporary financing therefor.

In order to conserve and to maintain financial position of company, the board has decided that it is for the best interest to use its earnings in the business and has voted to defer dividend for the present.

LOS ANGELES STOCKS.

There was very little of determinative value in the market yesterday.

CREDIT MEN IN SESSION.

New Basis for Judgment Must be Adopted, Convention is Told.

A new basis of credit judgment must be adopted by credit men as a result of the lessons taught by the present business reaction, it was declared yesterday by A. F. Maxwell, second vice-president of the National Bank of Commerce in New York, speaking at the annual convention of the National Association of Credit Men in San Francisco. The unprecedented drop in prices, and the widespread cancellation of orders due to the great consumers' strike, have shown, he said, that commitments for supplies and "contingent assets" involved in the commodity values of inventories must be given equal weight with statements of condition in judging the financial position of a business.

"The year 1920 has brought a striking revelation of the necessity to amilify also our knowledge on the asset side of a concern's total position," he said. "It has awakened us to the realization that we cannot content ourselves, if we are to have a sound basis of credit judgment, with a knowledge of the state of the assets merely as shown in the face of the statements of condition. Just as we must give full consideration to contingent liabilities, so we must give consideration to contingent assets.

CONTINGENT ASSETS.

"By contingent assets I mean those the effect of which on the condition of a business is dependent upon broad factors outside the normal sphere of direct financial management of the individual concern itself. Thus the 1920-21 price collapse and the great consumers' strike produced startling changes in assets throughout business. A large part of assets, which were absolutely good at face value under anything like normal conditions, rapidly depreciated or even disappeared as a result of these causes through the shrinkage of inventories and the cancellation of orders.

"We have also learned the necessity of giving more attention to a concern's commitments, as elements of liability akin to contingent liabilities and, under certain conditions, equal to direct liability in importance. For example, a manufacturing concern may have committed itself to the purchase of a large volume of raw materials, on the strength of contracts from its customers to take the resulting finished product. When the recession in buying by the general public stopped the movement of the finished product many of the manufacturer's customers canceled orders. In most cases the manufacturer could not cancel if he would, and these commitments for raw materials contracted for at high prices, without the offset of his own customers' commitments to him developed into a very definite liability.

CREDIT RISKS.

"A credit risk, in the last analysis, is not based merely on the apparent current condition of a concern as shown in the balance sheet, or even on its balance sheet plus a full knowledge of the concern's contingent liabilities. And while a going business must cover sales contracts by corresponding purchases to avoid the danger of speculation, we realize more fully that to these factors must be added full consideration of all possible changes that may occur in assets in respect to the commodity values represented there and also in respect to the concern's orders on its books, the standing and responsibility of its customers, and the related contingencies involved in its own commitments.

"Credit science, if it is to perform its highest function in promoting business stability, must be farsighted and guard against the future. Therefore, the full formula of statistical credit judgment must be: Balance sheet, plus contingent liabilities, plus contingent assets, plus commitments. From the credit man's point of view the completion of this formula is the outstanding characteristic of the 1920-21 business crisis."

PIT LONGS UNLOADING IN CHICAGO.

Break in Cash Wheat Premiums Starts Late Season Selling.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 14.—The break in cash wheat premiums started selling later in the season, but the break was due largely to unloading by pit longs who had bought the wheat earlier on black rust reports purporting to come from Elk Point, S. D. Last prices were 2 to 4½ cents lower. Corn was 1¾ to 2¼ cents lower and oats declined 1 to 1¼ cents lower. Rye was 2¼ to 4½ cents lower, and barley ¼ cent off. Pork was unchanged; lard 5 to 7½ cents lower and ribs 2½ cents lower to 2½ cents higher. Local cash sales were 15,000 bushels of wheat, 72,000 bushels of corn, including 47,000 bushels to exporters; 128,000 bushels of oats, and 11,000 bushels of barley. Seaboard reported that exporters had exchanged 1,500,000 bushels of futures for the cash wheat.

PREMIUMS LOWER.

Wheat premiums were 3 to 6 cents lower than yesterday's close and 9 to 13 cents off from yesterday's best point. Cash corn and oats discounts were unchanged. Vessel room for 60,000 bushels of corn to Montreal was chartered. Milwaukee chartered vessel room for 2400 bushels of corn and oats to Buffalo, and 200,000 bushels of corn to Goodrich. No. 2 mixed corn was offered at 9 cents over July and No. 2 yellow at 9¼ cents over, c.i.f. Montreal to exporters, but the best bid was around 8¾ cents premium.

Wheat was weak early, but later the market acted a little bit oversold and a partial recovery was noted. There was less confidence in the bull camp this morning. The fact that the cash wheat premiums are crumbling away, that exporters are not doing any business because of the recent high prices, and that the Southwest farmer is hauling old wheat to market in large quantities all combined to undermine the confidence of the longs, added to the above factors the weather map this morning showed some relief from the recent heat wave and this also was regarded as favorable for filling the new crops. As a result there was a rush to sell at the opening while the buying power was limited.

SURPLUS ABSORBED.

Later a forecast for generally unsettled weather, together with further reports of black rust infection of wheat in Nebraska, induced enough buying to absorb the surplus offerings and make the newly developed short interest uneasy. The improvement of wheat conditions of moderate proportions, receipts being estimated at 40 cars.

Corn had a break at the start. It is more than evident that the short interest has been trimmed down and as a result there was less buying power in the market. Selling on the other hand, was fairly general, based on the continued big receipts, favorable weather and the slow cash demand. On the break buying against indemnities and covering by shorts to secure profits caused some reaction from the low point. Local receipts were estimated at 550 cars. Liverpool spot corn closed 1d lower, futures 1¼d lower and Antwerp ¼ franc lower. Export bids were out of line.

OATS ARE EASY.

Weakness was displayed in oats. The break in other grains tended to bring about an unloading process by local longs and this, with additional selling by commission houses, forced a good decline. Support was given the market on the break; a good many resting orders to buy being executed, especially in the July delivery. Local receipts were smaller, but nevertheless fairly large, the estimate being placed at 110 cars. The domestic shipping demand over night showed up somewhat. Country offerings to arrive remain light. Crop advices were more optimistic. Foreign markets were unchanged.

Rye was weak. Cash No. 2 sold at $1.29¼ to $1.31½, and No. 3 at $1.28 to $1.29½. Receipts were 4 cars.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, June 14.—The New York cotton market opened steady at an advance of 5 to 10 points, influenced by cables from Liverpool which were somewhat better than had been expected, further complaints about boll weevil, and a stronger tone to foreign exchange. There was buying by Wall street and the trade, the latter principally in July and October and also scattered covering.

On dry weather in the eastern belt and reports that a good many contracts liquidated recently had been purchased by the trade, prices went 14 to 19 points net higher.

Make Hay While the Sun Shines

A safe, gilt-edged income is cheaper today than in many years. But this condition may change without a great deal of warning.

Already the Bank of England has lowered its discount rate from 7 to 6½ per cent, and the latest report of our own Federal Reserve System shows the highest reserve ratio since 1918.

Many shrewd observers read in these significant signs a pronounced tendency toward lower interest rates and higher prices for investment securities.

Now, of all times, is the time to buy good bonds.

Let us aid you with our broad facilities for making safe investments.

In every case the equity behind these Good Bonds is adequate. In every case they are securities of an established, "going"—and growing—concern. In every case they combine safety and large yield. In every case they represent underwritings in which Blyth, Witter & Co. shared at first hand, so our own direct basic investigation is behind our recommendation.

Babbitt Bros. Lands, Inc., First Mortgage Serial 8% Gold Bonds—Maturities 1921 to 1934

More than $3,000,000 in real property secured these bonds, added to which is the capital stock of a Trading Company doing an annual business of over $5,000,000. They are guaranteed unconditionally by men worth over $1,500,000; and guaranteed leases of the properties bring $150,000 yearly rental—more than enough to meet bond interest and principal payments. If Your Plant Should Burn Tonight

Do you know just how much money it would take to replace building and contents? You ought to. For that is the amount you are entitled to recover under your insurance policy or policies.

It is much easier to determine the replacement value of your establishment before a fire than afterward.

We Keep Your Property Appraised

As INSURANCE BROKERS, we make complete and systematic appraisement of your insured plant and its contents to keep its replacement or recoverable value up to date. An insurance policy placed by us costs no more than it would elsewhere—our protective service to policyholders is available without additional cost.

O.K. C.J.J.

We study your insurance needs and select the policy or policies that exactly fit those needs. We serve the insured.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, June 14.—Stocks today recovered somewhat from their prolonged depression, various speculative favorites extending yesterday's rally by one to three points. Equipments, rubbers, food specialties and some rails, however, lost 2 to 3 points. Sales 765,000 shares.

The market's unsettled tone was laid to the tenuous position of the short interest.

Sentiment was favorably influenced by retention of several important railroad and industrial dividends. Ease of call money was another sentimental factor, the rate dropping from 6 to 5½ per cent for the time in more than two months.

On the other hand, postponement of action on the common and preferred shares of Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha and conflicting rumors regarding prospective dividends on Northern Pacific, Great Northern and New York Central contributed to the uneven movement of rails.

Activity was confined to the final hour when an abrupt reaction in Mexican Petroleum extending to 5 points, induced profit taking elsewhere and detracted from the strength of the general list.

All foreign exchanges improved materially. Sterling rose 2½ cents above yesterday and there was a pronounced improvement in Dutch, Swiss, Italian and Spanish rates.

German and Austrian remittances were firm.

Convertible railway bonds were aided by the strength of some high grade stocks, notably Pacifics and Grangers. Liberty issues were mixed, as were also most of the internal flotations. Total sales, par value, $11,675,000.

BRECKENRIDGE SYNDICATE PLAN

Monthly dividends paid to California investors in Stevens County, Texas, by oil syndicates organized under the Breckenridge Plan, according to the estimate of the Breckenridge Chamber of Commerce.

Nick J. Lewis and George S. Arderson, successful promoters of the famous Y.M.C.A. and Block 41 Syndicates, both have paid cash dividends since last November for 1000 Block 41, 440% to each $100 unit holder, invite you to join them in their third venture, which we believe will be their biggest money maker. The KENTUCK OIL SYNDICATE now drilling on their 40-acre lease, have contracted for 4 wells. Organized for 2000 giving fourteen-sixteenths of all the oil the syndicate receives from the 4 wells. A $100 unit in the Syndicate gives the owner 1 bbl. out of every 1500 the syndicate receives from the 4 wells.

WE HAVE AND OFFER:

11 Units in Hallowell Oil Syndicate	$100 each
1 Units in H. & S. Oil Syndicate	$100 each
1 Units in Foster's Kentuck Syndicate	$100 each

KENTUCK'S Two Wells Being Sold in Big Blocks

Many Experienced Oil Men Are Investing Heavily in KENTUCK Oil Syndicate Because of the Rich Monthly Profits Its Neighbors Are Paying.

KENTUCK Oil Syndicate's twenty acres is in the very heart of the tremendous Northeast Breckenridge extension. Their two drilling wells are only 1070 feet in measured paces from the 4200-bbl. Kentucky Gusher, the latest sensation of wonderful Breckenridge, producing today 14% of the entire oil output of the United States—over 1300 producing wells, less than 5% dry holes—$1,000,000 monthly in dividends to Pacific Coast investors—that's Breckenridge!

KENTUCK, the Marvel Oil Offering of Today!

$ 200 buys two units and one barrel out of every 750
$ 300 buys three units and one barrel out of every 500
$ 500 buys five units and one barrel out of every 300
$1000 buys ten units and one barrel out of every 150
$5000 buys fifty units and one barrel out of every 30

In the Last Year Breckenridge Oil Syndicates Have Paid More in Dividends Than Any Other Oil Section in the World!

That's the reason that people who know oil best are most eager to buy KENTUCK Oil Syndicate Units—because they know they'll get a square, fair deal—that they'll get their share of all the oil production of two drilling wells surrounded on all sides by rich producers and operators.

Other Breckenridge Syndicates Have Paid $233 Monthly on $100

Fourteen Breckenridge Syndicates with only 1 well each have established this record. KENTUCK, with more acreage and 2 wells, should do at least as well. KENTUCK'S two drilling wells are now down over 2100 feet. The rich oil sands are at 3100 feet.

Only 1500 units will share in the big promised production from KENTUCK'S two wells. Twenty days ago, 750 of these units were offered for sale. Today less than 300 remain unsold. Fred B. Foster & Co. have shown their faith in their own venture by absorbing the other half of the syndicate.

Terms on all purchases of $300 or over. Monthly dividends beginning 45 days after we complete our first producing well. That's the Foster Plan.

HEAVY ARRIVALS CAUSE WEAKER TONE.

CANTALOUPES, TOMATOES AND PEACHES AGAIN DECLINE; CHERRIES HIGHER.

The local produce market continued weak yesterday for some of the leading lines of fruits and vegetables, owing to continued heavy arrivals from the country. Demand and movement were active, however, and most of the stocks of fancy quality moved readily during the early part of the session. Cantaloupes again dropped, owing to heavy shipments from the Imperial Valley. Many crates showed a decline of about 10 cents per crate, while the flats were 5 to 10 cents below the level of the preceding day. The market was also weaker for peaches, which continue to arrive in liberal quantities, and the best stock was ruling from 10 to 25 cents per lug lower, with green stock selling as low as 75 cents to $1 per lug. Tomatoes slumped 40 to 50 cents per box for the fancy ripe offerings, with the poorer grades moving slowly at $1.25 per lug, a decline of about 25 cents. Watermelons again declined half a cent per pound, most of the offerings moving at 2½ to 3 cents per pound.

Asparagus advanced sharply on account of the scarcity of good stock, and the fancy offerings were bringing from 16 to 18 cents per pound, as compared with 6 to 12 cents of the preceding day. Cherries were also firmer, the white varieties showing a gain of about 3 cents per pound, while the Black Tartarians and the Republicans moved up 2 cents. The demand for cucumbers was slow, but the market held firm for this commodity, and prices were practically unchanged. The movement of new potatoes in the shipping market is increasing, and prices are holding steady at $1.75 per hundred in carlots, f.o.b., usual terms.

DAILY MARKET REPORT.

TRACK BARLEY IS $1.25 PER TON LOWER.

While barley futures held firm throughout the session on the local grain exchange yesterday, the near-by shipments slumped sharply during the call. Sunset was lacking, and there was very little interest shown by traders in any of the deliveries. The track article took a slump of 25 cents per ton during the day, the two-day article was 75 cents lower, and twenty-day barley showed a decline of 50 cents. In the future months June barley dropped 25 cents per ton, but the July and December shipments held firm and practically unchanged. The only sale of barley consisted of 100 tons of the July shipment at $1.17½. A car of eastern kafir in bulk brought $1.81½.

FINANCIAL AND TRADE REVIEW.

Most of the trading was in small lots and without price fluctuation outside of a narrow margin. Volume was light. Mines were weak and oils and industrials at approximately the level established Monday.

TICKER TICKS.

New York has a report that directors of the California Petroleum Company have decided not to pay a dividend on the common stock for the present in view of the unsettled conditions in the industry.

The Standard Oil Company of New York announces a reduction of 1¼ cents per gallon in the price of gasoline, and 1 cent per gallon for kerosene.

Famous Players-Lasky declared a regular quarterly dividend of $2 on preferred payable August 1 to stockholders of record July 15.

Thomas W. Lamont of J. P. Morgan & Co., in an address, declares that conditions abroad are brighter today than they have been at any time in the last two years.

Average price of twenty industrials 70.03, up .33. Twenty rails, 68.91, off .08.

ALFALFA MARKET.

The market letter of the Alfalfa Growers of California, issued yesterday, says that receipts of alfalfa hay during the week continued light for this time of the year. Prices remained firm, especially for the better grades. Offerings for forward shipment of these grades are also light, so that our sales of round lots during the week consisted largely of hay spoiled by the rains, to be used as fertilizer in the orange districts; prices paid for these lots were from $14 to $15 per ton, delivered.

The period of the heavy movement of the alfalfa crop, which is also the period during which dealers and users accumulate reserve supplies for fall and winter, will this year undoubtedly be shorter than usual. As far as the year's supply of first-class hay is concerned, this will probably also be short as it will have to come practically altogether from the remaining cuttings.

Grain hay is in strong demand, especially in the southern part of the State, where the production this year is very deficient, owing to unfavorable weather conditions.

General business and financial conditions of the country are still far from satisfactory, but they are comparatively better, here than in the East, and the recovery, while slow, is also better sustained out here. The improvement will, without doubt, gain in momentum if the efforts to make available adequate credit facilities for the moving of the crops of the country are successful; prospects in this respect are now fairly encouraging.

There were 620 tons received on the Los Angeles tracks the week ended June 11, with 140 tons held over.

Prices in the producing centers are as follows: Hemet and Perris, $20, at ranch; Chino, $21; Antelope Valley, $16.50; Mojave River Valley, $20; San Joaquin Valley, $17.

HUNTINGTON MIDWAY @ 9½c

We believe this stock has started on an advance to high figures.

CALIFORNIA DRIED FRUIT.

SCOUTS TO HAVE BAND.

PASADENA, June 14.—Pasadena Boy Scouts are to have a military band. Twenty-four musicians among the local Scout troops have already been signed for the organization and William C. Vaughan, a bandmaster and former scoutmaster of Santa Anita, has been engaged as leader and instructor.

IN ARIZONA.

PHOENIX.—A deed has passed to the great Marinette tract of land, east and south of the Agua Fria River on the Santa Fe Railroad, sixteen miles northwest of Phoenix. The deal, involving about $1,000,000 was made more than a year ago between R. P. Davie, owner of the tract, and the Southwest Cotton Company, the local subsidiary of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company. The transfer includes the land, an extension of the Arizona Canal, a canal from the Agua Fria and a very complete battery of pumping and power plants, electrically coupled.

GLENDALE.—Lafayette Myers, former president of the Glendale State Bank, will have preliminary examination, June 21, on a charge of forgery of the name of W. Abbott, on a note of $534.92 dated Feb. 26, 1919. Abbott alleges the instrument was not signed by him. Myers makes denial of the claims that the note was given the Glendale Bank by Abbott to cover an overdraft. The bank now is in the hands of a receiver and there has been investigation of its operations, covering a long period of years. County Attorney R. E. L. Shepherd states that other prosecutions will follow.

PHOENIX.—A mortgage covering all of the property recently transferred by the Southwest Cotton Company to its holding company, the Valley Ranch Company, in the reorganization of the Southwest Cotton Company, was filed in the County Recorder's office by L. J. Rice of Los Angeles. The mortgage is given to the Security Trust and Savings Bank Company as trustee to secure 1120 first mortgage 8 per cent serial bonds issued by the Valley Ranch Company as the first bonded indebtedness of the company, amounting approximately to $1,000,000. The indebtedness was created by the board of directors of the Valley Ranch Company on May 27 at a meeting.

NEW DUTCH COLONIAL, FULLY 2-STORY.

Large lot, 50x171, filled with growing peas, beans, potatoes, luscious fruits; 50 chickens. Only 5 minutes' walk to new L. A. High School. I have an opportunity to buy a well established hotel at a great bargain if I can make the deal this week, so I must sell my practically new house, built by my wife and me, at almost 50c on the $1.00, for $9500. Full two-story, new Dutch colonial. Double garage. Abundance of flowers, roses and beautiful lawn. Lot well worth $4500, and you could not, even at the present reduced prices, build the house for less than $12,000, making a total of $16,500 real value all for $9500, and only $2500 cash required and the small payment of $100 a month. Don't delay. There is no property to compare with this in the Wilshire district being offered for less than $15,000. Phone immediately Wilshire 4475. Or better, come at once to 315 S. NEW BUNGALOW, NEVER OCCUPIED, 2

WHY SHOULDN'T HE?

Fred R. Johnson, one of the Indiana State public service commissioners, is a Jeffersonian Democrat, and is, in fact, quite democratic in his personal habits. When he drives along the street, way out in the north part of the city, where he lives, and sees some one waiting for a street car he can not resist offering to share his flivver—and in any spirit of unfriendliness to the street railway system, but for reasons afterward.

Not long ago he invited a matronly woman to ride, and she accepted, and they started toward the downtown district. Nearing Ohio street, where Mr. Johnson usually turns over to his office in the State capital, he advised the woman that he would turn west there.

"But I want to go to the Fletcher American National Bank," said the woman.

Very graciously, Mr. Johnson drove down Pennsylvania street and was about to stop on the west side of the street, when the woman held him to cross the street and drew up alongside the bank corner.

Then the woman drew out her purse and gave Mr. Johnson 4 cents.

NEW YORK STATE POPULAR.

According to figures made public by Commissioner of Immigration Wallis, of the 441,444 immigrants who arrived in the United States during the past six months, 129,972 have settled in New York State. In the period mentioned there were more Italians among the number than any other race, the total being 56,194, with a total of 33,709, while third place was a tie with the Irish and the Spanish arrivals amounting to 21,646.

The statistics showed that the State receiving the second largest number was Pennsylvania, where 43,994 settled, Massachusetts third, with 43,923 and Illinois fourth, with 25,211.—[New York Times.

HAS HAD TEN CAPITALS.

North Carolina has had at least ten capitals, including Bath, Edenton, Newbern, Wilmington, Hillsboro, Smithfield, Fayette and Raleigh. The reason for so many has been in the custom prior to 1791 of transferring the seat of government to the place of residence of the Governor or the temporary meeting place of the Assembly. In 1791 one square mile of land was purchased for the foundation of Raleigh as the permanent seat of government. At present the city covers four square miles.—[Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Mines Kill Sea Fish.

Butterfish, grass mongers and other fish have drawn New York's beach in such large numbers that some imaginative ones have decided a deep sea plague is at work thinning the ranks. But this is not the case. The large proportion of the fish are killed by the explosion of "mines" by the government. The detonation from these mines causes the death of hundreds of fish each time one explodes.—[New York Sun.

No Time Like Now.

"Help! Help! I can't swim."

"Well, young fellow," was the cool observation of the self-possessed man who stood looking on, "I'd say that now is certainly the time, if ever, for you to learn."—[Life.

Gilbert's Grouch.

Gilbert K. Chesterton, the Englishman, was grumbling about the failure of his recent lecture tour.

"But you had good houses?" said the reporter, sympathetically.

"Paper," said Mr. Chesterton. "Deadheads."

He made a gesture with his large fat hand.

"I see now why you call America a free country," he said, "it's because everybody goes in without paying."—[Exchange.

Political Instinct.

A member of Parliament recently became a parent. On announcing the news the doctor exclaimed, gleefully: "I congratulate you, sir; you are the father of triplets."

The politician was astounded. "No, no, no," he replied, with more than parliamentary emphasis. "There must be some mistake in the returns. I demand a recount!"—[Kansas City Star.

On Conditions.

Mr. Huggins: Polly, dear, don't you think you could share my lot with me?

Miss Peachblow: I don't know. Is it in a nice neighborhood with a modern bungalow on it?—[Houston Post.

A Correct Toe-Tal.

Pupil: Please, sir, a centipede with corns on each toe.—[R. Jensen, in Science and Invention.

Ruinous.

"Will the honeymoon last through life, dear?" she asked.

Time to Cut It.

"Don't you think Miss Howler's voice ought to be cultivated?"

"No, I think it should be harvested."—[Boston Transcript.

A Barren Investment.

"Yes," was the reply, "but she hasn't declared any dividend yet."—[Boston Transcript.

An Obstruction.

Remodeled.

Ethel: Who was that new girl I saw you with last night?

Jack: That wasn't a new girl. That was my old girl painted over.—[Ohio State Journal.

THE CITY AND ENVIRONS.

Ask Cryer, Others.

Mayor-elect Cryer and the newly elected Councilmen have been invited to attend the meeting of the Associated Secretaries' Club, to be held at the City Club tomorrow noon.

To Talk on Efficiency.

How to organize an office for efficiency will be the subject of a public lecture by Reynold E. Blight, C.P.A., before the Southwestern University School of Commerce, Accounts and Finance, in the Wilcox Building at 6:45 p.m. tomorrow.

Deciduous Expert to Speak.

A meeting of the Los Angeles City Center of the Los Angeles County Farm Bureau will be held at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in Room D of the Chamber of Commerce. Dr. C. Whitten, head of the division of pomology of the University of California, recognized as perhaps the greatest authority on deciduous fruit culture in the United States, will be the principal speaker of the evening.

For Anti-Vivisectionists.

Dr. Walter Hadwen, English physician and surgeon, will speak at a mass meeting under the auspices of the California Anti-Vivisection Society in the ballroom of the Alexandria tomorrow at 8 p.m. His subject will be "Vivisection, A Menace." Dr. George Starr White will also speak and there will be a musical program. The public is invited and admission is free.

Hampton on Films.

At the weekly meeting of the commercial board today at 741 South Broadway, Benjamin B. Hampton, the cinema producer who is leading the fight for cleaner and better pictures and against the invasion of German films, will be the principal speaker. "Los Angeles and Motion Pictures" will be the title of his address. Mr. Hampton returns today from two weeks in the high Sierras.

For Disabled Veterans.

A benefit performance is to be staged by Glendale Post No. 127, American Legion, at the Palace Grand Theater, Glendale, tonight for fifty disabled World War veterans who are patients at one of the city's hospitals. Among those who have volunteered to appear are Will Rogers, Charlie Murray, Jack Gardner, Louise Dresser, the McAdams dancers, Constance Balfour, Maurice Stoloff, Esther Rhodes, D. W. Golubeff, Sonia Zaricova, Jane Crawley, Dot Farley, Margaret Cullington, Charles McHugh and Billie Fay.

BOXER GETS BULLET IN TRIANGLE TANGLE.

ASSERTED GUN-USER CHARGES PUGILIST STOLE WIFE; SEEKS DIVORCE.

The life of N. H. Thibodeaux, known in boxing circles as Kid Bailey, last night was hanging in the balance, and Frank S. Ashton, said to have shot him twice, is held in the San Bernardino County Jail.

In a divorce action which has been pending for several weeks, Mr. Ashton names Mr. Thibodeaux as co-respondent. He charges that Mr. Thibodeaux, although married, estranged his 17-year-old bride from him. The case, which was to have been tried today, has been postponed. The couple lived together but four months. They separated last March.

Mr. Ashton, in his cell, is said to have declared he had sought to avoid Mr. Thibodeaux ever since he caused the wounded man's arrest on a liquor charge.

"He was waiting for me outside the tent," Mr. Ashton said. "He struck me on the head before I could draw my gun. I fired once in the air and then shot him through the right lung. I feel that I did all I could to avoid what happened, and I hope the man gets well."

MAY SELL PLANT AT MONOLITH.

Four Hundred and Fifty Thousand Possible Price for Big Cement Works.

The city may sell the cement plant it owns at Monolith to the U. S. Potash Company if negotiations now under way between the company and the Board of Public Service Commissioners are successful, it developed yesterday. The company now operates the plant under a 5-year lease and $450,000 has been stated as a possible price that may be agreed upon by the commissioners and the company. The matter of sale is now formally before the board and a decision is expected soon.

The plant was built and operated by the city during the construction of the Aqueduct and enormous quantities of cement used in the building of the great waterway were manufactured at Monolith. The plant was closed down until last August when it was leased to the U. S. Potash Company.

The Board of Public Service Commissioners held its final meeting yesterday at the Knickerbocker Building on Olive street and the meeting next Tuesday will be at the commission's own building at 207 South Broadway. It is expected that the moving of the offices of the water and power departments to the new quarters will be completed by the end of next week.

HIDES NAME TO PROTECT HIS MOTHER.

Asserted Bandit Reveals Identity After Reading of Parent's Death.

Further occasion for Max Glantz, alias Elmer Smith, to hide his identity, passed on Sunday, he testified yesterday in Justice Follette's court at his own hearing on a charge of robbery. From the time of his arrest last Thursday on a charge of robbery he steadfastly refused to give his real name.

"I did this," he said, "because of my aged mother who lived here. Now I can say my name is Max Glantz, for in jail on Sunday I picked up a newspaper and read of her death. It is better so, as I did not want her to know of my arrest."

Glantz was arrested at Fourth and Olive streets by Detective George E. Smith, while he was said to be holding up Alice Harrod, a telephone operator of 120 South Flower street, and her escort, Everett Cahill. Glantz is said to have just relieved them of all valuables and told them to move on, when the officer shot him in the arm. He is held to answer on $2000 bail, being lodged in the County Jail until his trial starts.

SEMENOFF'S EFFORTS IN VLADIVOSTOK FAIL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Efforts of Gen. Semenoff, anti-Bolshevik leader, to place himself in the position of commander-in-chief of the military forces in Vladivostok, as well as that of chief executive of the government, have failed, according to reports received today by the State Department from the American Consul at the Siberian port.

Canadian Rail Rates Lowered.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

OTTAWA, June 14. — A 10 per cent reduction in railroad fares in eastern Canada July 1 was ordered today by Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners. Western rates remain unchanged. The reduction will mean a return to the rates prevailing prior to September 13, 1920. The new mileage rate will be 3.45 cents.

SCREEN NEWCOMER.

THE INDIANS KNEW

A famous physician stated that more women might find relief from suffering through taking a medicine like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound than through undergoing surgical operations, if they would only take it in time. At the first sign of female weakness, as indicated by backache, dullness, bearing down pains and nervous exhaustion, take this famous remedy of roots and herbs, and avoid the serious consequences of delay.

The Indians and early settlers knew and benefitted by Nature's Allies, the roots and herbs of the field. Because Lydia E. Pinkham knew their medicinal value, thousands of women all over the world have been saved from operations, but only such as have taken it in time.—[Advertisement.

Ever-Ready Heater Co.,
Los Angeles, Cal.

Gentlemen: Just a line to express my appreciation of the excellent service being rendered by the two Ever-Ready Automatic Hot Water Heaters that you installed for me. These heaters are on the job twenty-four hours every day, giving us plenty of hot water, the cost of which is amazingly small compared with other heaters I have in use. I shall be glad to say a good word for the Ever-Ready to any one you may refer to me.

Yours very truly,
JOHN W. ARNOLD,

Delivering its message through its building

THE new plant of The Procter & Collier Company, advertising agency of Cincinnati, is said to be the most completely equipped building of its kind in America—housing advertising executive offices, plan and copy study rooms, a data library, a scientific business research laboratory, an art studio, a graphic arts gallery and consultation room, and a complete printing plant and bindery.

And it is noteworthy that the ideals embodied in this beautiful new structure have in no way interfered with economy and practical utility.

It is logical that for the roof, the choice should be Carey Asfaltslate Shingles—richly colored, non-curling strong and enduring, they are fitting wherever unusual and lasting beauty is desired.

Third Suspect Arrested After Tobacco Thefts.

Finishing up a theft cas in which two stores were robbed of more than 300,000 cigarettes, and two men placed in the City Jail accused of the crime, Detectives O'Brien, Yarrow, Cahill and Fitzgerald, last night arrested a third suspect and confiscated about 4500 more cigarettes, 108 packages of chewing tobacco, and thirty-six packages of smoking tobacco. The suspect gave the name of Melvin Clark.

The last of what is said to be more than $2500 worth of loot was found in Clark's room at 724 Court street, the detectives asserted.

R. C. Meyers and Charles G. Williams, the first two arrested, are said to have stolen an automobile in which they hauled away the loot.

IN BANKRUPTCY COURT.

Lena Cohen and Rose Rosenkrantz, doing business under the firm name of The Grand at 321 West Fourth street, in the cloak and suit trade, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court yesterday. The debts of the concern are listed at $10,088.95, and the assets as $8100, of which $5000 is the asserted value of the stock in trade.

HUSBAND BACKS MRS. SOUTHARD.

Declares Asserted Feminine Bluebeard Guiltless.

Gets Furlough to Aid Wife at Twin Falls Trial.

Asserts Spouse Never Asked Him to Insure Life.

"My wife is innocent of the charges placed against her; she has been the victim of unfortunate circumstances. She has been a good, true wife to me in every way, and is utterly incapable of committing the horrible crimes with which she is charged. She will be acquitted."

Paul Vincent Southard, chief storekeeper, U.S.N., husband of Lydia Southard, who is charged with the murder of four of her former husbands, yesterday made the above statement upon his arrival from San Francisco at the Submarine Base at Los Angeles Harbor.

Mr. Southard has been transferred from the U.S.S. Monterey, receiving ship at the Hawaiian Islands, to the Submarine Base here, and reported to Capt. Chauncey Shackford yesterday. Immediately upon his arrival he applied for a thirty-day furlough in order that he may attend his wife's trial at Twin Falls, Idaho, where she faces a charge of first-degree murder.

Upon being granted his furlough, Mr. Southard announced that he will leave today for Twin Falls, and will apply for an extension to his furlough in case his wife's trial is not brought to a close before his thirty-day leave ends.

WILL AID WIFE.

Mr. Southard declared he will do all in his power to clear his wife of the charges against her. He explained that Mrs. Southard never insisted upon his taking out life insurance, but that he took the initiative in applying for insurance for business reasons only.

That will be one of the strongest points of the defense, he said.

"When we arrived in Honolulu following our honeymoon," Mr. Southard said, "the housing situation was so bad that we decided to build a home there. I made application to a building and loan association for a loan, and one of the first questions they asked me was in regard to my insurance.

"They told me I should take out insurance for the protection of both parties in case a loan was made. My wife did not insist upon it, but I made application for government insurance, but never took out the policy. I have affidavits to prove these assertions.

DENIES EVASION.

"We were married in Los Angeles on last November 30. My wife gave her name as Eva Edith Meyer, Eva being her true middle name, and Meyer the name of her last husband. My wife at no time tried to evade the law. If she had known she was wanted in Twin Falls she would have returned there voluntarily."

Mrs. Southard's arrest came as an overwhelming surprise to the young couple, Mr. Southard said, adding: "We were very happy and contented, and my wife had nothing on her conscience to worry her. She has shed no tears since then, for that very reason."

"Although this has completely altered our plans," he added, "I feel it is all for the best. All will be well in the end. She has been a good, true wife to me and I know she is innocent of the charges made against her."

Flag Day Rites Are Held by Many Societies Here.

Many civic, military and educational organizations of the city and numbers of private social organizations yesterday held special exercises in observance of Flag Day, which had been set aside by the President and the Governor as a time for paying special honor to the nation's emblem.

The United Daughters of the War of 1812 unveiled a tablet on the site of old Ft. Monroe, above the North Broadway tunnel, commemorative of their kinsmen who served in that struggle. The Daughters of the American Revolution held appropriate exercises in Victory Memorial Grove.

In every army post or camp and at every naval station under the protection of the American flag, the day was fittingly observed. School children in this city, as in almost every city in the land, likewise gave special programs for the occasion.

HONOR RAINBOW HERO.

First Body of Division Veteran Will Arrive This Week.

The body of Charles T. Hiskey, Company E, One Hundred and Seventeenth Engineers, Forty-second (Rainbow) Division, will arrive in Los Angeles from France this week. It will be the first body of a Rainbow Division veteran to be brought here, and the interment will be in charge of the Southern California chapter, Rainbow Division Veterans' Association. All Rainbow Division veterans are asked to attend. Charles T. Hiskey was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hiskey, and was born Oct. 4, 1898, at Boulder, Colo. He enlisted in Company E, California National Guard, in September, 1916, and died Oct. 17, 1918, in Longres, France. Mass will be held at St. Viendan's Church, 239 South Western avenue, at 9 a.m. Saturday. Burial will be at Calvary Cemetery, at the end of the Stevenson-avenue car line.

MOTIVE IS CRUX OF POISON CASE.

Women Are Eliminated from Jury to Try Husband.

Girl in Death Tangle to be Put on Stand Today.

Whether the prosecution in the trial of Raymond W. Smith, accused of the murder through cyanide poisoning of his wife, Mrs. Mary Edna Smith, will be able or not to prove a motive for the asserted offense was a question that arose yesterday when the case opened in Judge Reeve's court.

With the prosecution admittedly in doubt as to the ability to establish legal proof in this respect, and with the defense counsel carefully eliminating women from the jury box, the case began yesterday to present an unusual situation for a murder trial of this character.

That the defense intends to bring up the question of domestic infelicity was indicated by questions asked by William H. Anderson and E. S. Patterson, the defendant's attorneys. They asked each talesman if he or she were married and if they had any views regarding "domestic infelicity."

The first call of talesmen left nine women and three men in the jury box, but defense counsel challenged the women, until all were eliminated and others were drawn. The jury, it is expected, will be obtained today.

In making his opening statement to the talesmen, who were being examined for jurors, Dep. Dist.-Atty. Fricke, conducting the prosecution, stated that Smith is accused of first-degree murder in the poisoning of his wife on March 14 by use of cyanide. He asked each prospective juror if he or she would expect the prosecution to prove a motive for the asserted offense. One woman, who said she did not see how there could be such a crime without a motive, was excused. Mr. Fricke stated while he might not be able to prove a motive, it might be apparent to a juror that such had existed.

Testimony in the case will begin today. Among the witnesses who will be called early is Miss Hazel Swartzfager. The defendant is said to have proposed to her more than a year before Mrs. Smith's death, while he was separated from his wife and to have stated he would marry her after obtaining a divorce. Smith declares after the purported proposal, he and his wife became reconciled and lived together. Miss Swartzfager and her mother, Mrs. Alice Swartzfager of 1470 Santa Barbara avenue, were in court yesterday.

WILL BOOST FRUIT SALE IN EUROPE.

Growers' Exchange Agent to Leave for London Tomorrow to Broaden Market.

To conduct an investigation into the further possibilities of European markets for California oranges and lemons Dana C. King, orange sales agent of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, will leave for London tomorrow. He will sail on the S.S. Rotterdam from New York on the 25th inst.

Much interest is being manifested in Mr. King's trip by growers of Southern California. With the recent inauguration of direct-by-water shipments of citrus fruits from Los Angeles to London, new trade possibilities were opened, it is said.

Mr. King will check the results of these initial shipments as to condition of the fruit upon its arrival and its reception upon the European markets.

There are three vessels which have been equipped with special refrigeration facilities on the Los Angeles-London run, and it is expected six additional ships will be added before the close of the year.

"I will endeavor to find," stated Mr. King yesterday, "if it is practical to increase the foreign business for our product along lines that have already been inaugurated."

Van Nuys High School Graduates Hear Mayor-Elect

Mayor-elect George E. Cryer delivered the class address at the graduation exercises of the Van Nuys High School last night. Mr. Cryer took advantage of the day being Flag Day, and directed his remarks along patriotic lines, calling attention of the graduates to what real loyalty to the flag means, and what is the civic duty of every patriot. No reference to municipal problems or reforms were made by the Mayor-elect.

Last night's class consisted of thirty-one graduates and an audience of more than a thousand persons filled the high school auditorium where the exercises were held. Miss M. Jessie York, member of the Board of Education, presented the diplomas, and Albert Edward Bond was awarded the Ephebian honor, a mark of distinction given by the school authorities.

At the conclusion of the exercises Nathan S. Smith, principal of the Van Nuys schools, announced that it had been definitely decided to expend $110,000 on grounds and buildings before the opening of the new term in September.

CANADIAN WARSHIPS IN HARBOR.

Cruiser Aurora, Destroyers Patriot and Patrician on Way to Halifax.

The Canadian cruiser Aurora, accompanied by the destroyers Patriot and Patrician, arrived at Los Angeles Harbor at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, en route from Vancouver, B. C., to Halifax.

The Aurora, battle-scarred veteran of the battle of Jutland, fired a salute of twenty-one guns as it rounded the breakwater. The giant sixteen-inch rifles of Fort MacArthur blazed forth with a salute of twenty-one guns in reply. The Aurora then fired a fifteen-gun salute to Admiral Williams on the U.S.S. New Mexico, which replied with a similar salute to the Canadian vessels.

The Aurora and the destroyers will be in port several days before proceeding to Panama. On the way from British Columbia, the ships spent several days at Portland. Members of Admiral Williams's staff boarded the Aurora after her arrival, carrying the admiral's compliments to the British staff.

All the battleships of the Pacific Fleet will leave their base at Los Angeles Harbor northbound on next Wednesday, to be absent for several months. After a stay at San Francisco over the Fourth of July, the vessels will proceed to Bremerton, where they will go on drydock for repairs.

Court Rejects Suit of Mother of Unborn Babe.

The suit of Lillian E. Snyder against Charles S. Easton for the support of herself and unborn child was thrown out of court by Judge Burnell yesterday. The plaintiff asserts that Mr. Easton, a wealthy business man, is the father of her unborn child. Mr. Easten filed a demurrer to the complaint and Judge Burnell sustained the demurrer without leave to amend.

He held that the complaint can not lie under the provision of the law which holds a father responsible for the support and education of an illegitimate child because the child in this case is not yet born. The attorneys for the woman say they will file a new complaint against Mr. Easton.

NEW RAINBOW OFFICERS.

The Southern California Chapter, Rainbow Division Veterans' Association has elected the following officers: Austin E. Longcroft, president; Mrs. Margaret Hodge, honorary president; Douglas Moore, vice-president; Chad Calhoun, secretary and treasurer; Leo Kind, sergeant-at-arms; A. C. Davis, historian, and E. Reagan, trustee. They will be inducted into office July 11. The Rainbow Division Veterans' Association was organized on the Rhine in 1919.

NAVY CRAFT WILL HUNT CONESTOGA

In an effort to clear up one of the most baffling mysteries in the history of the Navy since the loss of the collier Cyclops, Vice-Admiral Williams, acting commander-in-chief of the Pacific Fleet, yesterday ordered the superdreadnaught Tennessee and nine R-type submarines to search the North Pacific off the coast of Lower California for traces of the missing naval tug Conestoga.

Admiral Williams earlier in the day had ordered a complete division of destroyers from San Diego to put to sea in search of the craft, but later countermanded the order. The Tennessee, the United States Navy's most powerful superdreadnaught in commission, and the submarines, all en route to Los Angeles Harbor from the Atlantic Coast, are off the Lower California coast.

They were ordered to search for the derelict hull sighted drifting bottom up by the crew of the United American Line freighter Floridian several days ago. Capt. Nichols of the Floridian reported to naval authorities that his vessel passed a derelict about 150 feet long, that may have been the missing naval tug.

Sunday "Times" to Depict Plans for Restoring Old Plaza Church.

How the time-cracked bells of the old Plaza Church are soon to ring in tune, heralding the dawn of a new prosperity for this, the first parish of Los Angeles; the plans for the acquisition of additional land and the building of a large parochial school for children of the Spanish and Mexican settlements and the happiness of the Rev. Father Andrew Ressa over the return of olden days will be told in next Sunday's issue of The Times.

Lovers of romance, music and the spirited whirl of the Spanish dances will learn of the series of entertainments, fairs and Spanish dinners that are to be held in the picturesque patio of this historic relic of the Mission Fathers and will attend the exercises next Sunday night to lend their support to the rehabilitation dream of Father Ressa that is to become a reality.

FIX FIGURES OF CITY'S BUDGET.

Government Cost Mounts by Nearly Million in Year.

Committee Will Report Full Findings to Council.

Occupational Tax Reduced; Bond Charges Larger.

The cost of the city government of Los Angeles during the fiscal year beginning July 1 will be $9,626,000 or $892,000 more than during the year just closing, according to the financial budget for the coming year, which was completed yesterday by the Finance Committee of the City Council. It is expected that the budget will be presented to the Council for approval during the next few days.

The grand total of the city's requirements under the new budget for all general and departmental expenses including interest and sinking fund requirements on all outstanding and authorized bond issues is $11,826,000. This is $67,536 less than the total of the budget of the present year. The decrease is largely due to the fact that the first year's interest and sinking fund requirements on the $13,500,000 of Edison purchase bonds has already been collected and is in the city treasury.

While the total of the budget is less than that of the present year, the amount required by the city for general expenses is $892,000 larger, showing the steadily increasing cost of city government in Los Angeles. The total amount set aside under the new budget for the running expenses of the city is $9,626,000, compared to $8,734,000 for the year just closing.

The Budget Committee of the Council, of which Councilmen Conaway, Criswell and Delorey are members, has been at work for several weeks pruning the estimates of requirements submitted by heads of city departments for the coming year, net deductions being $1,344,209.

The city has outstanding and authorized bond issues totaling $52,938,074, including the $2,500,000 public library bonds and the $4,800,000 harbor improvement bonds voted last week. The estimated interest and sinking fund requirements on the library bonds during the coming year will be $212,500 and on the harbor bonds $408,000.

Of the city's estimated revenue during the coming fiscal year of $9,250,000 there will be received from the reduced business or occupational tax $550,000, from dog licenses $55,000, police court fines $450,000, while from the property taxes collected for the city by the county the total will be $6,678,780, and there will be transferred from accumulated surplus revenues now in the reserve fund, $376,000.

DISMISSAL IS APPROVED.

The dismissal from the Police Department of Patrolman John L. Crockett by Police Chief Pendegast was approved yesterday by the Board of Police Commissioners. Crockett was charged by the chief with having been absent from duty on June 9, 10 and 11 without leave.

OLD MINING TOWN SWEPT BY FLAMES.

Havilah, Former Kern County Seat, Half Destroyed, Says Dispatch.

Fire yesterday razed half of the old mining town of Havilah, former Kern county seat, destroying all the residences, according to a telegram received at Bakersfield by Guy Jones from J. H. Gunston, whose home was among those burned. Telephone communication is cut off.

Havilah is one of the oldest towns in Kern county, having been the center of the mining industry for many years during the pioneer days and was the county seat when Kern county was organized. During recent years it has dwindled to a small village. It is located fifty miles east of Bakersfield.

Mrs. Hannah Miller, pioneer resident of the mountain district, operates a general store there, which was burned with her home in a fire last year. Her home was saved in the fire yesterday.

Candidates File Expense Totals of Office Race.

Dr. Joseph Coyne, unsuccessful candidate for the Board of Education has the smallest city campaign expense schedule filed to date, his return made yesterday to City Clerk Domingeux stating that he had spent no money for his campaign.

Robert M. Allan, who was elected to the City Council, filed a return totaling $183.49, one of the items being $10 for gasoline and oil for his automobile, while engaged in campaigning. Other schedules filed were those of Councilman Criswell, high man in the Council race, $144.50; R. S. ("Cupid") Sparks, who was just behind Mr. Criswell when the count was completed, $136.80; Councilman Wheeler, who was low man on the ticket, and whose schedule among the Councilmanic candidates is the lowest to date, $35; Benjamin Bogardus, $121.80; Councilman Langdon, $236.26, and former Councilman Conrad, $100.50.

VOTES SCHOOL BONDS.

Santa Monica Approves Issue of Six Hundred Thousand.

By a vote of 1003 to 361 residents of Santa Monica decided yesterday to issue school bonds in the sum of $600,000. The money derived from the sale of the securities will be used for elementary and junior high schools. Of the amount, $350,000 will be expended in providing additional accommodation for the pupils of the elementary grades and $250,000 for the high school students.

The bond question has been agitated in the beach city for several weeks and the issue was made necessary by the fact that during the last term of school pupils have been crowded into churches and storerooms.

Third Suspect Arrested After Tobacco Thefts.

Finishing up a theft cas in which two stores were robbed of more than 300,000 cigarettes, and two men placed in the City Jail accused of the crime, Detectives O'Brien, Yarrow, Cahill and Fitzgerald, last night arrested a third suspect and confiscated about 4500 more cigarettes, 108 packages of chewing tobacco, and thirty-six packages of smoking tobacco. The suspect gave the name of Melvin Clark.

The last of what is said to be more than $2500 worth of loot was found in Clark's room at 724 Court street, the detectives asserted.

R. C. Meyers and Charles G. Williams, the first two arrested, are said to have stolen an automobile in which they hauled away the loot.

The Canadian cruiser Aurora, accompanied by the destroyers Patriot and Patrician, arrived at Los Angeles Harbor at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, en route from Vancouver, B. C., to Halifax.

The Aurora, battle-scarred veteran of the battle of Jutland, fired a salute of twenty-one guns as it rounded the breakwater. The giant sixteen-inch rifles of Fort MacArthur blased forth with a salute of twenty-one guns in reply. The Aurora then fired a fifteen-gun salute to Admiral Williams on the U.S.S. New Mexico, which replied with a similar salute to the Canadian vessels.

The Aurora and the destroyers will be in port several days before proceeding to Panama. On the way from British Columbia, the ships spent several days at Portland. Members of Admiral Williams's staff boarded the Aurora after her arrival, carrying the admiral's compliments to the British staff.

All the battleships of the Pacific Fleet will leave their base at Los Angeles Harbor northbound on next Wednesday, to be absent for several months. After a stay at San Francisco over the Fourth of July, the vessels will proceed to Bremerton, where they will go on drydock for repairs.

Court Rejects Suit of Mother of Unborn Babe.

The suit of Lillian E. Snyder against Charles S. Easton for the support of herself and unborn child was thrown out of court by Judge Burnell yesterday. The plaintiff asserts that Mr. Easton, a wealthy business man, is the father of her unborn child. Mr. Easten filed a demurrer to the complaint and Judge Burnell sustained the demurrer without leave to amend.

He held that the complaint can not lie under the provision of the law which holds a father responsible for the support and education of an illegitimate child because the child in this case is not yet born. The attorneys for the woman say they will file a new complaint against Mr. Easton.

NEW RAINBOW OFFICERS.

The Southern California Chapter, Rainbow Division Veterans' Association has elected the following officers: Austin E. Longcroft, president; Mrs. Margaret Hodge, honorary president; Douglas Moore, vice-president; Chad Calhoun, secretary and treasurer; Leo Kind, sergeant-at-arms; A. C. Davis, historian, and E. Reagan, trustee. They will be inducted into office July 11. The Rainbow Division Veterans' Association was organized on the Rhine in 1919.

In an effort to clear up one of the most baffling mysteries in the history of the Navy since the loss of the collier Cyclops, Vice-Admiral Williams, acting commander-in-chief of the Pacific Fleet, yesterday ordered the superdreadnaught Tennessee and nine R-type submarines to search the North Pacific off the coast of Lower California for traces of the missing naval tug Conestoga.

Admiral Williams earlier in the day had ordered a complete division of destroyers from San Diego to put to sea in search of the craft, but later countermanded the order. The Tennessee, the United States Navy's most powerful superdreadnaught in commission, and the submarines, all en route to Los Angeles Harbor from the Atlantic Coast, are off the Lower California coast.

They were ordered to search for the derelict hull sighted drifting bottom up by the crew of the United American Line freighter Floridian several days ago. Capt. Nichols of the Floridian reported to naval authorities that his vessel passed a derelict about 150 feet long, that may have been the missing naval tug.

Sunday "Times" to Depict Plans for Restoring Old Plaza Church.

How the time-cracked bells of the old Plaza Church are soon to ring in tune, heralding the dawn of a new prosperity for this, the first parish of Los Angeles; the plans for the acquisition of additional land and the building of a large parochial school for children of the Spanish and Mexican settlements and the happiness of the Rev. Father Andrew Ressa over the return of olden days will be told in next Sunday's issue of The Times.

Lovers of romance, music and the spirited whirl of the Spanish dances will learn of the series of entertainments, fairs and Spanish dinners that are to be held in the picturesque patio of this historic relic of the Mission Fathers and will attend the exercises next Sunday night to lend their support to the rehabilitation dream of Father Ressa that is to become a reality.

FIX FIGURES OF CITY'S BUDGET.

Committee Will Report Full Findings to Council.

Occupational Tax Reduced; Bond Charges Larger.

The cost of the city government of Los Angeles during the fiscal year beginning July 1 will be $9,626,000 or $892,000 more than during the year just closing, according to the financial budget for the coming year, which was completed yesterday by the Finance Committee of the City Council. It is expected that the budget will be presented to the Council for approval during the next few days.

The grand total of the city's requirements under the new budget for all general and departmental expenses including interest and sinking fund requirements on all outstanding and authorized bond issues is $11,826,000. This is $67,836 less than the total of the budget of the present year. The decrease is largely due to the fact that the first year's interest and sinking fund requirements on the $12,500,000 of Edison purchase bonds has already been collected and is in the city treasury.

While the total of the budget is less than that of the present year, the amount required by the city for general expenses is $892,000 larger, showing the steadily increasing cost of city government in Los Angeles. The total amount set aside under the new budget for the running expenses of the city is $9,626,000, compared to $8,734,000 for the year just closing.

The Budget Committee of the Council, of which Councilmen Conaway, Criswell and Delorey are members, has been at work for several weeks pruning the estimates of requirements submitted by heads of city departments for the coming year, net deductions being $1,344,209.

The city has outstanding and authorized bond issues totaling $52,938,674, including the $2,500,000 public library bonds and the $4,800,000 harbor improvement bonds voted last week. The estimated interest and sinking fund requirements on the library bonds during the coming year will be $212,500 and on the harbor bonds $408,000.

Of the city's estimated revenue during the coming fiscal year of $9,250,000 there will be received from the reduced business or occupational tax $850,000, from dog licenses $55,000, police court fines $450,000, while from the property taxes collected for the city by the county the total will be $6,678,750, and there will be transferred from accumulated surplus revenues now in the reserve fund, $376,000.

DISMISSAL IS APPROVED.

The dismissal from the Police Department of Patrolman John L. Crockett by Police Chief Pendegast was approved yesterday by the Board of Police Commissioners. Crockett was charged by the chief with having been absent from duty on June 9, 10 and 11 without leave.

OLD MINING TOWN SWEPT BY FLAMES.

Havilah, Former Kern County Seat, Half Destroyed, Says Dispatch.

Fire yesterday razed half of the old mining town of Havilah, former Kern county seat, destroying all the residences, according to a telegram received at Bakersfield by Guy Jonas from J. H. Gunston, whose home was among those burned. Telephone communication is cut off.

Havilah is one of the oldest towns in Kern county, having been the center of the mining industry for many years during the pioneer days and was the county seat when Kern county was organized. During recent years it has dwindled to a small village. It is located fifty miles east of Bakersfield.

Mrs. Hannah Miller, pioneer resident of the mountain district, operates a general store there, which was burned with her home in a fire last year. Her home was saved in the fire yesterday.

Candidates File Expense Totals of Office Race.

Dr. Joseph Coyne, unsuccessful candidate for the Board of Education has the smallest city campaign expense schedule filed to date, his return made yesterday to City Clerk Domingues stating that he had spent no money for his campaign.

Robert M. Allan, who was elected to the City Council, filed a return totaling $153.49, one of the items being $10 for gasoline and oil for his automobile, while engaged in campaigning. Other schedules filed were those of Councilman Criswell, high man in the Council race, $144.80; R. S. ("Cupid") Sparks, who was just behind Mr. Criswell when the count was completed, $136.89; Councilman Wheeler, who was low man on the ticket, and whose schedule among the Councilmanic candidates is the lowest to date, $35; Benjamin Bogardus, $121.80; Councilman Langdon, $236.26, and former Councilman Conrad, $100.50.

VOTES SCHOOL BONDS.

Santa Monica Approves Issue of Six Hundred Thousand.

By a vote of 1002 to 361 residents of Santa Monica decided yesterday to issue school bonds in the sum of $600,000. The money derived from the sale of the securities will be used for elementary and junior high schools. Of the amount, $350,000 will be expended in providing additional accommodation for the pupils of the elementary grades and $250,000 for the high school students.

The bond question has been agitated in the beach city for several weeks and the issue was made necessary by the fact that during the last term of school pupils have been crowded into churches and storerooms.

While in Los Angeles the financiers will be the guests of the Business Property Owners' and Managers' Association here, which is the organization's youngest member. Already the local association has a membership and assessed valuation the equal of the San Francisco association started five years ago.

The guests will be met at the Santa Fe depot at 8:15 a.m. The program includes a two-day sightseeing joy-ride, including Pasadena, Hollywood, the motion-picture studios and the beach cities; luncheon at the residence of James R. Martin in Pasadena; a big banquet at the Alexandria Thursday night and a trip to Santa Catalina Island Friday, with all the glass bottom boat and other thrills of the emerald isle. The party will leave Los Angeles for San Francisco at 7 p.m. Friday.

Prominent among the personnel of this de luxe special are Col. Gordon Strong of Chicago, president of the National Association of Building Owners and Managers; W. H. Ballard, Boston; Eli Torrance, Minneapolis; Roward Loomis, Omaha; Lee T. Smith, New York; E. M. Hornie, Atlanta; F. L. Sweatland, Cleveland, and F. X. Monville, Philadelphia.

James R. Martin is president of the local association and others who will constitute a reception committee here are Harry R. Callender, J. Edgar Brown, Benjamin F. McLouth, secretary of the local association; Irving H. Hellman, P. D. Rowan, Roy C. Seeley, Walter P. Story, J. B. Van Nuys, Shirley C. Ward and George Woodbury.

LOCAL MAN HONORED.

F. R. Feitshans, president of the Los Angeles Desk Company, received a telegram from the dean of the University of Kansas yesterday saying the university had conferred upon him a degree in mining engineering. Mr. Feitshans graduated from the University of Kansas in 1904 and is president of the alumni association.

FREED :: BUT :: NEARLY :: BROKE.

Wife Divorces Stock Market Player.

Mrs. Marie L. Lyons.

"HOW much money have you?" Judge Walton J. Wood asked attractive Mrs. Marie L. Lyons, after he had heard the testimony in her suit for divorce against Thomas Chester Lyons.

"I have just $1.69," she replied.

"Have you any money?" he inquired of Mr. Lyons.

"I have $150. I am a disabled soldier and am going to take up vocational training in agriculture," Mr. Lyons stated.

The court granted Mrs. Lyons a decree. She did not ask for alimony.

The testimony of Mrs. Lyons, stated last week and concluded yesterday, was that Mr. Lyons speculated in stocks on margins.

"Whenever stocks went down," she said, "he became angry and pinched me. He also bought Chinese lottery tickets."

Mr. Lyons denied his wife's charges of cruelty, but admitted that he had played the stock market.

HONOR PLAN SAVES FAMILY OF PRISONER.

Asserted Thief Released to Care for His Homeless Wife and Baby.

Co-operation between judge and prisoner yesterday resulted in means being found to provide for a baby and its mother, both of whom discovered themselves to be homeless Sunday and might still be had not the county's "honor system" furnished a way out of a pathetic situation.

On Sunday when Judge Willis visited the detention camp on the Malibu ranch he discovered the woman and child at the ranch gate, which they could not enter. Word was taken to the camp to the husband and father, A. M. Patterson, an "honor" prisoner. He was informed that on Sunday his wife and child were forced out of their home. Sheriff Traeger and Judge Willis held a conference and arrangements were made to release Patterson on his own recognizance so he could join a county road crew and earn $4 a day. This order was issued yesterday and Patterson was permitted to leave the detention camp to join the higher paid workers. He had been earning 50 cents a day as an "honor" man.

He had pleaded guilty to the robbery of D. V. Patterson of $100 on last November 26. He said he "wanted to do what was right," and now he has the chance.

Eagle Rock City Would be Part of Los Angeles.

Eagle Rock City has been added to the roll of those adjoining municipalities which are strongly considering asking for consolidation with Los Angeles. A delegation of Eagle Rock residents yesterday waited upon G. Gordon Whitnall, secretary of the Annexation and Consolidation Commission, and secured data as to ways and means of becoming part of the city. Improved water and sewer facilities are the chief arguments being used by those citizens of Eagle Rock who are advocating annexation. The annexation of Eagle Rock, Burbank and Glendale at the same time is considered economical from the standpoint of Los Angeles, as additional water and sewer connections could then be given to these communities as one.

DOWNTOWN LOT SOLD.

Wilbur O. Emerson, local realty broker, and associates have purchased the property at the northeast corner of Tenth street and Broadway from Meyer Lissner. The property, which is improved with a two-story brick building, has a frontage of fifty feet on Broadway, with a depth of ninety feet on Tenth street. Mr. Emerson states that the purchase was made as an investment and that no improvements are at present contemplated by the new owners. Leases now in force for store space in the building have several years to run, and no changes, it is stated, will be made during the life of these leases. With the new building of the Los Angeles Railway Company completed, and with the erection in the near future of the new home of the Los Angeles Investment Company, an increase of values in this portion of the city is anticipated by Mr. Emerson and his associates.

ACID THREAT CHARGED.

Husband Must Appear in Court to Face Community Property Quiz.

Henry J. Watts, who was said by his wife, Ada Natalie Watts, to have threatened to throw acid in her face, must appear in Judge Walton J. Wood's court next Wednesday to be examined as to the community property of the couple. Mrs. Watts testified in her divorce trial yesterday that she was afraid of him.

"He owns trucks, and in Lancaster makes $60 a day," she declared.

FIFTH FLOOR

Towels in June White Sale

Bath Towels

Hundreds of Turkish Bath Towels will be in the sale. There are all sizes from the small, soft finish towels, used for face towels, up to the large, thick, double thread kind, that make a luxury out of bathing. All are hemmed. These are included:

Face Towels

—18x34 Hemmed Union Linen Towels, 30c each.

Wardrobe Trunks

This Robinson-Hartmann one is $58.50.

The equipment is complete: there is a combination dust-cover and laundry bag, improved removable shoe box, draw locking bar, full set of assorted hangers and clothes retaining bar that is adjustable.

The foundation box of this Trunk is of three-ply veneer lumber; the covering of black vulcanized fiber bound with maroon fiber; the hardware, brass plated steel; spring lock and draw bolts.

So, it is quite plain to see why this Trunk is an unusual value at $58.50!

GOING TO BLAZES.

The fire losses in this country last year are said to have exceeded half a billion dollars. Even in the wild days of the Chicago, Boston or Baltimore conflagrations there was nothing to compare with this. The toll is a hundred millions greater than ever known before and this in spite of the campaigns and propaganda for fire prevention. Seems as if we had money to burn and had to touch a match to it.

RENTS STILL HIGH.

There are said to be more than 5000 empty flats and apartments in Chicago and yet there has been no worth-while lessening of rentals. The landlords are holding out for about the same figures as they were able to demand more than a year ago. They calculate that in the early fall everything will be filled up again and they do not intend to reduce rents in the meantime if they can help it. All things considered, rents are as reasonable in Los Angeles as in any American city of its size.

UNITED THEY STAND.

Public opinion is usually pretty well spilt up the back in this town, but just now sentiment seems to be more unanimously in favor of having the new public library in Pershing Square than it has been able to agree on any question in a coon's age. It is thought quite possible to erect the building without spoiling the use and purpose of the park. In fact, the service of the park in the way of a breathing spot or resting place may be enhanced by a library building—if developed along original and modern lines.

THE HUMAN VOICE.

The professor says that if a man could sing as loud as a canary in proportion to his size his voice could be heard for 800 miles. If somebody should graft a canary on Hiram Johnson the world's demands for ear-plugs could not be supplied. If one of these jazzy singers were half canary there would be a mighty rush to get away from this country. Imagine a warble of "Do You Ever Think of Me" that would carry from San Francisco to San Diego! We are glad that there is no strain of canary in the Bryan family.

KEPT HIS WORD.

Roy Gardner served notice at the time of his sentence that he would escape while on his way to prison. He kept his word, although he had to shackle the deputy marshals that had him in charge at the time. Also he had to take away the pistols and money of the officers in the doing. That he was not altogether hard-hearted is illustrated by the fact that he gave back $5 of the money he took from his guards in order that they might not have to go hungry for breakfast. He seems to have been very considerate of the officers. He might have beaten them up, removed their clothing and painted signs on their backs. While robbing trains and man-handling United States marshals Roy does not forget that he is a gentleman.

NIGHT OWL FINANCE.

Some of the banks want to keep open all night and the idea disturbs the conservative financiers. The old theory was that the only way to get into a bank after dark was to use dynamite. For a bank to be so anxious to get rid of its money as to keep the doors open long after the whistle blew seemed rather silly, but now it is being done under the guise of efficiency and service. They entered the wedge by remaining open until 6 o'clock and finally extended it to midnight. Now there is the bank that throws its keys away and keeps open forever. There are some of the film favorites who really put their money in the bank and it is convenient to be able to draw it out at any hour. If there is a nonclosable bank in the city it is handy for them. Night banking has become quite the regular thing with people to whom midnight has become the shank of the evening. But the old style financiers and the clearinghouse do not think this is good form and they are willing to discipline the night owls of the banking industry. They even announce that the privilege of the clearinghouse will be withdrawn from those banks that fail to keep a white man's hours. So far as the general public is concerned a banker's hours were considered to be from 9 or 10 in the morning until 3 in the afternoon. The rest of the time he was supposed to be playing golf. This midnight banking puts a crimp in this popular idea. At first it was thought the banks kept open to receive the deposits of the hold-up men and burglars, but it was found that a lot of people preferred to do their banking at night as a personal convenience. Whether they will be permitted to continue in the exercise of this preference is matter for argument. The Clearinghouse Association says no, but some of the nocturnal financiers are quite emphatic in asserting that they shall. It is not the easiest thing in the world for a bank to dispense with the convenient service of the clearinghouse, but it can be done and some of the night owls say that they will part company with the association before surrendering the right of night banking. They insist that the clearinghouse should not have authority to dictate or determine the office hours of its members. On the other hand, it is a matter of record that the clearinghouse can do pretty much as it pleases. This controversy between financiers at least furnishes a variation from the fight between the open and closed shop in the plumbing or the brick-making industry.

THE MAN WITH THE CORKSCREW.

An anonymous wit recently defined an optimist as "a man who still carries a corkscrew." And the man with the corkscrew is very likely to refuse to wax indignant over the claim set up by the Mexican government to the Pacific islands lying off the California coast.

Patriotism is a noble sentiment. Four generations of Americans have offered their lives and their earthly goods as a sacrifice on the altar of their country. But a parched throat and a swollen tongue possess an insidious, persuasive influence.

It does not require any straining of the imagination to picture a thousand eyes in San Francisco turning toward the outline of the Farallon Islands, looming indistinctly through the fog, with a new hope. Perhaps a few in our own town are studying with renewed interest the coastline of Catalina.

That question of the ownership of the Pacific islands has been raised before. It has been agitated in our courts and the decisions have always been adverse to the litigants who claimed them to be outside the jurisdiction of the United States. But they have never been a subject of international controversy.

When California became an American commonwealth we assumed dominion over the islands on the theory that the tail goes with the hide. They are outside the three-mile limit and they are mentioned in no treaty. There is a remote possibility that a flaw might exist in our title; and the man with a corkscrew is searching for that flaw with the most powerful magnifying glass that an imagination begotten of an insatiate thirst can devise.

We have heard a great deal lately of the theory that justice and not might is to be the future arbiter of international disputes. Mexico couldn't take them if we were unwilling to give them up—but.

Florida's tourist crop during the last three years has broken all records. Frosts are just as prevalent as formerly and its oranges have not improved in flavor. The added attraction is to be found in islands lying off the South Atlantic coast possessing a moisture that does not rise out of the sea.

California, according to the man with the corkscrew, is subjected to an unfair competition. But if it should be found that Catalina is really Mexican soil—what joy!

There is bound to be an element that will contend those Pacific islands must be retained because of the protection they afford to the mainland against foreign attack, who will argue the folly of permitting them to pass into the possession of a foreign power. But it is axiomatic that "all signs fail in dry weather."

The man with the corkscrew insists on believing what he wants to believe. He imagines that his thirst is national, not individual. He saw the electorate of California reject in a referendum vote last year a State prohibition enforcement act and he noted with glee that the voters of Los Angeles turned down last week a municipal "dry" law. To his distorted vision these straws indicate the approach of a wet hurricane.

"Man never is, but always to be blessed." So it is with the man with the corkscrew. He will follow his phantom until he stumbles into a tomb. We can deprive him of his booze by legislative enactment, but we cannot separate him from his hope.

The Democrats were among the pioneers in the use and development of the primary method of selecting their candidates for office, but many of the leaders of the party are now quite certain that the plan is costly, cumbersome and thoroughly unsatisfactory. It brings out the poorest instead of the best material in the party, and instead of stimulating the thought that the office should seek the man it starts out the wrong man on a hot hunt for the office.

Genial Tom Marshall, former Vice-President and one of the ablest minds in the Democratic party, is firmly convinced that for his or any other organization the primary system is a severe frost.

In commenting upon the Supreme Court decision in the case of Senator Newberry, involving the Michigan primary law, the former Vice-President declared that the limitation of expenditures could not well help being a jest. While the Newberry case was still before the courts Presidential primaries were held in a few States and it was admitted in hearings before Congressional committees that there had been expenditures on this account amounting to $1,773,000 on behalf of the candidacy of Gen. Wood; $415,000 for Gov. Lowden and $195,000 for Senator Johnson, to say nothing of the rest.

Touching this extravagance Mr. Marshall says: "The preferential primary, costing as much as it does, absolutely fails in accomplishing the purpose for which it was intended, namely, the purification of party politics and the elimination of the boss. The new political filtration plant is a fizzle. When the convention system was in vogue no one ever dreamed of such expenditures of money as have been reported under the new primaries. After looking them over thoroughly and watching them both in operation I am sure that the convention furnishes better results than the primary and I know it is much less expensive."

The former Vice-President adds: "I do not need to recount some of the freak results of the primary system—how men who never existed, insane men and even criminals have been nominated, or men named in jest. The convention could never compete with the wild work of the primary, even in its days when half the delegates carried brass knuckles. I could never bring myself to the point of favoring the constitutional amendment proposed by Hiram Johnson—especially since the decision of the court in the Newberry case. The California Senator would extend the primary even to the Presidency and would convert national conventions into mere ratifying bodies, devoid of deliberation or purpose. The preferential primary will close the door of preferment against all except those who are rich enough to stand the enormous expense or those who are scoundrels willing to be syndicated and owned. This would limit office-seeking to the wrong or the corrupt, which is just exactly what we would reverse. Instead of extending the primary, it should be constricted. If there is dread or fear of the boss in politics primaries may be held for the selection of delegates, but let them go into convention free to bestow an honor upon a worthy citizen, not to engage in the purchase of a prize melon."

The primary is steadily losing its support—and it is well.

HOW POOR ARE YOU?

Man has increased everything but his power to enjoy. By a kind of irony he has multiplied the stimuli to happiness, but in doing so he has benumbed his power for responding.

Thus it happens that in every period of readjustment men and women grumble at any check on their power to indulge themselves, but are not in the least worried because they have become so satiated that every additional indulgence serves but to emphasize that discontent which always results when people value their surroundings above themselves.

When the professional wine taster has deadened his palate by overuse the remedy is not in stronger wine but in a period of refraining When a nation has gorged and petted and praised itself its restoration can only come by letting up for a while and returning to the great business of learning how to get the most out of a few things instead of the least out of many.

Economic law is now beginning to do for all men everywhere what they refused to do for themselves; it is forcing them to count somewhat on themselves for happiness and not entirely on the things with which they have surrounded themselves. There is no real disaster in this, although, still a little wild from our debauch, we may think there is. A slave, who was also one of the master minds of all time, once said: "Men are not influenced by things, but by their thoughts about things."

Times are bad when we persist in so regarding them. We are poor, though possessed of all the external requirements of pleasant living, because we are deficient not in our surroundings, but in ourselves.

The experience through which America is now passing has been repeated many times in the world's history and always with the same result. Each generation and each individual is so conceited as to say: "This is the highest calamity. How can we find happiness when the materials for happiness are no longer within our grasp?"

But in every case man has learned in his periods of readjustment (in Greece, for instance, after the abandon of the period of Pericles; in Rome after the Caesars had exhausted physical means in the pursuit of pleasure; in France after the avarice of the nobility had made them the most bored of men, and in England after the swinishness of the Stuarts had brought its own stern corrective)—he has learned that he is rich or poor in his own mind and in his own personality, rather than in things outside himself. No nation but at one time has been extremely destitute in physical assets, but it has invariably been the case that nations have done better work, have given happier expression to themselves and have advanced most when they have placed more store by brains than by bellies. They have been triumphant and glorious when they have staked brain power and will power and staying power against all outside factors.

Likewise, every individual who has amounted to much has had periods of seemingly overwhelming misfortune in one form or another, loss of goods, of health, of popularity or of what not. And yet it is precisely when his outside props fall away that the man himself begins to push out. There is nothing more clearly proven than that fortune alters, but PERSONALITY PERSISTS.

On a falling commodity market individuality goes up! As things grow scarcer man's power of appreciating and enjoying the things he has increases and expands.

Poverty, then, is within a man, not something outside of him. A man is rich only as he can enjoy riches, not as he trades his happiness for them. A man is poor, his bank account entirely apart, according to his inability to respond to the thousand and one glad voices of the world.

This is an excellent time for every man to take a personal as well as a physical inventory. Suppose each man and woman would face this simple question, "How poor am I within my own mind?" But whether a man asks that question or not, the new economic order will ask it for him and on his answer will depend his measure of happiness.

IS THE FRIDAY MORNING CLUB WORTH WHILE?

Under this heading Mrs. Shelley Tolhurst has contributed an editorial to the club's bulletin which is quite worth while.

"Only," she says, replying to her own question, "so long as it remains critical and democratic. Our very prosperity is a menace. Things overgrown become spongy, seedy, tasteless. Many seek membership who are unused to the analysis of ideas. Before them everything passes—unchallenged. Others hope for social prominence. Thank heaven, this is still a delusion. Again politics menace. From the outside certain forces seek to 'use' us in influencing public opinion. While within the doctrine grows that one who has been useful, who has worked hard, should be rewarded by official position.

"To protect the critical and democratic temper we must be severe, independent, ironic, cool, combative. Tolerance is an amiable virtue, but greater is discrimination, which seeks and proclaims reality. . . . Coming back to our own affairs: we may find it wise to use some discrimination in regulating our membership. As for me, I would maintain the financial requirements at the lowest consistent with safety, but I would raise the literacy test. And I would fine every person who utters a platitude or applauds one."

And much of the above applies equally to a great newspaper, to a city, yes, and to the nation itself. Critical, democratic, discriminating—wide, inclusive virtues that make for greatness. Some tolerance, but more discrimination. The elimination of "gratitude" for favors received as a subject of official reward. All good points well taken.

But there are earmarks of a subtle intellectual snobbery in that last precious sentence. "I would fine every person who utters a platitude or applauds one." If there be one among us who has never uttered a platitude he is original indeed. And, while Webster defines the platitude as a weak, empty trite remark, it is also true that some of the greatest truths have become the greatest platitudes, and there is often more virtue in the apt platitude than in the vain effort for originality. There is probably no more popular platitude than Lincoln's "Of the people, for the people and by the people," yet it embodies an ideal and an influence that has sustained a nation, an idea that cannot be so well expressed in any other words.

Moreover, if promotion in clubdom or anywhere else is to be restricted to the platitudinously antiseptic, it might be critical and discriminating, but certainly not democratic and perilously near the antithesis of democracy. It would make for an aristocracy of versatile intellects rather than an aristocracy of character, which is the only type that can find a place in the ideals of democracy. Great characters often create great platitudes which lesser but aspiring characters adopt and applaud. And great characters can revivify stale platitudes with new life and new meaning—who, then, shall be the censors in a club that bans them?

TWO MINUTES OF OPTIMISM.

BY HERMAN J. STICH.

Have You a Letter on Your Door?

In one of the oldest and largest universities of the country they are telling and retelling a certain incident which occurred in the life of the newly appointed president when he was a student at Amherst College—an incident which contains a lesson for every man who is looking ahead who would like to grow as well as go, who next year and the year following and the year after wants to be doing something better and bigger than what he happens to be doing at the present moment.

It seems that soon after he entered Amherst College as a freshman he put on both sides of the door of his room a large letter "V."

The presence of this letter made him the butt of all manner of damphoolish questions, exposed him to no end of ridicule and invited the kind of speculation and curiosity aroused by people classed as "queer."

Well, month followed month, semester followed semester, year followed year, and it so happened that when graduation day came around that same student with the mysterious letter on his door was chosen to deliver the class-day oration—the best class-day oration, by the way, that had ever been delivered in the history of Amherst College.

After having received the compliments of the faculty and the cheers and congratulations of his classmates for the honor bestowed upon him this student slyly led his fellow-graduates to the dormitories and there, nonchalantly, he called their attention to the letter "V" on both sides of his door, which letters all those years had met him coming and going to his room.

"Valedictory?" somebody questioned.

"Right," he replied. "I had my mind set on the valedictory from the very first day I hammered those letters on my door four years ago. You fellows have been laughing at me for the last eight terms, but the laugh's on you."

It was.

Have YOU a LETTER on YOUR DOOR?

DROLL STORIES.

The Eternal Feminine.

"Fifteen dollars, madam," was the answer.

"Fifteen dollars, and so sweet for the price," continued Mrs. Gush. "It's a dear; just exactly what I want. The color and everything just as I like it. I think I will take it, though $15—"

"Pardon me, madam," said the assistant, "I have made a mistake. This is marked only $5, not $15."

"Oh, I see. Well, show me something a little better."—[Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Famous Shaft Builders.

"Ah!" said the Yankee. "I guess my father was a clever man. He was a chimney shaft builder and made himself famous with the last shaft he erected."

"Sure thing," continued the American. "It was so high that when the weathercock became stuck the man who went up to put it right had to take a week's rations for the journey."

"Oh, ho," laughed the Englishman. "That's nothing. My father was also a shaft builder, and the last one he built was so high that he had to go up every night and take the top off to let the moon go by."—[Unidentified.

Not in Vain at All.

A tall, gaunt individual of the sort known in some parts of the South as "poor white trash" was ordered by the judge of a certain police court to stand up.

"You are," said His Honor, "accused of profanity in a public place."

"I reckon I did it, jedge," said the cracker. "A darky was tryin' to steal my hoss."

"But you should know better than to take the name of the Lord in vain."

Then They Went at It.

"I want a set of furs," he said, "a present for a lady."

Not His Fault.

Gov. Channing Cox of Massachusetts, discussing the high cost of living in France, said the other day:

"In Paris, you know, a good pair of shoes fetches $50 and a good meal about as much.

"Well, a young lawyer started on a brief vacation trip to Paris in June and he long overstayed his time. On his return in late September, a friend who knew he was none too flush said to him:

"'Why did you remain so long in Paris, Jim?'

"'My friends kept me there,' Jim answered.

"'Your friends? Why, Jim, I didn't know you have any friends in Paris.'

"'I haven't. My friends are all in Oshkosh, but they refused to send me any money.'"—[Houston Post.

A HOSPITABLE TOWN.

Thirty Pancakes Not Enough, So He Threw Skillet, Wife Testifies.

Charles S. Finney liked pancakes. Furthermore, according to his wife, Ora D. Finney, he "raised a rough house" because she did not pray to suit him, she told Judge Summerfield yesterday.

Mrs. Finney, who was granted a divorce, testified that she thought a score of pancakes enough for any man, "but after I had baked thirty for my husband, he became angry and threw a skillet at me."

"That was not enough for him?" queried the court.

"No; he wanted more," she replied.

The card was the only intimation Mr. Owen had of his wife leaving him. He said he did not know why she had gone away. He was granted a decree by Judge Walton J. Wood yesterday.

City Council Urges Contractors to Employ Native Workers.

On motion of Councilman Farmer, the City Council went on record yesterday as requesting all contractors to give preference to American citizens when employing men for public work. The Farmer resolution calls for the notification of all contractors bidding for city work of the action taken by the Council.

protective works is done on horseback twice daily, morning and evening. Below mile seven, where it has been possible to place the rock revetment there is considerable seepage and the levee is becoming saturated, but there is no danger of a break, according to Mr. Cronholm.

The consensus of opinion of the irrigation district offices today was that conditions are more hopeful than they have been at any time for the past several days, and Mr. Cronholm's report occasioned a general feeling of optimism.

Irrigation district directors have voted to construct a railroad line two miles long from a deserted quarry to the Ockerson levee for the purpose of hauling rock to strengthen the dike. The sum of $20,000 was appropriated for the construction work.

NUXATED IRON

WEAK NERVES AND THIN BLOOD

RUIN HEALTH OF THOUSANDS WITHOUT THEIR EVER SUSPECTING THE REAL CAUSE OF THEIR TROUBLE—IRON STARVATION

An enormous number of people who ought to be strong, vigorous and in the prime of life are constantly complaining of weak nerves, headaches, pains across the back, disturbed digestion, shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart, a general "run-down" condition, melancholy, bad memory, etc., all as a result of iron starvation of the blood.

There are 30,000,000,000,000 red blood corpuscles in your blood and each one must have iron. Without iron your blood also loses its power to change food into living cells and tissue, and nothing you eat does you the proper amount of good—you do not get the full strength out of it and as a consequence you become greatly weakened both in body and mind.

If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained.

Over 4,000,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach, because it is organic iron like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, and not metallic iron which people usually take. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain satisfactory results. Beware of substitutes. Look for the word "Nuxated" on every package and the letters N.I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.—[Advertisements.

BEACH TO BAN GERMAN FILMS.

City Commission Pledges Aid to American Legion.

Friends Find No Trace of Missing Broker.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

LONG BEACH, June 14.—The City Commission today indorsed the campaign of the American Legion against German films. The board of censors will be instructed to do whatever possible to prevent the showing of motion pictures objectionable to the patriotic interests of the community.

The subject came before the legislative body in a resolution from Arthur L. Peterson Post, No. 27, asking the assistance of the municipal board in barring certain pictures which it is asserted hold up to ridicule two rulers of countries allied with the United States in the war against Germany. All commissioners expressed a desire to go to the extent of their powers in closing local theaters to such subjects. It was noted that one of the questionable pictures had already been shown here.

UNUSUAL OPERATION.

Barbara Woods, 18 months old child of Mr. and Mrs. E. Woods of Wilmington, will be operated upon tonight in an effort to remove a safety pin swallowed by the infant this afternoon. The obstruction has lodged at the head of the stomach. Dr. Burns Chaffee is in charge of the case. The baby is at the Seaside Hospital.

SHOCK CAUSES DEATH

Shock from the death of her father August Knoor, noted European and American mural artist, who died Sunday, is advanced as the reason for the death today of Mrs. Antoinette Smith, his daughter with whom he had been making his home. Mrs. Smith succumbed to an attack of heart failure from which she had been suffering since news of her father's demise in a local hospital was delivered to her. Besides her immediate family, Mrs. Smith is survived by three sisters, Mrs J. R. Silverthorn of Long Beach, Mrs. A. Hinkel of Long Beach, Mrs. A. A. Silverthorn, a sister in Salem, Ind., and her mother. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at Holton & Sons. Burial will be in Sunnyside.

PASTOR PASSES AWAY.

Rev. W. N. Fletcher, aged 67, for forty years a clergyman in the active service of the Baptist Church, died today. He was pastor of the Baptist Church at Calexico and came here for his health just one week ago. He had been in charge of the Calexico church for three years and before that has been at Hanford, Cal., a number of years. Previous to that time he had resided in Michigan. He is survived by the widow who is in this city; two sons, E. N. Fletcher of Sanger, Cal.; Rev. A. A. Fletcher of Frankfort, Ind., and a brother, C. H. Fletcher of Bedford, Iowa.

Funeral service at the Burum & Baker chapel at 2 p.m. Wednesday, will be conducted by Rev. J. P. Beer of Pomona and Rev. Walter Reed of Corona. Interment will be made at Sunnyside Cemetery.

FEAR FOR THE WORST.

Search of the places frequented in the past by James B. Lill, former wealthy broker of this city, who is believed to have leaped from the Pine-avenue pier sometime yesterday morning, failed to reveal any trace of the man. According to W. A. Elliott, superintendent of the Bethel Mission at 1116 East Fourth street, and who had been taking care of Lill for some weeks past, there is little hope that the man did not end his life.

SERIOUS INJURY.

Mrs. N. L. Roberts, 32 years old, a nurse, residing at First street and American avenue, was perhaps fatally injured today when struck by an automobile driven by C. T. Smith. The accident occurred at Seventeenth street and Atlantic avenue, where Mrs. Roberts had just alighted from a jitney bus. A possible fractured skull and internal injuries were suffered by the nurse.

Big Freighter Makes Way Slowly to Local Harbor.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, June 14.—The giant Luckenbach Line freighter Harry Luckenbach, which is today six days overdue from New York, by way of the Panama Canal, is proceeding slowly up the Mexican coast with her engines disabled, according to a wireless report received here today.

The big freighter, one of the largest in the service between New York and the local harbor, left Balboa for this port on May 30, and was due here on June 8. The reason for the failure of the steamer to arrive remained a mystery until today when Capt. Sears wirelessed that the vessel's turbines were badly disabled, but that she could make port without assistance.

Hermosa Chamber of Commerce Holds Important Meeting.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

HERMOSA BEACH, July 14.—The Hermosa Beach Chamber of Commerce has taken on a new lease of life as was demonstrated at Monday evening's meeting. A number of new members were added to the membership, in which was included a number of the public-spirited women. A committee was appointed to prepare a program for a grand Fourth of July celebration. Action has also been taken for a free mail delivery service which the increased population and postoffice receipts fully warrant. Several municipal improvements are listed, which the chamber intends to carry through in the near future.

Over 100 building permits have been issued since the first of January, and are still being issued at the rate of twenty a month.

Several public buildings have been erected and others planned. The new Mathews block on the corner of Pier and Hermosa avenues is going up rapidly and will be ready for occupancy by early fall. The paving of Loma Drive of several blocks will soon be under way, and other improvements along the line will follow.

AUSTRIAN "COUNT" IN JAIL AT REDLANDS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, June 14.—W. D. Scheldon, known in Big Bear Valley as "The Count," said to be of an aristocratic family of Austria, languishes in the County Jail on a moonshine charge. He is said to have confessed to having owned and operated the largest whisky still ever uncovered in this county.

Scheldon owned a cabin on the side of the hill. Apparently it was not large enough to house a still, but underneath was a large basement where the equipment was in operation. When it was raided 200 gallons of corn mash were found and about twenty-five gallons of moonshine whisky.

Scheldon maintains he had no partner. Gasoline under pressure was used for fuel and the overflow from the still was sunk in a hidden canyon.

TEACHERS TRADE JOBS.

Pasadena Professor Goes to Schools of Oakland.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

PASADENA, June 14.—The biggest exchange yet made in the practice of "exchange professorships" begun in Pasadena public schools last year was announced this afternoon.

J. Andrew Ewing, principal of Madison and Franklin elementary schools, will exchange places in the fall with C. A. Wheeler, principal of an elementary school at Oakland.

The exchange is for one year, and was arranged by Superintendent West of Pasadena, and Superintendent Hunter of Oakland. It was approved by Pasadena school board late today.

Ewing has just completed his first year in the Pasadena schools. He came here from Oakland where he was assistant high school principal.

Culinary Expert Explains His Methods of Cooking.

Southern and New England Dishes Featured.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

ATLANTIC CITY, June 7.—On the Boardwalk facing the Atlantic one will find the world's greatest resort hotels, hotels that represent all that is modern in construction for the housing of thousands of guests, both winter and summer.

Some of the chefs in charge of the catering departments of these famous hotels are known throughout the world as masters of the culinary art, and one would expect to find many new and novel dishes on their menus, but I was more than surprised to find that in a majority of the cafes and dining rooms the dishes featured were of the old New England and Southern schools of cookery, cooked and served as we seldom find them in their native sections.

At one of the best hotels, shell fish, fresh fish, poultry and desserts as served in the South are featured, and I will give the recipes that are the most popular.

SALAD DRESSING.

For a salad dressing served with chilled hearts of lettuce, mash very fine in a bowl the yolk of one hard-boiled egg and add to it half a teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of mustard and one tablespoonful of tarragon vinegar; mix well and beat in slowly two-thirds of a cup of sweet cream, beat until thick. Dress hearts of lettuce with this dressing and garnish strips of pimento and sliced hard-boiled egg.

SEA FOOD COCKTAIL.

One of the most popular appetizers is a sea food cocktail. For this one should have the supreme glasses; place on the ice in the outer glass two whole, peeled, cooked shrimps, two nice pieces of lobster, two crab claws and tdo raw oysters or small clams and in the small center glass pour a sauce made by mixing six tablespoonfuls of chili sauce with three tablespoonfuls of mayonnaise, two teaspoonfuls of chopped mustard pickle, half a teaspoonful of grated onion, one teaspoonful of chopped parsley, one teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, a little lemon juice and a seasoning of salt and paprika. Small soup plates filled with cracked ice and a sherbet glass set in the center can be used in place of the supreme glasses.

LOBSTER DISH.

A novelty is lobster meat served in miniature copper saucepans that hold about two-thirds of a cup, the dish is called "casserolette of lobster Parisienne." To prepare, cook in salted water one cupful each of baby lima beans, small green peas, diced celery and diced carrots; when cooked, cool and mix lightly with a lemon French dressing. Place two tablespoonfuls of this mixture in the bottom of a small individual casserolette or earthenware ramikin and over this place large pieces of cooked lobster, crab or shrimps. Cover with a Hollandaise sauce and sprinkle with chopped parsley and paprika.

For the Hollandaise sauce beat to a cream half a cupful of sweet butter and beat into it two well-beaten egg yolks, one tablespoonful of lemon juice and a seasoning of salt and paprika. Place this mixture in a double boiler, add half a cupful of boiling water and stir over the fire until as thick as custard. Cool and use on the above dish.

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE.

Strawberry shortcake, Virginia style, is so good that I wonder why so many caterers insist on making this most delicious of all fresh fruit desserts with a poor piece of sponge cake, very few berries and some near-whipped cream. Here they make a dough of three cupfuls of flour sifted with five level teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one teaspoonful of salt and one tablespoonful of sugar; rub into this six tablespoonfuls of butter and when it is well rubbed in add one and a third cupfuls of milk and mix to a smooth dough. Turn out on a board and divide in two pieces, place each piece in a cake pan and pat out with a floured hand until it fills the pan, brush with melted butter and bake in a quick oven. Mash one quart of strawberries in a bowl with half a cupful of sugar and spread between the baked layers and pour part over the top. Cut in pie-shaped pieces and pass with it some thick cream. That is the way grandma made short cake.

SOCIETY.

BY VIRGINIA WOODS.

St. Agnes Church Wedding.

St. Agnes Church this morning is to be a floral bower of pink gladiola and palms illuminated with tall Cathedral candles, for the marriage of Miss Katherine Strickler and Alfred H. Wilcox.

The ceremony will be performed at 10 o'clock by Father Truxam, who will also celebrate the nuptial mass. Three hundred guests have been invited to the church.

Miss Strickler will go to the altar on the arm of her father, Willard S. Strickler, a retired banker of Alberquerque, N. M. She will wear an imported lingerie frock of sheer embroidery, combined with Irish crocket and filet lace and with it will wear a long tulle veil edged with rose point lace and hung from a becoming cap of the lace. She will carry a shower bouquet of white orchids, lilies of the valley and gardenia.

Mrs. Sayre Macneil, niece of the bridegroom, who is to serve as matron of honor will be frocked in lavender organdie while Miss Louise Burke as maid of honor will wear a gown of blue organdie. Both will wear hats to match and will carry lavender orchids made into shower bouquets.

Robert L. Coleman of Burlingame is to serve Mr. Wilcox as best man while the ushers are Miss Strickler's two brothers, Willard M. and Samuel K. Strickler, Carlton Burke, William S. Hook, Jr., Barbee Hook, Sydney I. Wailes, Russell McDonnell Taylor, Ignacio L. Mott of Burlingame, Wilcox Drake and Sayre Macnell. Capt. and Mrs. Randolph Huntington Miner, brother-in-law and sister of Mr. Wilcox could not come from Washington, for the wedding, but Mrs. M. E. Manning and Miss Ruth Richards of Coronado came up yesterday and are house guests of Miss Burke. After the ceremony 150 guests will assemble at Miss Burke's home for a reception. The house is being handsomely adorned with American Beauty roses.

Weds Bay City Man.

A beautiful wedding at St. Vincent's Church yesterday morning united in marriage Mrs. Patricia Henshaw, fascinating young matron of this city and Carlo Sutro Morbio, scion of an old Spanish family of San Francisco. Rev. Father Tonnelo performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass—the wedding party standing around the altar inside the chancel, which was hidden in pink gladiola and palms and ferns with lighted cathedral candles adding much to the picture.

The bride, who is one of the most popular and talented young women in town, went to the altar in an exquisite hand-made gown of filet lace and flesh colored Georgette and wore a hat of flesh colored tulle trimmed with silver ribbon. Her bouquet was of pale pink butterfly roses. Miss Alberto Morbio of San Francisco, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, wore rose pink silk with hat and slippers to match and carried a sheaf of long-stemmed roses. Mrs. George Adrian Applegarth of San Francisco, matron of honor, was gowne in orchid silk with hat and slippers to match and carried pink roses. Lionel Alanson of San Francisco served as best man. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry O'Connor of Oakland were here for the wedding and so was the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Pio Alberto Morbio, and his sister, Mme. Marguerite de Mailly, also of the Bay City. The couple left for a motor trip. They will reside at 874 Saxon avenue, Westwood Park, San Francisco. The bride, who is the widow of the late Tyler Tubbs Henshaw, is a daughter-in-law of U. S. District Judge Henshaw of San Francisco and is unusually talented, having a remarkably fine voice. During the war she served overseas with the Red Cross and later as an entertainer with the Y.M.C.A. The groom is a brilliant attorney and club man of the Bay City and is a grandson of the late Adolph Sutro, one of the most notable figures of early days in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Henneberger Hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Henneberger were hosts at a dinner party last evening in the Cocoanut Grove, at the Ambassador.

To Reside in Santo Domingo.

Dr. Benjamin Harry Hager, son of Mrs. Mary C. Hager, 5935 Benner street, this city, who was married on May 26, in Washington, D. C., to Miss Doris Petrola, by the chaplain of the naval base at Hampton Roads, Va., is to take his bride to Santa Domingo, where he is in charge of the United States Military Hospital. He has many friends here interested in news of his marriage. He was graduated from Los Angeles High School and from the University of Chicago and Rush Medical College.

Leave for Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Huntington left last evening for New York, whence they will sail early next month for France to spend the summer at their villa at Versailles.

Farewell Tea Held.

To say au revoir to her friends before leaving for Europe, Miss Caroline Eshman yesterday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Eshman, gave a tea, to which there were 150 guests bidden. Assisting her were Misses Katherine Wigmore, Susanne Weld, Florence McGarry, Beatrice Ward, Katherine Burnand, Agnes Eisenmayer, Katherine Adams, Eleanor Booth and Ellsworth Tracy. Miss Eshman but a few days ago returned from Smith College to say farewell to her friends before leaving. She will be accompanied abroad by Lady Duvees of New York and most of her time will be spent in England. She will return to America in the autumn.

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Laura A. Kirkman

Exterminating Household Pests.

In the summertime, more than in the cold months, the housekeeper must be on guard constantly against household pests. The following means of extermination may prove of use to her:

Flies: We all realize, today, that flies are one of our most deadly enemies. They carry disease germs on their feet, causing typhoid fever and other infections. The house should be well screened against them, and oil of lavendar may be embroidery, combined with Irish crocket and filet lace and with it will wear a long tulle veil edged with rose point lace and hung from a becoming cap of the lace. She will carry a shower bouquet of white orchids, lilies of the valley and gardenia.

Mosquitoes: These pests have caused much disease. Malaria, elephantiases, blood poisoning and yellow fever have been traced directly to them. Screen the porch if possible, otherwise apply to the hands, ankles and face (sparingly) a mixture of oil of cedar and citronella in equal quantities; or spray this mixture on the skin by means of an atomizer. And try to find their breeding places about the home.

Mosquitoes breed in water—sometimes in a rain barrel, sometimes in ponds and pools, sometimes in tin cans with water in them. Drain or fill in with dirt such bodies of water when possible; or pour a layer of kerosene on top the water during the warm weather; still another way is to put fish into the water, which will eat the mosquitoes.

Cockroaches: Dissolve a small lump of alum in a quart of hot water and pour this into their hiding places. A little carbolic acid (a deadly poison) mixed with a quantity of hot water will also kill them, although several applications may be necessary to get rid of them. Have your druggist make the preparation for you.

Ants: Place the legs of the refrigerator, kitchen table and kitchen cabinet in saucers or pans containing a little water and pour kerosene oil on top the water. Alum and carbolic solutions may be used for ants as well as for roaches. Washing pantry shelves in strong alum water will frequently drive them away.

Mice: These pests are hosts for fleas. Their holes should be filled up with plaster of paris. Sometimes ordinary kitchen soap may be used to fill in a small mouse hole. Sprinkle sulphur about in closets, bureau drawers and about their holes, and you will be no longer troubled by them.

Bedbugs: The best way is to tear off wall paper and paint the walls, stain or paint the floors, rip off picture moldings, enamel all the furniture, fill up wall cracks with patching plaster and the holes in baseboards with putty (painted over)—in fact, do over the entire room so that not a single crannie remains in which the bugs are still hiding or through which they may enter the room again.

Otherwise one must wage eternal warfare with chloride of lime or with naphtha (which is inflammable, so cannot be used near heat or flame.) Here is a good home-made bedbug poison: Mix together one-half pint each of turpentine and alcohol, and add one ounce of salammoniac; let stand in a warm place for a few days, when the mixture will be ready for use.

Mrs. E. J. H. Answer: The above information concerning mice and bedbugs answers your letter. I would advise you to redecorate the room, as I have suggested above, for the bugs.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or shorter reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be inclosed with the question.—[The Editor.]

The Daily Fun Hour.

BY HONOR WALSH.

SHIP AHOY!

This is another ship game. (Land Ho appeared in an earlier Daily Fun Hour.) The players have pencils and paper ready when the Shipmaster calls out the "Ships" to be named. As each player finds the answer he calls out "Log ready." The Shipmaster allows a few minutes to each ship, and those who have not found it by that time are put in "irons," that is, condemned to pay forfeit. The Shipmaster may use the following list (the answers to which are printed at the end:)

1—A ship that was once a village. 2—A ship found in church. 3—A ship that goes with poverty. 4—A ship belonging to a family. 5—A ship that comes before marriage. 6—A ship of the first century. 7—A legal ship. 8—A ship of ancient Greece. 9—An ecclesiastical ship. 10—A sociable ship.

The player guessing the largest number of correct answers most promptly becomes Shipmaster on the next round, when he also may announce ten "ships" to be entered into the logs of the players, as follows:

11—A royal ship. 12—A ship of chums. 13—The ship of a peer. 14—The ship of a rider. 15—The ship of responsibility. 16—A newspaper ship. 17—A navigator's ship. 18—A ship of the republic. 19—A skillful ship. 20—A learner's ship.

Answers: 1—Township. 2—Worship. 3 — Hardship. 4 — Kinship. 5—Courtship. 6—Apostleship. 7—Judgeship. 8—Fireship. 9—Pastorship. 10—Fellowship. 11—Kinship. 12—Comradeship. 13—Lordship. 14—Horsemanship. 15—Stewardship. 16—Editorship. 17—Seamanship. 18—Citizenship. 19—Workmanship. 20—Apprenticeship.

GREATER SOUTHER... CALIFORN...

1802 HOOPER AVE.

Dear Folks:

Sixty bakers make the HOLSUM Bread that is on sixty thousand Southern California tables every day. Every one of these men is a partner in the business, sharing profits the same as the boss of the plant.

Being partners in the business makes every mother's son of them realize that he is personally responsible for turning out the best loaf of bread that can be made. He knows that he must keep up HOLSUM'S standard if his profits are going to keep on and keep growing.

So you see the credit for HOLSUM'S goodness isn't mine. It belongs equally to the sixty men who work WITH me in making the cleanest, purest loaf ever put into an oven. They make HOLSUM "The Quality Loaf" because they work under conditions that make every man do his best.

All this makes for better living conditions, happier homes, and an interest in the welfare of our community.

Holsumly yours,

F. B. Bienbaumer

Superintendent of Bakery

HOLD LICKER ON LIQUOR CHARGE.

Man Said to Have Sold Too "Stout" Cider Falls at Size of His Bond.

What's in a name?

Reuben Licker and his wife, who keep a cider establishment at 801 Mott street, were arraigned yesterday before U. S. Commissioner Long on the charge of selling the juice of the apple carrying an alcoholic content in excess of one-half of 1 per cent. Licker's bond was fixed at $1500, and that of his wife at $500.

Twenty-one 50-gallon barrels of cider, a quantity of bottled cider, a lot of brandy and other liquors were found at the place, it is charged.

Mrs. Licker said she kept the cider for her rheumatism, "taking a spoonful once in a while." Her husband railed at the size of the bond. He admitted that he sold cider and said that when it got a bit stout he mixed it with sweet cider to keep it within the law. The hearing was set for June 20.

County Unable to Buy Highway Issue as Agreed.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, June 14.—Although the State Highway Commission has gone ahead with the work of paving a highway between Flynn Springs and Viejas, on the way to Imperial Valley, San Diego county will be unable to purchase $150,000 worth of State highway bonds to pay for the work.

Following a meeting some months ago between the Board of Supervisors, the committee from the State Highway Commission and representatives of the local banks, the Supervisors drew up a set of resolutions agreeing to purchase $150,000 worth of the bonds for the purpose of paving between Flynn Springs and Viejas. In the resolutions it was agreed by the Supervisors to expend that sum provided there was a sufficient amount of money in the sinking fund. The Supervisors have been informed by the treasurer that there is no money in the county sinking fund to purchase the bonds.

Findings Signed by Wrong Judge in Divorce Case.

Judge Burnell held yesterday in the divorce case of Walter Partridge against Mary E. Partridge that the signing of findings and judgment by a judge other than the one who tried the case constitutes a mistrial. As a result he granted a motion for a new trial.

At the trial of the Partridge divorce case before Judge Taft some time ago, a decree was denied the plaintiff. No findings and judgment were signed before Judge Taft retired from the bench. After his retirement, the findings and judgment were taken to Judge Shenk to sign. He signed them because of the fact that the trial judge had retired from the bench. Judge Burnell held that the findings and judgment should be signed by the judge trying the case.

BASE OF BOOST CAMPAIGN LAID.

Club to Spread Southland's Fame Through Nation.

Purposes of Drive Indorsed at Large Meeting.

Year-Around Superiority of Climate to be Told.

Groundwork for the project to acquaint all America with the superiority of Southern California as a section of delight both summer and winter, not only for tourists but for those who wisely select the Southland as a place in which to live, was firmly laid at a well-attended meeting yesterday of the All-Year-'Round Club in the Chamber of Commerce Building. The proposed educational campaign, tentative outline of the organization and the personnel were set forth and indorsed. The purposed campaign was heartily approved by representatives from several outside communities as well as those of Los Angeles.

G. Harold Powell, general manager of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, was chosen chairman of the executive committee, which will have supervision of the campaign. Harry Chandler, president of The Times-Mirror Company, was selected vice-chairman and the following other names appear on the list presented to the meeting yesterday: Frank Barham, John J. Byrne, Edward A. Dickson, Daniel H. Jones, Harry W. O'Melveny, Henry M. Robinson, Frank Ryan, G. A. Sholem, Sylvester L. Weaver and George G. Young.

Mr. Jones presided at the session and called on Mr. Chandler to open the meeting with a summary of the purposes of the campaign. Declaring that although Southern California has amazed the nation in being the one "white spot" in the country during the recent financial depression, Mr. Chandler cautioned that this community cannot hope to live on reputation alone, but must keep the rest of the United States constantly informed of its advantages.

NEEDS STUDIED.

For this purpose the All-Year-'Round Club of Southern California has been formed and has devoted considerable time and energy to constructive study of how the campaign can best be conducted. The enlistment of all Southern California counties except San Diego in a co-operative effort to inform all tourists of the unusual attractiveness of Southern California summer time has been started, Mr. Chandler informed the meeting. He also mentioned approval of the project by the County Supervisors, who have set aside $10,000 for the fund, and told of similar projects now under way by San Francisco and San Diego.

C. G. Milham, executive secretary, set out in detail plans the organization committee has worked out, including a three-year budget, set at $357,000 annually. The first point decided upon, he explained, is that the co-operation of all Southern California is essential and that the movement will be of great advantage to the entire region.

TEMPORARY BUDGET.

A temporary budget of assessments was the next move with the sum of $253,000 selected to be raised by the various trade groups and organizations, $5000 by individuals, $42,000 by outside counties and $30,000 by cities outside of Los Angeles. Such are the recommendations of the ways and means committee on which Mr. Jones as chairman was assisted by A. S. Edmonds, Clinton E. Miller, G. A. Sholem and J. H. Pearman.

More than $25,000 of this amount has either been definitely pledged or promised on good authority. At least that amount is "in sight and can be counted on," according to the announcement of Mr. Milham. The indorsement of the campaign by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and the Los Angeles Realty Board has been made. Sylvester Weaver, president of the Chamber of Commerce personally pledged the support and co-operation of the organization.

ON GARBAGE MISSION.

Public Works Commissioner to Study Eastern Disposal Systems.

Public Works Commissioner Treat will leave Los Angeles about July 1 to make, at his own expense, a thorough study of garbage and sewage disposal systems in operation in eastern cities. On his return he will make a report to the Board of Public Works on the results obtained in other cities and recommendations as to the possible adoption here of any of the methods used elsewhere.

Authority to issue $3,500,000 in bonds to reimburse its treasury after the completion of extensions and other improvements in its system was granted yesterday to the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation by the State Railroad Commission, according to word received yesterday from San Francisco.

The request for such authority was presented to the commission on Saturday by Chief Counsel Paul Overton. William Baurhyte, vice-president of the corporation, declared yesterday that additional funds are required to enable the company to keep pace with the rapid growth of the city and the accompanying expansion in the gas service which that growth entails.

"Every Picture Tells a Story"

Are You as Well as You Should Be?

It isn't right for one to always feel tired, weak—all worn out! Yet how many folks are always ailing, but seldom sick enough to be in bed?

Are you one of these unfortunates? Do you suffer daily backache and stabbing pains—feel old and stiff; worn out and discouraged? You shouldn't! June is a trying month to be so miserable. You ought to be well and the best way to get well is to find out what is making you ailing.

You should look, then, to, your kidneys. Your kidneys are the blood filters. Without them you could not live a single day. It's little wonder, then, that when the kidneys fall behind you suffer constant backache, rheumatic pains and urinary irregularities; that your head aches, you are tired, dizzy, nervous and depressed.

But don't worry! Just take things easier for awhile and help the weakened kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have brought new health and strength to thousands. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

These Los Angeles people speak:

J. C. RUSSELL, 414 S. Gates St., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for kidney complaint. They relieved the backache all the time I used them and the attacks of lumbago or rheumatic pains never returned. They always act irregularly when my kidneys are out of order. They always act promptly and strengthening my back and kidneys. I do not know of any remedy equal to Doan's Kidney Pills for backache and kidney complaint."

GUSTAV GREENEWALD, 627 Ceres Ave., says: "My left kidney was particularly painful and some attacks of the complaint were more serious than others. At one time I was perfectly helpless. Thinking it might be lumbago or rheumatic pains, I treated for these ailments using hot irons, plasters, and other home remedies, but found no relief. I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and after using two boxes I was absolutely cured."

OVER FIVE YEARS LATER, Mr. Greenewald said: "My faith in Doan's Kidney Pills grows stronger every day of my life. Doan's cured me of a terrible case of kidney trouble and I have had no complaint since."

O DEATH! WHERE IS THY STING?

Dream of Triumph Broken by Size of "Rival."

There are no disappointments, no joys, no sorrows and no tragedies as great as those of youth. For in all man's life, the days of the 'teens are the most real, the most impressive and—the funniest. With this as a prologue, let the curtain rise on the crowning life tragedy of Llewellyn Scott, 16, and romantic.

In Llewellyn's life was a mystery woman. She is a mystery to the police, for the lad refused to divulge her name. She is a mystery to Llewellyn because—well, all women are mysteries anyhow. But Llewellyn loved. He loved with the undying devotion of his years, and while he loved well, perhaps it was not wisely.

Just a few brief days ago with joyous heart he saw the girl, as was his custom. The two talked of parties, long trousers, school and summer vacations, as men and women of such years are apt to do. And at the end of the conversation the girl gave the boy a note to give to another boy, the well-known hated rival.

READS LETTER.

Llewellyn was doubtful. He wanted to please the girl, but enough was enough. He decided to read the letter. He did. Then, with a great desire to be of service to the girl and save her from an undoubtedly terrible end, he decided to destroy the letter as he did not consider it a proper note for a girl of 15 to write to a boy.

For a few hours the glamour and glory of heroism surged in Llewellyn's heart. He pictured himself as a knight of old standing with lifted sword over the prostrate body of "the hated rival" while that individual begged for mercy; and the girl came and threw her arms about him and pleaded for the life of the unworthy one. Finally he yielded and the "villain" slinked off into oblivion.

But this dream was halted by an ever-growing fear that all was not well. In the first place, the "villain" was bigger than Llewellyn, which sometimes affects even the stoutest heart. As days passed, the feeling that possessed Llewellyn grew until it had reached that vital spot at the knees which causes them to shake and quiver unnecessarily. Then came the great decision.

IN RECEIVING HOSPITAL.

From this point on Llewellyn's story is questioned somewhat by the physicians at the Receiving Hospital along certain technical lines. Llewellyn says that he could stand it no longer and took a quantity of laudanum, intending to shift this mortal coil. The doctors say that what he probably took was argyrol, which didn't cause him to shift anything. Anyway he was found lying in an undignified position at Eighth street and Wilton Place where he thought he was about to take a pair of wings and fly to another world.

He was taken to the hospital where the doctors made him as good as new. Then he went to his home at 800 Third avenue. And so Llewellyn's great tragedy almost ended. But he now sits and fears that sometime, somehow, the newspapers may find out about it.

Council to Get Official Notice of Gift of Land.

Official notification will be received by the City Council today of the gift of George H. Peck of three acres of land in the Grand View tract between Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets, at Los Angeles Harbor for a public park and playground. It is expected the gift will be accepted with the thanks of the city. The deed conveying to the city the nineteen lots donated by Mr. Peck was received at the City Hall yesterday from the Los Angeles Harbor Chamber of Commerce, and President E. D. Seward and Chairman C. J. Colden of the city planning committee of that organization state that the plan for a park in the district meets with their hearty approval. The land is valued at between $10,000 and $15,000, and is given to the city without restrictions, except that it be used for public park purposes.

(Note—This is the foreword of a series of articles to be written especially for The Times by Ira W. Wolfe, retired manufacturer of wireless instruments and a qualified expert in the subject. The great strides being made in this branch of electrical science make the articles of timely interest.—Ed.)

BY IRA W. WOLFE.

I have been asked so many times: "What is wireless telegraphy and how does it work?" that I feel quite sure that this story, which will be printed in the succeeding issues of The Times, will find a welcome among those who wish to know something about electricity, telegraphy and wireless telegraphy, and who are not far enough advanced in science to study a more technical work, or are too busy to read a more lengthy work on the subject. I would suggest that you cut out these stories and keep them as a permanent record by pasting on a sheet of paper 8½ by 11 and number the sheets so you will have a complete book in looseleaf form on the various subjects to be treated in this department. In connection with this story I promised The Times that I would describe several of the wireless instruments used in receiving and sending of wireless messages, so that you can build your own apparatus. This description will reveal a great many of the manufacturing and trade secrets that have been used in connection with my business, the Williamsburg Wireless Telegraph and Telephone Apparatus Manufacturing Company. I will tell you through the columns of this newspaper how you can build a complete receiving set for $6.75 that retailed for $42.50, and will enable you to receive messages from 300 to 800 miles. I will also tell you how to make your own complete sending set for $11.75 that retailed for $86 and will enable you to send messages from forty-five to 250 miles. We want all those interested to form a club, of which this department will be a sort of official organ for the amateur wireless operators of Greater Southern California. Come on, let's go. Let's make this a real live and interesting department for the American boy interested in the science of electricity and wireless telegraphy. Thank you.

Ira W. Wolfe

And some of the various wireless instruments which he has invented and manufactured.

SOCIETY IS INTERESTED IN WEDDING.

Mrs. Caroline S. Bonnell of Coronado Bride of Irving Snyder, Denver Veteran.

The marriage of Mrs. Caroline S. Bonnell and Irving Snyder of Coronado, which was celebrated here Friday, interests society in Los Angeles, Coronado and several eastern cities, said advices yesterday from San Diego. Mrs. Bonnell and Commander and Mrs. John Towers were returning from a visit in San Francisco and were met Friday in Los Angeles by Mr. Snyder. The four visited a justice of the peace and Mrs. Bonnell and Mr. Snyder were married quietly Friday, the Towers going to San Diego and the bride and bridegroom remaining in Los Angeles a few days.

The bride is the divorced wife of Charles A. Bonnell. With her two children, Henry and Barbara, she has been living in Coronado in the Leslie Moon house, which she bought. Mr. Snyder and his two sons, Gilford and Irving, have lived at the Hotel Del Coronado for two years. Mr. Snyder's home is in Denver, but he has been in Coronado since his return from overseas service.

Mrs. Snyder is a sister of John Stambaugh, whose marriage to Mrs. Drusilla Love, another Coronado woman and an intimate friend of Mrs. Bonnell, took place Monday in Chicago. Mrs. Stambaugh, Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Francis Marlin Malle, formerly Mrs. Pauline Bennett Gates, were all close friends in Coronado and were prominent in society. Mrs. Gates and Lieut. Malle were married June 4 in New York City.

The former home of Mrs. Snyder was Youngstown, O. Her brother, Mr. Stambaugh, and his bride will live in Youngstown.

SEEKS MAINTENANCE.

Wife Charges Spouse is Constantly in Company of Other Women.

Declaring that he is constantly in the company of other women, Mrs. Juanita M. Cohen yesterday sued J. Warde Cohen for separate maintenance, asking support of $100 a week. Mrs. Cohen declares in her complaint, prepared by Attorneys Griffith Jones and John Craig, that one letter received by her husband was addressed "My Own," and ended with "All my love to you, dear boy. Affectionately, Jack."

Cruelty is charged in the complaint. One incident is cited in which Mr. Cohen is charged with having kicked his wife. He is a traveling salesman for a San Francisco millinery house and earns a salary of $500 a week.

SPEND a week-end entirely different. Motor to Hotel Arlington, Santa Barbara. Scenic Coast Highway all the way.

Union Station Opposed to Discourage Competition, Says Will D. Gould.

Maintaining that the Plaza terminal decision of the State Railroad Commission is just and according to law, and that such an improvement as the Plaza terminal will best serve the needs of the railroads and the city, Will D. Gould, president of the Northwest Improvement Association, has prepared a broadside which he will fire at the four local railroads when the commission listens to arguments here at 10 a.m. tomorrow on their application for a rehearing.

Mr. Gould declared yesterday that when the first railroad came to this city it opposed the coming of another, and when there were two they opposed the coming of a third. Now, he says, four railroads are standing shoulder to shoulder in opposition to a union terminal which would serve their respective needs fairly and economically. He interprets this as further manifestation of corporation selfishness, pointing out that by keeping away from unionization the roads discourage other lines which might be planning to come here.

"During the last fifty years the population of this city has doubled six times," Mr. Gould says, "and it doubled the last time as quickly as it did the first time. It will double its size several more times in another fifty years, reaching from mountains to sea, and when such growth is attained the people will be glad that the State Railroad Commission had the union terminal built at the Plaza."

It is the prediction of Mr. Gould, who speaks for countless citizens as well as for several business organizations, that the commission will not waver from the course which it mapped out when it issued its order, April 26, commanding the railroads to proceed with the elimination of grade crossings and the construction of an adequate union passenger station at the Plaza.

CHANGE MEANS DELAY.

Tomorrow's hearing will decide whether or not the Plaza project is to be tied up in the courts for an indefinite length of time. If the commission stands by its original order swift progress is expected by Chief Engineer Osborne of the Board of Public Utilities. If a rehearing of the case is granted considerable delay may be expected, Mr. Osborne thinks.

It is understood that the railroads expect to insist upon a rehearing of the entire proceedings, and that they will set up the complaint that the decision was reached hastily because the commission, they say, worked overtime for several weeks in order to review the testimony and reach a decision for the sake of expediting the work.

A point which will be emphasized by the railroads, if the case is reopened, is that while the commission has authority over grade crossings, it does not, they declare, have jurisdiction in the matter of requiring unification of terminal facilities. This authority is delegated to the Interstate Commerce Commission through the Transportation Act, the railroads say. The Interstate Commerce Commission has already gone on record as being favorable to union terminals.

AUTO DEATH ACCIDENTAL.

Coroner Nance yesterday signed a certificate of accidental death in the case of Clarence Brown of Pomona, who was killed Monday on the Newhall grade when his car skidded and tipped over. The body was taken yesterday to the morgue of Todd & Patterson of Pomona.

EASTERN LINES AGREE TO CUT.

Railways All Accept Slice in Rates on Melons.

Apples and Vegetables Will Also be Benefitted.

Colorado Reports Cantaloupe Loss as Flood Result.

With 10,000 carloads of cantaloupes to market this season, Imperial Valley melon growers yesterday hailed with enthusiasm the announcement that eastern railroads have concurred in the fruit and vegetable freight rate reduction recently proposed by steam roads with terminals here.

The reductions range from 3 to 33 1-3 per cent, and will apply to such commodities as melons, apples, and vegetables grown in this State and the Pacific Northwest. The rate on cantaloupes will drop from $2 to $1.70 per hundredweight, and will remain in effect to the end of this year.

Announcement that eastern carriers concurred in the proposed reduction was made yesterday by A. S. Edmonds, general traffic manager of the Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railway. The Interstate Commerce Commission has already consented to the reduction as an emergency or relief measure.

WITHIN FEW DAYS.

The railroads are expected to announce a schedule of the new rates within a few days and to name the date on which the tariffs will become effective.

Imperial Valley has 23,000 acres of cantaloupes under cultivation at present. It was expected a few days ago that the growers would harvest 11,000 carloads, but considerable damage has been done by aphis this week, and the ranchers think that after they have culled out the melons which will be too small to ship at prevailing rates the output of marketable melons will be somewhere near 10,000 carloads.

The San Joaquin Valley is also a heavy producer of cantaloupes this year. It had 9000 acres under cultivation when a late frost killed all the vines. Many of the growers replanted their crops, and now there are about 7000 acres there. These melons will be somewhat late and ought to bring higher prices as a consequence.

The Lindsay district is said to have about 700 acres of melons under cultivation, and Turlock is going in heavy on watermelons this year. Altogether, the State's melon crop should be much larger than usual and the general expectation is that it will bring good prices.

According to Imperial Valley growers the new freight rate on cantaloupes should save the growers in that section from $300,000 to $500,000 this year.

There will be virtually a normal crop of cantaloupes in the Rocky Ford district, according to reports received in Denver yesterday, but there will be an appreciable loss at other points in the flooded districts along the Arkansas River.

"There was no loss whatever in the Rocky Ford district proper, which extends south from that place to Hawley, "said D. D. Dawson, who is heavily interested in that district. We expect to market a full crop about August 15. We have a 200 acreage of cantaloupes and fifty acres of honeydew melons. The Rocky Ford acreage all lies on high ground.

"There is also about 6000 to 7000 acres in cantaloupes and honeydews in the district which embraces Ordway, Sugar City and Swink. At those places little or no damage is reported.

"The combined acreage at La Junta, Las Animas and Lamar, I understand, is nearly a total loss. Las Animas sustained the heaviest loss, about 400 acres. The total loss is about 700 acres at those three places.

Imperial Valley cantaloupes are arriving slowly in the Denver market and are bringing fancy prices. Sales are mostly around $5 and $6. One enterprising Denver firm brought in a car by express yesterday which went quickly at $7 and $8.

ALL RIGHT TO FIRE CHASER.

Scott Tells People Kind of Crackers They May Shoot on Glorious Fourth.

Thirty-four different kinds of fireworks have been officially designated by the Board of Fire Commissioners as "safe and sane" for use in the celebration of the Fourth of July. Included in the approved list are sparklets, bengolas, shooting stars, yew trees, cascades, the ever-popular penny "chasers," old-fashioned torpedoes, silver rains, golden dragons, electric spangles, volcanoes, penny grasshoppers, penny "son-of-a-gun," pinwheels, torpedoes, silver and gold showers, flower pots and radium wheels.

Fire Chief Scott has issued a list of Fourth of July suggestions, saying, in part:

Announcement was made by the Santa Fe yesterday that it is publishing the following rates to apply from California producing stations to Galvestion, New Orleans and New York for export to Europe, and to Galveston and New Orleans for export to the West Indies and to Central and South America:

Dried fruit, 95 cents per 100 pounds; canned goods, 80 cents per 100 pounds; beans, 90 cents per 100 pounds; rice, 80 cents per 100 pounds and a rate of 50 cents per 100 pounds on barley to Gulf ports for export.

These rates are marked reductions and will be of assistance to California producers in enlarging the markets in which they can dispose of their farm products, the announcement says.

BRANDY COMES HIGH.

John Belletitch, living at North Broadway and College streets, pleaded guilty to having twenty-one pints of moonshine brandy in his possession and he was fined $300 by U. S. Dist. Judge Bledsoe yesterday. Belletitch said he bought the stuff at Vernon. The complaint against Marie, his wife, was dismissed.

Graduation Gift Suggestions

To permit this all-important event to pass without a remembrance to THAT ONE—whether it be daughter, sweetheart or chum—who has attained a coveted success, is to express forgetfulness of the one turning-point of life, which once passed never affords a second opportunity. Your gift should be one which will be useful, and which should assure grateful appreciation from the recipient.

Hamburger's
ESTABLISHED 1881

A 50% Decrease Brings 100% Increase Back to Normal!

A very obvious fact, but one that will bear emphasis because frequently overlooked. The public reads that certain prices have dropped 50%—and, coupled with it, is the statement that the retail price on the commodity in question advanced 100%. To one not daily dealing with figures, there may appear an apparent discrepancy.

The article that cost 1.00 in 1914 had to increase 100% to be 2.00, but having been 2.00, a decrease of 50% brings it back to normal. It is worth thinking about.

"From July, 1912, to May, 1920, manufacturers' prices advanced 172%, while retail prices increased by 105%, the former quotation soaring 67% higher than the retail figures.

"These figures, a conclusive answer to the charges recently made by certain governmental bodies against the good faith of retail merchants, are taken from the records of the U. S. Department of Labor and the National Industrial Board."
